House Is Remodeled By Presbyterians

(See Page 8)

Vol. XLIX, No. 12

CROWING FOR A GREATER CAROLINA COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA, NOVEMBER 20, 1958

Founded 1908

Registrars Meeting Held At University

The University was host at the fall meeting of the South Carolina Association of College Registrars meeting which was held yesterday.

Registrars from all the universities and colleges throughout the state met in the Russell House assembly room for a morning and afternoon business session. After registration, which began at 10:30 a.m., coffee was served in the assembly

At 11 a.m., the opening session began with the invocation which was given by Catherine Harper of the Medical College of South Carolina. Dr. R. L. Sumwalt, acting president of the University, gave the recognition of guests and an-

Address

The address was given by Dr. Elford C. Morgan of Atlanta, Ga. debate with an English team con-He spoke on "The New Program of Self-Evaluation and Periodic Visitation Sponsored by the Commission on Colleges and Univer-

Luncheon

A luncheon was held in the Russell House dining room at 12:30 p.m. At the afternoon business session which began at 2:15 p.m., Mr. S. D. Stoney, state high school supervisor, spoke on "Today It Is Important WHO Does Not Go To College."

Other speeches were given by Mr. J. G. Kelly, Advisor to state board of education and Clemson College registrar; and Mr. K. N Vickery, state coordinator for AACRAO. Mr. H. O. Strohecker. consultant at the University, spoke on "The Registrar's Office."

After the business session, the annual meeting of the registrars adjourned.

Holidays Begin Today; Classes Resume Monday

Thanksgiving holidays will begin today at 5 p.m., according to Mr. B. A. Daetwyler, registrar. The vacation period will continue through Sunday, and classes will resume at 8 a.m. on Monday, Dec. 1.

fraternity, has elected five men to membership, Mac Rivkin, presito service to the University. Among the fraternity twice a year.

fore the State Fair holidays.

University Wins Debate Over English

representatives of the debate team were given the decision in a sisting of two members of the famous Oxford Society.

The decision was given to the University's team by the judge, Prof. James R. Simon, on the basis of superior information and evidence, which he said was presented by the University's negative team. Representing the English were Stuart Griffiths and Brian Waldern, first and second affirmative speakers respectively.

The University was represented by Fred LeClercq and Pete Martin, who contended the negative.

Groups Take Thanksgiving Collection

The religious groups on the Carolina campus are sponsoring a Thanksgiving collection for funds at the half-time of the Carolina-Wake Forest football game tomorrow, Ted Ledeen, YMCA director, has said. The collection is in recognition of World University students of the world.

Approximately 100 collectors, ncluding campus AFROTC members and Explorer Scouts, will serve on this project.

The five new members are:

New members are accepted into ternity, Interfraternity Council, clerk of the South Carolina student

CHARLIE CATE—Sigma Alpha

the main projects of the group are Epsilon social fraternity, officer, student union committee, Sigma have been outstanding in some JOHNNY HAGINS - pledge Kappa, YMCA cabinet, freshman hase of campus life - scholar- trainer, rush chairman, and cor- camp counsellor.

Hillel Foundation, the Cotillion legislature.

American Society of Mechanical ager and advertising manager of

Blue Key Fraternity Names

Election Of Five Members

Blue Key, honorary leadership, ship, leadership, or service.

Blue Key's activities are devoted Club, and the Dean's List.

the publication of a student direc- honor board, vice-chairman of the tory, the sponsoring of high school honor council, student council, day and a campus-wide dance be- president of the junior class,

Blue Key recognizes men who Engineers, Kappa Sigma Kappa.

Sorority Song Fest On Dec. 8

Alpha Kappa Gamma, women's leadership fraternity, announces its annual Songfest in Drayton Hall at 8 p.m. Monday, Dec. 8, Kitty Wells, president, has announced.

Admission will be fifty cents per person. All sororities will present several selections around their chosen themes. Among the selections will be a medley of Stephen Foster's songs and some songs from the Broadway play "Carou-

AKG will tap their fall members during intermission, Wells said. Proceeds from Songfest will go into the AKG loan fund. It is a revolving loan fund for junior and senior University students.

Loans up to $200 will be made upon recommendation by the dean of men and dean of women, Wells

Students Will Have Tutoring

Student Union Committee has begun a tutoring service for those students who are in need of such service, Nancy Shirley has announced.

