

Lambda Chi Fraternity Started On Campus

Hither 'N Yon

By JOE THOMPSON

Turkeys, pumpkin pies, the game, and the week-end at home and other schools seem to have added greatly to the gaiety of many Carolina students from November 25th to the 29th. Although no holidays were in the offing, it can't be denied that the occasion was one to be thankful for under any of the existing circumstances.

We can readily say that the outcome of the last game has left a good taste in our mouths, and all the boys may well be congratulated on their individual performances.

Among the Co-eds attending the game we find such names as these: Frances Olmsted, Doris McLeod, Jane Specht, Virginia Anne Buckner, Eleanor Barwick, Mary DuBose, Merial Black, Binky Ellerbe, Kitty McFarland, Martha Burgess, and Rosemary Vincent.

Sorority Pledges Elect Officers—

Alpha Delta Pi: Betty Murphy, president; Dottie Sue Hay, vice-president; Alma Chase Mobley, secretary; Jane Marvin, treasurer. . . Chi Omega: Skinny Fowler, president; Mary Varn, vice-president; Lib Gibert, secretary-treasurer. . . Delta, Delta Delta: Dot Grigsby, president; Mary Lorick, vice-president; Sally Nash, secretary; Esther Gregorie, treasurer; Susanne Lyles, chaplain. . . Delta Zeta: Dottie Taylor, president; Patsy Brackett, vice-president; Harriett Lee, secretary-treasurer. . . Kappa Delta: Bert Wilson, president; Ann Darby Tison, vice-president; Mariapne Guerry, secretary; Jean Jones, treasurer. . . Pi Beta Phi: Nancy McDonough, president; Flo Millard, vice-president; Charlotte Schultz, secretary-treasurer. . . Zeta Tau Alpha: Naomi Staley, president; Jane Ketchin, vice-president; Carol Funderburg, secretary; Jackie Batson, treasurer.

Initiations—

Delta Zetas initiated on November 24th Becky Turner, Ethel Lazar, and Hamilton Simpson. Week before last the ADPis took into their sisterhood Adelaide Stovall, Allan Bonnoit, Virginia Beacham, and Jane Greer Bell.

A Little Added Zest—

The KDs entertained with a Big Sister-Little Sister supper Thursday night at Friendly's . . . on Wednesday night, the Pi Phi went on a hay ride to Hawkin's Hurst, home of Mrs. Maude Hawkins.

Reminder—

The Co-ed Association is now meeting twice a month with special planned programs of interest to every co-ed. . . The wonderful co-operation between the Sophomore YW and YM should be sighted here—Wednesday a luncheon was given; now watch for other joint functions of these two organizations.

Notice to Sims Residents—

Authorities at Sims have announced that the penalty for untidy rooms will be restriction. If a note is left at two different times in the same room telling a girl to clean the room immediately, there may be danger of that dreaded restriction. So, come on girls, don't let this happen—it would be awful to have to give up those Saturday night dates.

S'long—

For now, but don't forget that Santa Claus came to town Monday. The girls were asking for either A's or fur coats—wonder if the boys asked for A's instead of Bainbridge. As long as dreams still exist at Christmas time remember what someone once said: "If you wish long enough in your heart and strong enough in your mind, you'll get what you want for Christmas." Start now instead of waiting a week before time to hear the clatter of the reindeers' feet.

Fraternity Founders

Pi Kappa Phi Plans Formal For December 9

Pi Kappa Phi fraternity will sponsor a formal dance at the Columbia Hotel on Thursday, December ninth.

Captain Needham, V-12 Commandant, has granted special liberty to all men under his command who receive bids. Music for the occasion will be furnished by Melvin Hemphill's thirteen piece orchestra. Decoration motifs will be in the fraternity colors of gold and white—with greens. The program will include four no-breaks and one special following the grand march. Chaperons will be the local alumni and University officials.

Preceding the special no-break a fraternity sweetheart will be selected by the alumni of the Sigma chapter.

Pi Kappa Phi officers are: Jay Hammett, president; Jimmy Parler, treasurer; Dean Clary, secretary; George Caddy, historian; Bobby Rigby, warden; Graham Hopper, chaplain; and Donald Bailey, chairman of the dance committee. President Hammett urged all men who receive bids to attend. He said, "We have always felt, and I hope not without justification, that previous Pi Kappa Phi formals have been more than average dances. Preparations for this formal have been careful and complete. I can apprehend no reason why all who attend should not enjoy a thoroughly satisfying evening."

Hypatian Society Officers Elected

The Hypatian Literary Society of the University of South Carolina, called a special meeting, its first of this semester, for the purpose of electing officers, last week. The new officers are: Lillian Parker, president; Anita Stone, vice-president; Neta Stark, secretary; Margarite Christmas, treasurer; Marian Roblin, recorder and Bee Efram, critic. Elected as Student Council representative was Camille Hudson.

Rushee Pictures Sorority Parties

If you had seen a girl dressed like a gangster, brandishing a pistol, and giving an excellent imitation of a "tirty-tird street" accent as she told the story of Cindarella who "lost her glass kick at the brawl", you would not have been in the wrong section of New York, but merely at a sorority rush party, where Jane Marshall, a Kappa Delta, was adding to the hilarity. Though most of rush week is now only a blur of co-eds, Coca-Colas, and cordiality, distinct as the red-penciled marks on an exam paper.

At the request of the omnipotent Sultan at the Delta Zeta's harem-party, a majority of people gave excellent interpretations of harem-dancers.

However, we weren't a bit taken back and attended the Tri Delta Hobo picnic a few days later without any fear that we would be struck by lightning, though it did look like rain.

