

Tyler James Cook

Tyler,
We are very proud of you. Not just for your academic accomplishments, but also for your wonderful spirit. Good luck in graduate school.

Love,
Dad, Mom, Paul and Lane

Christopher B. Galloway

Congratulations Chris!

Good Luck at Washington and Lee!
We are so proud of you!

Lots of Love,
Mom, Tommy, Dad, Michelle, Danielle, Granny, Patti, Paul, Eddie, Stephanie, PJ and Grandma

QUESTIONS • CONTINUED FROM 12

House located on Green Street in Columbia. You may wish to telephone the University Bookstore at 803.777.4160, or visit their website at <http://sc.bkstor.com>.

• What should I wear underneath my academic gown?

We recommend that men degree candidates wear dark trousers and shoes, and an appropriate shirt underneath their academic gown. Women degree candidates should wear dark slacks, dress, or skirt and an appropriate blouse underneath their academic gown. For safety and comfort, women are encouraged to wear dark low-heeled shoes.

• Do I need to arrange to have my photograph taken as I walk across the platform?

Professional photographers will photograph each degree candidate as he/she is greeted by University President Sorensen and dean. No prior arrangements are necessary for this service; all degree candidates will be photographed during the ceremony. There will also be

QUESTIONS • 14

Lindsey C. Morschauer

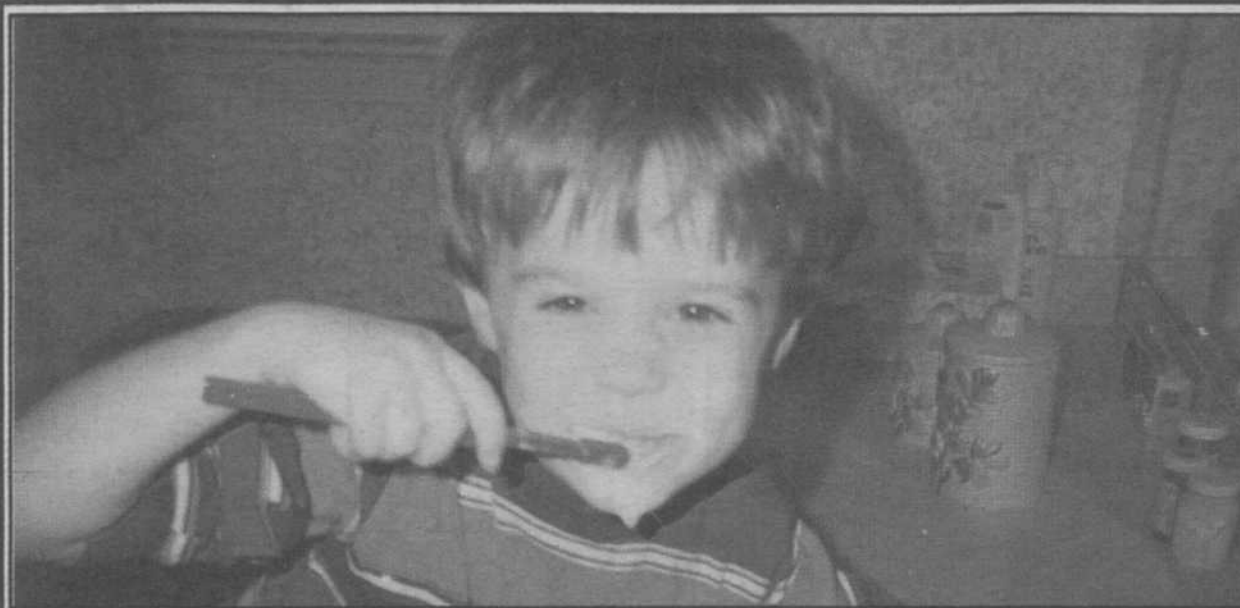

It has been an exciting journey. At times, it seems the seas were rough. But successful navigation brings you safely to port, as predicted the crowd cheers- "CONGRATULATIONS, WELL DONE!"

Brandy Nicole Mosteller

Brandy,
Your life and achievements have given us much pride and joy. May your future bring you the happiness and success you so well deserve.

We love you,
Mom & Dad

Richard Cunningham

You have always chosen your own path and you have proven your way! Congratulations on your successful college career. We are so proud of you and your accomplishments.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Michael