

MRS. JEFF. DAVIS HAS PASSED AWAY.

Widow of Distinguished Confederate Answers Death's Call.

RELIGIOUS RITES WERE GIVEN.

Soon After the Clergyman Left Mrs. Davis Became Unconscious and So Remained Until the End—Pneumonia Was Cause of Her Death.

New York, Oct. 1.—Mrs. Jefferson Davis, widow of the president of the Confederacy, who had been ill for a week at the Hotel Majestic, in this city, died at 10:25 o'clock Tuesday night.

Death was due to pneumonia induced by a severe cold which Mrs. Davis contracted upon her return from the Adirondacks, where she had spent the summer months.

Although grave fears were felt from the first, Mrs. Davis' wonderful vitality which brought her safely through a similar attack a year ago, gave hopes of ultimate recovery until Monday night, when a decided change for the worse was evident and the attending physicians announced that the end was near. It was then believed that Mrs. Davis could not survive the night, but she rallied slightly during the early hours of Tuesday. Shortly after 7 o'clock in the morning she had a similar spell, and Rev. Nathan A. Seagle, rector of St. Stephens Protestant Episcopal church, was hurriedly summoned to give religious comfort to the patient in her last moments of consciousness. The clergyman remained some time, and an hour later it was announced that Mrs. Davis had lapsed into a state of coma. The period of unconsciousness continued to the end.

At the bedside when death came were Mrs. J. Addison Hayes of Newark, N. J., the only surviving daughter of Mrs. Davis; Jefferson Davis Hayes, a grandson, who is a student at Princeton university; Mrs. Charles B. Bateson, a niece; Dr. and Mrs. Gustav Webb, the latter a granddaughter, and Dr. Robert H. Wylie, who with Dr. Webb, had cared for Mrs. Davis throughout her illness.

J. Addison Hayes, husband of Mrs. Davis, only living child, had been summoned from Colorado Springs and was hurrying across the continent, when a message announcing Mrs. Davis' death intercepted him.

Mrs. Davis has for some years made her home in this city, where she had a wide circle of friends. Throughout her illness, solicitous inquiries regarding her condition were continually made at her apartments.

Definite plans for the funeral had not been made, but it is understood that services will be held here by her pastor, and it is definitely known that the body will repose beside that of the late president of the Confederacy in Richmond.

At the Majestic hotel it was said that the body would be taken to Richmond, Va., on Thursday.

THE OLD FOLKS AT HOME Are Never Without Pe-ru-na in the Home for Catarrhal Diseases.

Mr. T. T. Markland.
"I find that in my case Pe-ru-na is a flesh builder. I am now at work every day, and have gained ten pounds. I took your Pe-ru-na according to directions, and the result was more than I expected. I can now breathe with ease, and also my cough is stopped. I had it for six months before I took down with the grip. I took no other medicine but Pe-ru-na and it accomplished all. You told me in your first letter that Pe-ru-na would cure me and it has. I am seventy-three years old and can attend to my work and business as usual." Mrs. Theone Mikkelsen, Brigham City, Utah, writes:

GAINED 10 LBS. IN WEIGHT.

A GOOD WORD FOR PE-RU-NA.
"I wish to congratulate you on your medicine, Pe-ru-na. I have been a sufferer with catarrh of the stomach for over two years, but since I have commenced to take your remedy I have been steadily improving until now I can safely say I feel no more of my old trouble, and as a matter of course, I will always have a good word for Pe-ru-na. I recommend it to all my friends." Mrs. Magdalena Winkler, Route 4, Westminster, Md., writes:

PRaise FOR PE-RU-NA.
"When I wrote to you the first time, asking your advice, my condition was so poor that I did not expect to live through the winter, but now I am perfectly healthy. I cannot praise your medicine enough and I recommend it to others." T. T. Markland, a well-known business man of Cincinnati, O., writes from 8100 Woodburn Ave., as follows:

If you think all ready-made clothes are alike, you haven't seen our Schloss clothes. The way they look is one difference and a big one. Extra good styling and tailoring is responsible for that and the materials are as good as the tailoring.

Just drop your prejudice against "Ready-Made" long enough to try on a Schloss Suit. You'll find it far better than the average custom-tailor's work.

We have all the latest styles. Come and see them.
