By MARY ADAMS Staff Writer

Are you tired of the same old meat and mashed potatoes scene? How does tortilla from Uruguay, English Cornish pasties, Mexican tamales, Hawaiian shu shi, Chinese

Rep. Dorn Addresses Democrats

from South Carolina's Third Con- into a swingin' London discotheque gressional District, will address complete with psychedelic lighting. the USC Young Democrats Monday, Dec. 4.

1946, becoming one of the youngest wards. members of the 80th Congress. In Profits from the banquet will be lege. Refreshments will be served, understanding."

fried rice with shrimp and ham, and Latin American guava pie sound to you? Different?

These are just a few of the many lishes to be offered at the International Students' Club banquet December 9 at 6:30 p.m. in Columbia Hall. Tickets on sale are $.50 for club members, $1.50 for USC students and $2.50 for others. No board plan cards accepted. All food will be prepared by the students themselves.

Adding to the international flavor of the evening, the students will entertain with songs, dances, and plays from their own countries. For example, the English W. J. Bryan Dorn, Congressman group will turn Columbia Hall

The dress of the banquet will be semi-formal or formal for those Dorn, a native of Greenwood, who are planning on going to the was first elected to Congress in Carolina Christmas Dance after-

1948 Dorn was an unsuccessful given to the University for scholarcandidate for the U. S. Senate. ships and loans. These are not Since 1950 he has served continu-limited to international students ously in the House of Representa- but to whomever the University

Dorn is a ranking member of the Jose Diaz, a senior electrical en-Public Works Committee and the gineering student from Colombia, second ranking Democratic mem- South America, stressed that the ber of the Veterans Affairs Com- most important aspect of this banmittee. He also serves as secretary quet is not the food or the enterof the House's informal textile tainment. "The object of our banquet is to allow Americans to get The meeting will be held at 7 together with international stup.m. in Room 101 of Harper Coldents thus promoting international

Carolina Winter Ball

. . . is coming, December 9

Enjoy the Holiday spirit and formal atmosphere, with the

GLENN MILLER ORCHESTRA

at the University's own special Winter Ball.

Formal Dress National Guard Armory

No Charge 8-12 p.m.

Choir Ushers In Holidays

Microphones flanking the statue of Washington convey the sound of a choir of over 1,000 voices, conducted by Arpad Darazs of the USC music faculty, at the first annual Governor's Carolighting ceremony Nov. 26. Governor Robert McNair lit the official S. C. Christmas tree erected in front of the Capitol.

Guest speaker will be Virgil Ouffie, director of Palmetto Boys'

New members include Barry Knobel, Tim Foster, Mike Eidson Mike Rozbitsky, Carl Ellsworth, Darriel Cato, Elbie Conard, Mike Foron, Robert Belding, Michael Thomas, Tom Chappell, Bruce Rosen, John T. Jacobs, Don Gordon, and Toney Lister.

Other new members are Robert Bleakley, Bailey A. Trammell, Hugh Rutledge, William Cain, Don Hult, William R. Hudson, Tom Kelly, William F. Smith, Fred Zeigler, Andy Woodward, Denny Royal, André Brown, Joe Pearson, Clyde Livingston, William Cullum, Ryan B. Hamer, Jim Crosby, and Johnny Gregory.

KSK plans to aid in the annual

Kappa Sigma Kappa, USC hon-state Heart Fund drive. The fraprary-service fraternity, will give ternity sponsored a rat hat sale a banquet Dec. 5 honoring its 33 this semester for the band scholarship fund.

> Members are selected on the extracurricular activities.

Batson Calls Students 'Most Important Part'

lecture," advised students to be-tionships with professors, Dr. Batcome acquainted with their profes- son, said, "Professors like to teach. nation at large. sors and classmates to get the full They like students and want to be benefit of their college years.

alled students "the most im-chance." portant part of the University" in and Objectives."

Advising students not to short- Lecture Series.

Union Lectures Committee's Last Rice and Obie awards.

-Campus News Beat-

Bus Drivers Requested

Deadline for filing applications is Dec. 16. Application forms and stitute for Student Interchange.

East-West Center, Honolulu, Ha-

CAPTAIN VISITS USC

C.O. of the nuclear submarine An-frew Jackson, visited the campus recently and spent some time with

He made a presentation on the Navy's nuclear power program and graduating seniors into the Subnarine Service and into the nu-

FINE ARTS EXHIBIT

Student Union will present Three

Eyes Arts Society Dec. 1 - Jan. 1

The Fine Arts Committee of the

Commander T. K. DeMun, USN, waii 96822.

the NROTC unit.

clear power field.

in the Russell House.

