

FROM OUR SOCIETIES

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

M. A. MILLER.

The speaker for last Sunday was Rev. R. N. Pratt, pastor of the Second Baptist Church. He gave an interesting lecture on the subject, "Serving Our Age." The career of David was pictured as one of benefit, profit and service to the age in which David lived. We are to ask ourselves to whom is our service. We must be the servants of God; for surely not that service of sin, of the devil. God should have the preservation, right, and thoughts of our hearts.

The age in which we live is far different from that of former days. We are living in the best age. Therefore, we ought to study the age. How should we study our age? By spreading out the affections among our fellows. Our heart must be in everything we do. Then we must ascertain the particular part of service for us and devote ourselves to it.

Why should we serve our age? Because it is God's will. The greatest things spoken of in the Bible are about those serving their God in the best of their ability. Then, again, our age has served us faithfully from infancy to the present time. This is the only age in which we can directly serve.

The Bible Classes have been organized under the following leaders:

I. Prof. Gee.

II. This is a class with student leaders.

III. Prof. Bradley.

As these classes are ready for work, other students will do well to join now and get the full benefit to be derived from a careful study of the Bible.

It is said that we ought to be familiar with that which is classic. We ought to know the intellectual kings of the human race. Some of the chief characters of the Bible are classed among the intellectual kings.

The Y. M. C. A. in every particular is for all the students. As it is for all, it ought to be well supported and attended by all. Certainly the majority, if not all, of the students come from Christian homes. They ought not to let that Christian spirit be dormant, and possibly die, because they are far away from those who are dear to them.

Many of the students know what great effort was put forth last year to get a student secretary. This move would have succeeded but for the Legislature. We wish to put forth even still greater effort this year for a student secretary. The need for just such a man is urgent. Talk this matter over among your fellows and help to make a strong, hard pull that will succeed in getting the student secretary.

Get a "devil" boys, get a "devil"—25c.

CLARIOSOPHIC

W. B. KLUGH, Editor.

The Clariosophic Society was honored by the visit of an honorary member, Prof. W. P. Gee, on last Saturday night. We are always glad to have any of the honorary members and alumni with us, and we sincerely hope that they will come more often in the future.

The Society contributed $7.50 to the Democratic Campaign Fund.

On October 24th the following query was debated:

"Resolved, That the jury system should be abolished."

Affirmative: V. E. Rector, Miller, V. J. Rector.

Negative: Callison, Mellichamp, Ritter.

The committee decided in favor of the negative.

Mr. L. W. Perrin, Clariosophic, '08, was on the campus last week. Mr. Perrin is now reading law in the office of Mr. S. J. Simpson, of Spartanburg, S. C.

Mr. C. L. Shealy, '08, Clariosophic, paid the Society a visit on Saturday night, October 24th, and addressed the new men of the Society.

Program for November 7th, 1908:

Declaimers—Warren and Gary.

Reader—Youmans.

Orators—Quattlebaum and Moody.

Debate.

Query: "Resolved, That the qualifications for voting in the Democratic primary should be the same as in the general election."

Affirmative: McCarthy, Ferguson, Johnson.

Negative: Blake, Kinard, Officer.

III. French Class.

(Text) Les chemins étaient couverts de monde, . . .

Senior Rembert—"The roads were covered with mud."

. . . ses cornettes garnies d'un triple rang de dentelle; . . .

"Her head was adorned with a triple row of teeth."

Mr. J. C. Hardin, of Wofford, the winner of the State Oratorical Contest, '08, is visiting on the campus.

Senior Dargan was greatly disappointed to learn that they would not give any sandwiches at the Free Kindergarten Lunch Counter—"at the Fair."

The friends of Mr. Arthur Ligon, '10, are glad to learn that he has returned to Carolina for the rest of the session.

Mr. Clinton Graydon, '10, has been at home several days with a slight attack of fever, but his many friends are glad to know he is now well on the way to recovery.

EUPHRADIAN

CHAS. T. SIMPSON, Editor.

On Saturday night, Oct. 24, the Euphradian Society held its regular first-term election of officers. As a result, the following officers were elected:

President—B. J. White, '09, Rock Hill.

Vice-President—S. B. Rich, '09, Barnwell.