Those students who are interested in serving as tutors should fill out a card with their name, address, phone number, rates (per hour), courses which they have had in the department in which they will tutor and a note from the head of the department stating that they are qualified.

The cards should be mailed to Nancy Shirley, box 3113, campus post office.

This information will be filed and will be on hand at Russell House information desk for those The money goes to help needy students wishing to avail themselves of the service.

responding secretary of Sigma

RICK HARRISON-sports editor of the "Garnet and Black."

Alpha Epsilon, freshman football.

social fraternity, circulation man-

RION RUTLEDGE-Sigma Nu

Sen. Strom Thurmond Addresses Legislature

TKA DEBATE WINNERS

The Tau Kappa Alpha Regional Forensics Tournament was held last week-end on the University campus. Representatives were prsent from many colleges and universities from throughout the southern region. Fred LeClercq from the University (left) won first place in extemporaneous speaking aud second place in impromptu. Bob Trammal and Marty Layfield joined to win first in negative debating; they are from Mercer University. The girl is Ricky Rapp from the University of Alabama, who received the Governor's trophy for the best school record. The two debaters on the right are Joe Roby and Tom Temple from Vanderbilt who won first place as affirmative debaters. (News Service Photo)

Dr. Cressey Speaking Third Lecture Series

expert on the geography of Asia Asia, Too Much or Too Little." and the Soviet Union, will be heard next Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in Russell House assembly room as the third lecturer in the series, "An Age of Struggle."

Dr. Cressey's lecture, "How Strong Is Russia?," is one in a series presented by the department of international studies. Dr. Chi, Westphalian representative, Richard L. Walker is head of the STEVE BAUMRIND - presi- 'Y' camp counsellor, freshman department. dent of Blue Key, has announced. dent of Phi Epsilon Pi social fra- orientation, Kappa Sigma Kappa,

The South Carolina state chapter of the Soil Conservation Society of America will also hear Dr. Cressey at a dinner meeting at 7:30 p.m. Monday in Holiday Inn, Cayce. At this meeting, Dr.

Strength." "The Gamecock," Kappa Sigma City Officals Will Not Cut Green Street

City officials have said the city cannot cut off Green Street as suggested by the student council parking committee, Carroll Teague, committee chairman, said.

Teague discussed the campus parking problem with Harry Bellinger, city engineer, and Chief C. B. Bundrick of the campus police.

Spaces Available

spaces are left in the lots behind School yesterday on importance the new men's dormitories. The of study, extra-curricular activifee is charged because of the ties and preparation for college. original cost for the parking lots.

The committee sent a letter to the city suggesting that a blinking caution light be put before Russell House. The letter will be considered by the city Wednesday, Dec. 3, Teague said.

Open Meeting Monday

The Parking Committee will floor of Russell House. Any student who has anything to say concerning the parking situation is welcome to attend.

Dr. George B. Cressey, noted | Cressey will speak on, "Water in | Asia and the deserts of Iraq and adjacent nations in the Middle

Public Invited

The public is invited to both pro- countries. grams, but persons desiring to attend the dinner meeting must place reservations at $2.50 per person not later than Thursday (Nov. 27) by notifying Jesse Jordan of the Soil Conversation Service, or the Richardson Foundation, who Prof. Guilbert R. Graham at the University. There is no charge for the Russell House lecture Tuesday.

Dr. Cressey is a well-known author. Among his books are "Asia's Lands and Peoples," "How Strong Is Russia," "Land of the 500 Million-a Geography of in the "Age of Struggle" series. China," and "The Basis of Soviet but Feb. 10, there will be a lecture Global Struggle" by Col. Paul C.

He is Maxwell Professor of Geography at Syracuse University.

Dr. Cressey's six visits and nine years of residence in Asia have director for intelligence of the Centaken him from the Siberian Arctic tral Intelligence Agency and intelto Java and from Turkey to Japan. in the interior of China, centra

13 Students Visit Local High School

Thirteen student council repre-He announced that ninety $10 sentatives talked to Dreher High

Students giving the program were Fred Day, Anna Boswell, William Marshall, Fred LeClercq. Vicki Rumph, Mike Quinn, Jack Taylor and Ed Harter. Also, Jim Herring, Bob Wallace

Bobby Hunt and Happy Cotton. George Leventis was appointed co-chairman of the dance committee, Fred LeClercq, student body president, has announced in counmeet at 4 p.m. Monday, Dec. 1, in cil. Carmen Cherry has been apthe Student Council Room, second pointed to the Student Union board which is between Currell and Davis Colleges. Committee.