Exhilarating Rainbow Drinks Featured

Everyone agreed that the ZTA's certainly had unusual drinks at their night-club party. We'll never forget that Zeta Zombie—all foamy and green, or was that purple? We hear the Pi Phi Can-Can party was so much fun, too. Their invitations were certainly original.

One co-ed was heard to say, after seeing the fashion show that the Chi Omegas put on: "Those are the best looking clothes I've ever seen". But, then, so were the models. The ADPis had one of the best bridge parties we've been to in a long time. A meeting was held, in which a definite program was outlined for the coming semester. It was decided to have speakers selected from the University faculty, debates in which the members will participate, and a program demonstrating the artistic accomplishments of the various members.

Everett Made A. K. G. Head

New officers for the fall semester were elected at the last meeting of the Florence Nightingale Circle of Alpha Kappa Gamma, national honorary leadership sorority. The meeting was held Tuesday, Nov. 30 at 6 p. m. in Mrs. Arney Childs' room at Sims dormitory.

Betty Jane Everett was elected president, Joyce Hetzel vice-president, Jaudon Harley secretary, Anne Floershiemer treasurer, Isobel McCants scholarship chairman and Cele Roberts historian. The installation of the new officers will be held Thursday, Dec. 2 at 6 p. m.

The circle's project for this semester has not been decided yet but the sale of Tuberculosis Christmas Seals will be sponsored next week in the post office for V-12 and civilian students, and in Davis College for V-5 cadets.

Sorority Council Discusses Rushing

Meetings of the Panhellenic Society are to be held the first Wednesday of every month, at 6:30 p. m. It was decided at a meeting of the society Wednesday, Nov. 17.

Rush Week was the main topic discussed. A representative from City Panhellenic told the assembled group that Rush Week, as it was, was a failure. Each sorority was asked to question new pledges, and investigate to the fullest extent the reasons for the confusion and weakness of the plans. The work of the society for the next few months will be to outline an entirely new, and more successful method of rushing new girls.

Present officers of Panhellenic are: President, Inez Morali; Vice-President, Olive Hudson; Secretary, Frances Padgett; and Treasurer, Anne Gregory.

A special meeting was called for Wednesday, Nov. 24, to hear the Board's decision on rules governing sorority and fraternity houses.

There will be a formal initiation of those new members just selected to join the society, and a social welcoming them. This is expected to take place just after the holidays. The meetings of the Hypatian will be held twice monthly in Clariosophie Hall, on Wednesday afternoon at 4:15.

Ward Made Frat Head; Rushing Will Start Soon

Tri-Delta Honors Pledges At Dance

Actives of Delta Delta Delta sorority will give a dance Saturday night, December 4, at the Woman's Club for the new pledges. The hours for the dance are 8 'till 12 and music will be furnished by a nickelodeon.

Officers of the Tri-Delt pledges are: Dot Grigsby, president; Mary Lorick, vice-president; Sally Nash, secretary; Ester Gregorie, treasurer; and Susanne Lyles, chaplain. Other pledges to be honored at the dance are: Marjorie Pinckney, Betty Childs, Mildred Beler, Barbara Lee, Lee Lorick, Margaret McLeod, Beverly Cappelman, and Rosalind Spong.

Chaperons will be Dr. and Mrs. J. Rion McKissick and Professor and Mrs. R. H. Wienefeld. Betty Crews, a past member of the sorority, and parents of the pledges have also been invited to attend.

Officers of the chapter are: Katherine Elliott, president; Joyce Hetzel, vice-president; Helen Pride Craig, secretary; and Alice Marchant, treasurer.

Four no-breaks will be featured during the dance.

Coeds Hold First Meeting

Josephine Robinson, newly-elected president of Co-ed Association, held the first meeting of the new semester in the former Pi Beta Phi room in Sims dormitory at 5 o'clock on Wednesday, November 24.

Mrs. Arney Childs, Dean of Women, spoke at this time. The adoption of a new point system and the inauguration of a class in Nurse's Aid carrying one credit was discussed.

Every Carolina girl is automatically a member of Co-ed Association. Its purpose is to serve as an instrument through which a co-ed may contact her fellow students and through which this union of co-eds

Lambda Chi, a social and service brotherhood, has taken its place among the fraternities of USC by charter of the University. The new organization hopes to affiliate itself with the national Zeta towards which aim negotiations have been started.

Largely responsible for the establishment of Lambda Chi have been: Bill Ward, freshman law student; Jack Holter, V-12, and ex-Colgate Lambda Chi Alpha; and Cliff Wigham, V-5 from Dennison College and also a brother.

Rushing activities will begin immediately. The first party will be held Wednesday evening, eight o'clock, at the home of Captain and Mrs. William E. Czarnitzki in Arcadia. Prominent brothers have stated that their chapter intends to maintain an opulent social calendar to include at least one party or a fraternity supper weekly.

Ernest Davis, secretary, commenting recently on the aims and purposes of Lambda Chi stated, "One of our motives is to effect greater congeniality between the various fraternities on the campus. Plans for this effort have been formed but have not yet completely crystallized into a suitable program of action."

"Lambda Chi is founded on good will, brotherhood and a solid financial basis. We sincerely hope that our fraternity will develop into an important addition to the forces striving toward good fellowship, good friendship, and good fun at the University."

At a meeting recently the following officers were elected: Bill Ward, president; Charles E. Edensfield, vice-president; Ernest Davis, secretary; Jack Welch, corresponding secretary; James Nance Parr, treasurer; Charles R. McMillan, pledgemaster; and Jack Holter, brotherhood proctor.

may serve the University. For a girl to be nominated for an office or to be eligible to vote in the Co-ed Association, she must have attended 50 per cent of the meetings which are held twice a month.
