SGA lists priority rules

The Student Government Association Academic Affairs Committee is again handling registration priorities for the spring semester.

PRIORITIES WILL BE ISSUED FOR THE FOLLOWING REASONS ONLY:

1. Health problems
2. Job-class conflicts

Priorities will NOT be given for these reasons: 1. students' fear of getting closed out of classes, especially graduating seniors. According to University policy, graduating seniors cannot be closed out of required courses. 2. Absence on the day of registration. (Jan. 14-15.) If a student must be absent, someone else can register for him.

The deadline for priority requests is Tuesday, Nov. 9. Forms may be picked up from the Student Government office across from the Information Desk in Russell House.

CHILD-REARING PROGRAM

The Carolina Wives Club is sponsoring a child-rearing techniques program for Carolina married students in cooperation with the University Counseling Bureau and the State Division of Community Mental Health.

The six-part series will begin Sunday evening, Oct. 10 at 7:45 p.m. in room 104 Wardlaw. There is no fee for the program which will run through Nov. 14.

Students and their spouses who wish to participate in the program should call the Counseling Bureau at 777-5223.