The Student Union needs volun- | 70 scholarships to Americans for teer bus drivers who are willing to the 1967-68 academic year. drive occasionally for USC groups. The University requires that drivers must have or have had a school information may be obtained from bus driver license from any state. the Office Student Selection, In-

Interested persons should contact Joe Watson, Student Union International Committee, Campus

STUDENT SPEAKS

Donald Vik, senior international studies major, spoke to an assembly of Eau Claire High School on the topic, "Why The United States Is In Vietnam."

Vik's speech was in support of nuclear submarines. The talk was a general program sponsored by presented for the benefit of junior the YWCA of Columbia. His first and senior NROTC students, and talk was given to the student body designed to interest and recruit of Olympia High School Nov. 15.

JOB INTERVIEWS

The following interviews will be held by the placement bureau: Dec. 4-Gulf Oil, Department of the Air Force; Dec. 5-American Enka, Naval Facilities Engineering Command, S. C. Natl. Bank, Internal Revenue Service, Electro Voice, Consolidated Freightways; Dec. 6-Jewel Tea Company, Dan River Mills, R-C Motor Lines; Dec. 7-Sperry Rand-Univac, Dept. of Housing & Urban Development; Dec. 8-NASA-Kennedy.

SCHOLARSHIPS OFFERED

The East-West Center, which basis of good character and repu- States, Asia and the Pacific area tation, judged from grades and together for advanced study at the University of Hawaii, is offering brings students from the United Wed., Dec. 6, in the USC Field Playhouse and the Newport Casino four years ago by Elaine Sulka and York, abandoned work on a doc-Philip Meister who had the vision torate degree at the University of Dr. Wade Batson, in his "last change themselves in their relation making culturally significant Wisconsin to begin a career in dramatic literature available to the theater. After acting in off-Broad-

CELLULOID SOCIETY

The Celluloid Society and the Common Grounds Coffee House will present five experimental films of the 20's and 30's at the Wesley Foundation Dec. 1 at 7:30 p.m.

GAMMA BETA PHI

Eta Chapter of Gamma Beta Phi nducted Mary Dixon, Virginia Graves and Richard Hansen at a ceremony for new members and officers this month. Dr. J. W. Harris, secretary-treasurer of National Gamma Beta Phi and editor of the Gambet, assisted in the induction.

Dr. Bruce W. Nelson, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, spoke to the members. Nelson suggested that they concentrate their efforts on several good projects.

Gamma Beta Phi is a non-profit leadership organization for American college and university students. Its objectives are to encourage and assist scholarship and to encourage and assist qualified high school graduates to continue their education into college.

Shakespearean Cast Will Present Tragedy

traveled Shakespeare group ever Academy and assisted in the proto tour the United States and last duction of a number of plays on year covered more than 30,000 Broadway, in the Northeast and in miles in an extensive eight-month Italy. tour of 35 states.

The company was established friends. Any one of them can in- ment, outside the National Shake-Dr. Batson, professor in biology, fluence your life if you give him a speare Co., was directing the critically acclaimed off-Broadway Lady Macbeth, Kate in "Taming Dr. Batson addressed an assem- production of "Happy Ending" and his discussion of "The Big Four- bly of students and faculty Nov. "Day of Absence" by Douglas Tur-Students, Professors, Colleagues, 20 in the first of the Student ner Ward, winner of the Vernon

He has founded and co-owned couple.

The National Shakespeare Co., two off-Broadway theaters, worked vill present "Romeo and Juliet" as resident director of the Lenox Theater, served as directing fellow The company is the most widely of the American Shakespeare

Miss Sulka, a Phi Beta Kappa alumna of Queens College in New way productions and numerous Meister's most recent achieve- Shakespeare festivals, she joined the National Shakespeare Co. as > of the Shrew," and Rosalind in 'As You Like It." The play will begin at 8 p.m. Admission will be one ID card per producer and actress, appearing as

JEJRIEJE DOMANNING REGISTER MOW

FILL IN AND MAIL ENCLOSED CARD OR PICK UP ONE ON CAMPUS. ONE ENTRY PER STUDENT. TO BE ELIGIBLE, ALL SPACES MUST BE COMPLETED. THIS DRAWING IS BEING HELD TO HELP INTRODUCE THE GREAT BOOKS PROGRAM TO THE STUDENTS AND FACULTY OF THE UNIVER-SITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA. NO OBLIGATION AND YOU DO NOT HAVE TO BE PRESENT TO WIN.

GREAT BOOKS

PUBLISHED BY ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITAI IN COLLABORATION WITH THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO