Indian Students Dine

The India Students Association is sponsoring a dinner April 3, 7:30 p.m. at the Capstone with USC President Thomas F. Jones as the guest speaker.

Tickets are on sale for $1.50 for students and $2.50 for guests.

The affair will feature Indian entertainment and eight different Indian dishes.

USEFUL MATH?

The charge leveled by some students against the Math Department is that the Math taught is not "useful."

What is "useful" math? Is math of any value in "general" education?

These questions and others are implied by the charge. Pi Mu Epsilon, a math gathering, will pay twenty five dollars for the best opinion.

Best opinion: as judged by a panel of two students, two faculty, on the basis of originality of thought and objectivity.

The winner will be announced May 19, final day to submit entries: May 5. We will attempt to have the winning essay published. Mail entries on campus to