The Russel Loan Fund spon-

University Has 22 Delegates

By CHARLES BEHLING Staff Writer

Senator Strom Thurmond will be the guest speaker of the State Student Legislature on Thursday, Dec. 4, Boopa Pritchard, chairman of the University delegation to the legislature, has announced.

Thurmond will speak during the banquet on the opening night of the legislature. University students will be invited to the portion of the banquet at which Thurmond speaks.

Campus Meetings

Meetings of the legislature will be held on Dec. 4, 5, and 6, and, for the first time this year, all of the meetings will be held on the University campus.

Usually the group meets in the State House, but this year due to renovations which are being made on the building, the meetings will have to be held on the campus.

The banquet will be held in the new upstairs cafeteria of the Russell House.

Discussion Topics

The four topics to be discussed y the legislature are local option, right to work laws, regulation of small loans, and compulsory insurance for automobiles.

Pritchard defined the purpose of the meeting as to study legislative procedure. Representatives from all colleges in South Carolina will

University Delegates

Jim Leventis, student body treas-East, and his travels have taken urer, is chairman of the State him to five continents and 70 Student Legislature and is an automatic delegate. The "Age of Struggle" series at Delegates from the University the University is bringing out- to the House of Representatives are Carmen Cherry, Jo Kirven, Bobby Hunt, Jack Taylor, Bill Berne, Jack Stone, Jim Herring, John Houser, Bob Wallace, and Ranny Randall.

Also, Dick Stanland, Julie Petoskey, Ronnie Banks, Mike Quinn, George Leventis, Nick Abrams, Bob Rogers, Vicki Rumph, Patsy Irick, and Sam Mendenhall.

Boopa Pritchard and Heyward Hornsby were elected as senators.

Deadline Given For Applications

Sunday has been set by the registrar's office as the deadline for filing applications for degrees and

Forms can be picked up at the registrar's office and returned to the deans of the schools and colligence adviser to the National leges. This applies to graduate as He has had extensive experience | Security Council Planning Board. | well as undergraduate students.

KSK Announces 15 New Members standing experts on the Soviet Previously heard were Frank R.

Barnett, director of research for spoke on "Political Strategy in a Divided World," and Michael Lindsay (Lord Lindsay of Birker), whose address was titled "The Final Address

Dr. Cressey's address will b

the final one of the calendar year on "Psychological Warfare and the

On March 3 "The Long Range

Soviet Challenge" will be the subject of Robert Amory, Jr., deputy

Davis of the Army War College.

Problem of Co-Existence."

Union to Columbia.

Kappa Sigma Kappa, honorary service fraternity, has announced the election of 15 men to its membership, Boopa Pritchard, corresponding secretary, has announced.

KSK is an honorary service fraternity which recognizes outstanding men who have contributed to the development of the campus.

New Members

New members are Ronnie Banks, Billy Crolley, Fred Day, ohnny Hagins, Jim Herring, Ed Martin, Mike Osborne and Lawton Rogers.

Also, Teddy Cohen, Bill Herring, Bill Latham, Sam Mendenhall, Rion Rutledge, Bob Wallace and John Houser. Initiation will take place at a date to be announced later, Pritchard said.

Projects

KSK ushers at the football games and annually sponsors May Day. They also give scholarships to boys who most deserve them on the basis of needs, grades and usefulness.

Last semester, KSK installed the glass-cased bulletin

King Dixon is president of KSK for this semester. Jim Leventis is vice-president; Max Rivkin, secretary; Boops sored by student council has been Pritchard, corresponding-secretary; and Dave Stanford, used to give two loans this year. | treasurer.

BLUE KEY INITIATES . . . Blue Key National Honorary Fraternity recently elected five students into membership. The new initiates are (from left) Charlie Cate, Johnny Hagins, Rick Harrison, Steve Baumrind, and Rion Rutledge. Formal initiation of these men will take place in the near future.