

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER FROM WINNSBORO MILLS

New Arrivals.

Among the new arrivals in the village during the week were Messrs J. G. Peak, Harry Lane, Allen Sauls, and J. A. Jeffcoat, all of whom went to work in the card room; Mr. Levi Branham and Miss Boddie Kelly, who chose No. 2 card room; Miss Norah Sauls and Miss Maggie Brannon, who went to the spinning rooms; and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Carraway, who returned to the twisting room after an absence of several months. We cordially welcome these new members to our community life.

Visitors.

Mr. Everett A. Greene, treasurer of Lockwood, Greene & Co., managers, Mr. Robert West, local manager of the Carrhart Mills, Rock Hill, S. C. and Mr. R. L. Chisolm, assistant treasurer of Winnsboro Mills, visited the mill last Thursday.

Dr. Andrews, chief medical adviser of Lockwood, Greene & Co., managers, spent Monday and Tuesday with us. He offered this column the following clipping which we greatly delight in printing:

"His former office boys' tribute to John Wannamaker is: 'He was always at work on time.' The measure of success that crowned the merchant prince's effort attest likewise to the fact that after he got down to work he didn't waste any time watching the clock."

"A life that serves where a love deserves
The life and the love that give,
Is a life sublime on the fields of time,
This little greeting speeds it way."

Church Notices.

The Methodist Sunday school will be held at 3 p. m. Sunday. There will be no preaching service Sunday night owing to the union Christmas tree at the Baptist church.

The Baptist Sunday school will be held at 10:00 a. m., Sunday. At 11 a. m. a Christmas program will be given by the members of the Sunday school.

Sunday afternoon a union Xmas tree will be held. All children in the village 14 years old or under are invited, and each will receive a present. The tree will be at the Baptist church.

Too much credit cannot be given Preacher Gibson, Mr. Rambow and Mr. Hadaway for the work they have done in getting presents for this tree. Also many thanks are given to all those who so generously contributed so that the children could be made happier.

"May Christmas wreath your lips in smiles,
And mirth and laughter warm your heart,
Good Friends, who through succeeding years,
Have built with us, each one his part;
Our plant, whence on this holiday,
This little greeting speeds it way!"
