

EUPHRADIANS DEBATE MOVING UNIVERSITY

Negative Wins Decision—Initiate Eight New Members—First Regular Program of Year

For the first time this year the Euphradian Literary society held a regular program. Last week an unusually large number of candidates were initiated and the reading of the constitution completed the evening's program. Messrs. Bolin, Patrick, Gause, DuBose, Karesh, Prescott, Codes Green, and R. R. Coker, were initiated at the regular meeting Tuesday night.

On the regular program, Leslie Dickert and E. H. Zeigler delivered current events. H. L. Bolling assumed the role of wise-cracker for the evening with witticisms. Leslie Edwards, brought Poincare back to the public ear with the delivery of the address to the citizen's of Verdun. Carolina football prospects were reviewed by Mims Hall.

The regular debate of the evening was presented affirmatively by Thomas Bussey; they were opposed by T. K. Collier Rease Joye and Harry Barnett. The question "Resolved: That the University property in Columbia be sold and the school moved to a rural location" was decided in favor of the negative team.

CLARIOSOPHS INITIATE MORE NEW MEMBERS

Take Steps to Preserve Valuable Records of Society—Term Elections Scheduled Next Week

More would-be orators and public speakers were initiated in to the protecting folds of the Clariosophic society at its regular meeting Tuesday night.

The first speakers of the evening were Thomas Wofford and Ray Godshall, declaimers, and Loyd Hendrix, current events.

Lee Crocker, orator of the evening, gave some interesting points in the history of the society. He told of the establishment of the two societies and of their trials in the hard years that followed.

The debaters of the evening were O. L. Warr and R. C. Barbare on the affirmative and C. W. Scott and Sidney Burns on the negative. The committee on debate rendered a decision in favor of the affirmative.

Steps were taken to preserve the records of the society which are very valuable. These records will be placed in order, and locked.

After several unimportant and routine matters were disposed of the society adjourned until next Tuesday evening, at which time, officers for the coming term will be elected.

FOURTEEN CANDIDATES INITIATED BY HYPATIANS

Appoint Executive and Social Committees—Constitution Read To Initiate—Next Meeting in Clariosophic Hall

Many freshmen and new students are losing no time in getting themselves lined up with the different student organizations on the campus.

At the meeting of the Hypatian Literary Society Wednesday afternoon in the Clariosophic Hall fourteen new names were presented for the vote of the Society. The following new members present were administered the oath by the vice-president: Miss St. Claire Hopkins, Miss Vera Hook, Miss Ruth Taylor. The following names will be voted on at the next meeting: Miss Eirene Mayers, Miss Marie Bruce, Miss Pansy Hyatt, Mrs. Elizabeth Hammett, Miss Lucy Cole, Miss Ada Brown and Miss Annie Kaminer.

Since this was the first regular meeting of the new year, there was no literary program. An executive committee composed of the President, Miss Seabelle Jones and Miss Carrie Nell Goff was appointed and a social committee composed of Miss Ora Mae Jackson and Miss Virginia Goff.

For the benefit of the new members the constitution of the society was read by the vice-president.

The next regular meeting of the society will be next Wednesday afternoon in the Clariosophic Hall. The

"Y" RECEPTION FOR FRESHMEN IS BIG SUCCESS

Gamecock Orchestra Furnishes Music—Punch Bowls Receive "Grand Rush"

C. C. AND CHICORA THERE

Dr. Melton, Dean Baker, and Other Faculty Members Present—Faculty Wives Help Entertain.

It's over, but the memory of the Freshman Reception will linger in the minds of the students for a long time.

Practically the entire student bodies of Columbia and Chicora, together with a sprinkling of the Co-eds, were there. The Gamecock orchestra furnished the music and many feet could be seen moving impatiently, or unconsciously keeping time to the music.

Punch bowls also received the "grand rush" and had to be refilled very often. Double shifts of co-eds had to be used and worked in relay fashion to keep the thirsty lads and lassies from falling prey to the warm smiles that floated about.

Chicora, led by Mrs. Byrd, was the first to arrive on the scene and boys began to pour in by the scores. Quite a congestion took place at the main entrance where each had to stick his address on before being admitted.

Ten minutes later, the advance guard from Columbia college was seen approaching down Sumter street by keen eyes on the portico of the gym. The same scene was seen again enacted at the door as the "C.C." girls came in. Some boys were caught in the act of throwing away their identification cards just to be able to go back and mix with the girls.

The stirring committee was busy by this time and "Every lassie has her laddie."

Ten o'clock came too soon and the general exodus began, Columbia college girls going to catch the street cars and the Chicora girls walking down Bull street.

Many members of the faculty were at the reception, including Dr. Melton and Dean Baker. The professors wives assisted the Y. M. C. A. by taking charge of the punch bowls and decorating the room.

topic is unusual in theme and will give the members a chance to express their opinions about works of literature and will probably bring out many interesting points for discussion. The program is as follows:

Roll Call: Response with favorite author.

KERSHAW STUDENTS ELECT WITTKOWSKY

Chosen President—Elred Truesdale, Vice-Pres., and Edna Carson, Sec.-Treas.

Plans for a Kershaw County Club on the campus materialized Monday night when a number of students met in the University Chapel. According to reports some of the members were in doubt of the propriety of preceeding without the presence of Mills who was elected president of the student body two weeks ago, and who is from Camden. But the brave hearts prevailed and the elections were held.

Mr. Cecil Wittkowsky was elected president, Miss Edred Truesdale, vice-president, Miss Edna Carson, secretary and treasurer.

A committee composed of Miss Louise Hirsch, Miss Edred Truesdale and C. O. Bruce was appointed to make plans with the club editor of the Garnet and Black for the Kershaw County Club picture. Plans were discussed for a reception or banquet to be held some time during the year but nothing definite has been decided yet.

The following were present at the meeting: Miss Eva Truesdale, Miss Annie Truesdale, Funderburck, Olin Truesdale, L. J. Truesdale, W. R. Taylor, Annie Hegler, Permelia Faile, Louise Hirsch, Cecil Wittkowsky, Nettey Mae Carson, Edna Carson, C. C. Bruce and Pansy Hiott.

This list however, does not include all the students from Kershaw County who are registered in the University.

PEELER—JOHNSON

The marriage of Redfern Johnson, Carolina freshman, to Miss Katherine Peeler, Columbia college, was quite a surprise to their friends. They were married by Dr. Carpenter at his home, Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Johnson is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. T. E. Peeler, of Ellor. Mr. Johnson is in the Commerce School of the University.

After a trip to Miami they will return to their respective colleges and continue their studies.

Ralph Bauknight, also a University student, acted as best man for Mr. Johnson.