Literary Critic—B. Manning, '09, Sumter.

Secretary—Roy Izlar, '10, Orangeburg.

Treasurer—M. F. Bush, '10, Aiken.

Censor—D. E. Finley, Jr., '10, York.

Orderly Critic—W. F. Haynesworth, '12, Sumter.

Custus-Forum—J. C. Sheppard, Jr., '09, Edgefield.

Recorder—C. E. Sligh, '12, Florence.

Librarian—J. S. Hoey, '10, New York.

Mr. Allen Jones, '07, now of Clemson College, paid the campus and Society a visit last week.

Mr. Bratton Davis, '08, was seen on the campus last week. He is engaged in business in Winnsboro.

Mr. Henry Bouchier, '08, spent several days of last week with friends on the campus, returning Monday to Wofford College.

Following is a list of new names that has been added to the roll:

T. H. Moffett, D. C. Scott, Jr., M. C. Tolley, E. Corothers.

In joint assembly last Saturday night the following officers were elected for the Roddey Medal Debate:

President—L. W. Smith, '09 (Clariosophic).

Chief Marshal—J. H. Hammond, Law, '10 (Euphradian).

The assistant marshals from the Euphradian Society are: C. E. Sligh, '12, and D. C. Heyward, Jr., '12.

Following are the appointments for literary exercises for one and two weeks hence:

For November 7.

Readers—Brockinton, Clark and H. Green.

Declaimers—Siebels, P. Y. Wright, and Mobley.

Subject for Extemporaneous Speaker—Public Office as a Public Trust.

Weekly Orator—J. H. Johnson.

Debate.

Affirmative: Carroll and Fromberg.

Negative: Hand and Laird.

Query: "Resolved, That Congress should require corporations doing interstate business to secure Federal licenses."

For November 14.

Readers—Shorpton, Simkins and Monclon.

Declaimers—Furse, J. B. Heyward, and F. Simpson.

Subject for Extemporaneous Speaker—Shall the People Rule?

Weekly Orator—C. T. Simpson.

Debate.

Affirmative: Moffett and J. C. Sheppard, Jr.

Negative: J. H. Brown and I. F. Belser.

Query: "Resolved, That deportation would be the best solution of the negro problem."

Mass Meeting in the Chapel

On Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock the corps of Clemson Cadets met with the University student body for the purpose of uniting once again and forever blotting out the feeling which once existed between the two institutions.

Several speeches were made by members of both colleges.

B. J. White, President of the student body, was the first speaker of the evening. He welcomed the Clemson Tigers and expressed to them the willingness of the University boys to wear the purple and gold along with the garnet and black.

O. M. Clark, President of the Clemson student body, then took the chair, and he also expressed the willingness of the Tigers to once more go hand in hand with the Gamecocks.

Among the other speakers of the evening were I. F. Belser, representing the Varsity; J. C. Massey (Carolina), Geo. Keitt (Clemson), J. C. Sheppard, Jr. (Carolina), Prof. Gee, now at the University and a graduate of Clemson, '08; Allen Jones, now a student of Clemson and a graduate of Carolina; and last but not least, B. D. Carter, now studying law at the University and a graduate of Clemson, '07.

As soon as the meeting was over the body of Tigers and Gamecocks, consisting of about seven hundred, marched up Main street and around to the College for Women.

LOCALS

Mr. Black Hyde, of Charleston, has returned home from a visit to friends at Carolina.

Among the Fair Week visitors were P. R. Moore, '07; R. C. Reed, '05; S. H. Wilds, '06; John Wilds, '05; T. D. Sligh, '08; L. W. Perrin, '08; J. B. Davis, '08, and W. D. Aiken, '05.

Messrs. Rudolph Hamilton, '06, W. B. Marion, '06, and David Hamilton, '07, were in the city during the week.

Fresh Walker has, after lengthy consideration, announced that he will not be at Carolina this year. Regrets.

Miss Lottie Klutz, of Chester, is visiting Miss Vivian Hand.

Miss Martin, of Sullivan's Island, is the guest of Miss Colcock.

Miss Haynes, of Greenville, is also visiting Miss Burney on the campus.

Dr. C. W. Bain and Prof. Baker will attend the meeting of the Southern Educational Association which meets during this month in Nashville, Tenn.