

THE GAMECOCK

Published weekly by the Literary Societies of the University of South Carolina. Terms, $1.50 a session, payable in advance.

The Gamecock solicits humorous sketches, essays, verse, etc., and will gladly publish such as is available, when accompanied by the full name of the author. Unsigned manuscripts will neither be acknowledged or returned.

All checks and money orders should be made payable to Berrard Manning, Business Manager.

Business Manager.
Bernard Manning, Sumter.
 Assistant Business Manager.
B. S. Beverly, Virginia.

BOARD OF EDITORS.

- Editor-in-Chief.
L. Wardlaw Smith, Spartanburg.
- Assistant Editors.
C. T. Simpson... (Euphradian) Euphradian Society.
W. B. Klugh... (Clarosophic) Clariosophic Society.
L. A. Bule... (Clariosophic) Athletics.
W. H. James... (Euphradian)
W. B. Ferrin... (Clariosophic)
 Locals.
J. O. Allen... (Euphradian) Y. M. C. A.

PRINTED BY THE STATE CO.

COLUMBIA, S. C., OCTOBER 27, 1908

LOCALS

Professor Easterling—"Mr. Sligh, why did you not work that proposition before coming to class? Don't you know there is no time like the present?"

Fresh Sligh—"Yes, sir, that's why I waited until now."

***

The friends of Mr. Bogan C. Trippett, '10, are sorry to learn of his recent illness. He will be out of college for several days on account of measles.

***

All local material for THE GAMECOCK will be gladly accepted if handed in on or before Saturday to the local editors, 9 E. Rutledge and 5 Monte Carlo.

***

Fresh Heyward to Soph. Sheppard—"I always thought they called the Charleston boys 'tar-heels.'"

***

"That skirt dance lasted two minutes at least."

"Sort of time exposure, hey?"

How about the Carolina Dramatic Club? Dr. Burney says he will give the use of the "New Lyric" for the performance.

***

Fresh Clark—"Speed, did you go to the fire?"

Fresh Speed—"Yes, you ought to have been there to see that mineral engine working."

***

Fresh D. C. Heyward, Jr., to smart Fresh J. B. Heyward—"Say, Jimmie, what's the use of the ankle?"

Jimmie (promptly)—"To keep the calf off the corn."

***

Fresh Seibels to Fresh Benet—"George, are you going out to the football skirmish this evening?"

***

Mr. "Cad" Coles, Clemson, '06, is visiting Mr. John Lee and friends on the campus.

***

Mr. Ralph Foster, '05, and Mr. Eugene Oliver, '04, former wearers of the "C," are with the boys this week.

Carolina is glad to welcome many alumni at the annual reunion of the "Palmetto State."

***

Professor Colcock has recently discovered, scientifically, that the man in the moon is a Democrat.

***

Prof. Snowden—"Mr. Marion, for what has the administration of Roosevelt been noted?"

Mr. Marion—"It has been an era of deformed spelling."

ETIWAN FERTILIZER COMPANY

OF CHARLESTON, S. C.

Manufacturers of the Well Known

Diamond Soluble Bone and Plow Brand Fertilizers

Also Etiwan Cotton Compound and High Grade Tobacco Fertilizers

WRITE US FOR PRICES

"THE BETTER KIND"

The State Company
 The State Building
 Columbia, - - - South Carolina

Call at our Office in the Book Store. If out of town, write. We will appreciate your orders, large or small