explosive attack, scoring on long plays.

VPI touchdowns came on a 96-yard kickoff return by Billy Hardee, a 74-yard pass from Ricky Popp to Hardee and a 36-yard Popp pass to Ricky Scales. The lone Gobbler goal was set up by a 46-yard pass play.

The only consistent part of Tech's game was their running attack, but it did not seriously hurt the Gamecocks at any time.

Running back James Barber slipped several USC tackles enroute to a 164-yard day on just 18 carries. Phil Rogers carried 10 tens to gain a total of 68 yards.

But no Gobbler running back scored a touchdown, with Carolina's defense only breaking down when Tech elected to go for the long play, and not when Tech went with their consistent ground game.

When asked about the possibility of dissension among the jayvee team, Head Coach Bob Mauro responded, "When you score 55 points, somebody has to be playing together."

"Whenever you have a program with this many people in it there are always some complaints."

Mauro also had this to say about quarterback Bass, "He's a great one, he'll go a long way."

When asked about his performance Bass said, "I was satisfied. Their(FSU) defense played just like we wanted them to."

Mauro had only praise for Florida State's team, saying, "They're a good football team, real big on the line."

The Biddies scored eight touchdowns with Bass running for four and passing for two, one each by Scott Blackman and Jim Arrington. The other came on runs of 32 yards by Kevin Long and 29 yards by Russ Manzari.

Dietzel Improved

Carolina football coach Paul Dietzel was reported progressing satisfactorily Sunday in Columbia's Baptist Hospital.

Dietzel, in the hospital since last Monday with an intestinal ailment, missed Saturday's game with Virginia Tech and doctors still said they don't know when he will be released from the hospital.

A series of tests and X-rays will be taken of Dietzel today and tomorrow. Doctors will then determine the next phase of treatment for Dietzel.

Soccer Club Beats CBC

The Carolina Soccer team bounced back from a defeat at the hands of The Citadel and defeated Columbia Bible College Saturday afternoon 3-1.

The goals were scored by Richard Abernathy, Ken McCord and John Rosier.

The Club's record stands at 3-2-1 and their next game is this Saturday home against Florida Tech at the field on the corner of Whaley and Sumter streets at 3:00.
