CONSUMPTION. Important to the Public as well as the Medical Profession.

Hall's Journal of Health, referring to Consumpti makes the following important statement: "Consumption usually begins with a slight, dry cough in the morning, then, on going to bed, getting more and more frequent, with more and more phlegm, increasing debility, thinness of flesh, short-ness of breath, and quickness of pulse. In fatal cases its average course is about two years; hence the importance of arresting the disease at as early a stage as possible, and the sooner rational means as employed for this purpose the greater the chance of success. The disease is owing to an irritation commencing in the throat and extending to the lungs, s that their action is interfered with, and the blood most marked sign of lung disease is emacia; the most positive indication of returning health is increase in weight." So speaks Hall's Journal of Health, and we may add that in desperate cases, and, in fact, in all cases of Consumption, or troubles of the throat and lungs, immediate relief may be obtained and a permane for the Lungs, a medicine known for more than thirty-five years as an unfailing remedy for coughs, colds, brenchitis and all pulmonary and pectoral tested to by the thousands who have used it, or have been cognizant of its wonderful remedial efficacy.

Newport, KY., April 29, 1877.

Mr. H. R. Stevens:

Dear Sir-Having suffered from a breaking out of Cankerous Sores for more than five years, caused by an accident of a fractured bone, which fracture ran into a running sore, and have used everything I could think of, and nothing helped me, until I had taken six bottles or your valuable medicine, which Mr. Miller, the apothecary, recommended very highly. A gentle slimulus, such as afforded the unquestioned means of preventing one of those numerous maladies to which the kidneys and Madder are subject, and which are so prone to terminate suddenly and fatally. Ne-phitis, Bright's disease, diabetes, catarrh and stone of the bladder are all maladies which, even in their inception, are well calculated to arouse the gravest apprehensions, but which may be checked at the outset with this benign preventive, which is also a fine restorative of general vigor, an anti-malarial specific, and emedy for dyspepsia, liver complaint, constipation, rhenmatism and nervousness. It is thoroughly reliable and safe, and a fine tonic for the enfeebled and desponding at all times.
