

March 20th was the hottest on record for the date in Charleston and Atlanta.

Officers captured a blockade still on the very top of Glassy Mountain in the dark corner.

A fire in the Atlantic refining works at Point Breeze, Pa., done over $1,000,000 damage.

A thief burglarized the depot at Belton, S. C., and secured a number of express packages.

Several Italians were killed and others injured by the collapse of a building in Cincinnati, O.

Joshua Harrison, on trial at Elizabeth City, N. C., charged with kidnapping and murdering the nine-year-old son of former State Senator Beasley, was found guilty.

Two colored women were shot to death by a mob near McKamie, Ark. They were charged with using a razor on a white woman and her daughters and kicking her son.

The weather bureau at Washington predicts that the hot spell will be followed by several weeks of cool weather. It was snowing in the New England states on the 24th inst.

The cotton crop for the year 1906, according to final census report as sent out from Washington, March 20, was 18,290,677 bales as against 10,725,602 in 1905, and 13,697,310 for 1904.
