

THE SENTINEL-JOURNAL.

Entered April 23, 1903 at Pickens, S. C., as second class matter, under act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

VOL. XXXVII.

PICKENS, SOUTH CAROLINA, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12 1907

NO. 29.

Ain't They Cute.

Two of the Contestants in our Baby Show.

THESE ARE BRIGHT FACED YOUNG AMERICANS.

We will publish two more next week. Send in your photographs early so we can publish the pictures.

N. D. Taylor will be in his studio in Pickens next Saturday and every Saturday thereafter until Dec. 15th.

This contest closes December 18th, 1907.

The Gatherer.

The Comings and Goings of People—Some you know, some you don't.

BY MISS GUS-SIE HUBBARD

On Friday evening a dance given by Messrs. Oscar Gravelly and Avery Looper, at the residence of Bailey Robinson, was enjoyed by a number of young people. Those present were Misses O. A. Richey, Dora Henkel, Mary Lewis, Nora Jones, Josie Chastain, Eloise Herd, Maud and Hortense Stansell and Messrs Sam Craig, John Craig, Jack Lewis Arthur Lewis, Farman and Norman Holder, Jesse Morris, Furman Morris, Carlisle Newton, Frank Smith of Easley, Frank D. Easley, Ernest Freeman, Willie Boggs, Frank Ferguson, Roy Grandy, J. F. Kown and Ben Martin. Wash Bowen called the changes.

The Pickens Chapter of the U. D. C. had a call meeting last week at the residence of Mrs. C. E. Robinson, and sent Mrs. Marie Folger to represent the Pickens Chapter at the state convention which meets in Camden.

Miss Margaret Holder visited relatives and friends in Pickens last Wednesday.

Chas. E. Robinson went to Orangeburg last week to attend the Baptist convention of laymen which met in that city.

Mrs. Florrie Griffin and her granddaughter, Miss Christine Sutherland, have returned from a pleasant visit to relatives and friends in Catachee and Central.

Miss Maud Ashmore, of Atlanta, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ashmore, is warmly welcomed to Pickens by her many friends.

Daniel Winchester of Eastator, was the guest of Rev. J. M. Stewart, Tuesday.

Geo. F. Lee and Bayce Miller, of Greenville, were the guests of Hon. T. J. Mauldin last Thursday. D. Lee is considered authority on micro-organisms, and came to Pickens for the purpose of locating a gold mine.

The friends of Russ Allgood are glad to see him able to be out again, after having experienced such an ever illness from typhoid fever.

while attending Wofford College in Spartanburg. By order of his physician he will be compelled to discontinue his studies until next fall. This is to be regretted, as Mr. Allgood made a splendid record as a student while at Wofford and also won the esteem and confidence of his teachers, who speak of him in the very highest terms.

Miss Gertrude Harris celebrated her twelfth birthday last Thursday by entertaining a number of her young friends at a birthday party. Delicious refreshments were served and the happy crowd of children spent a pleasant afternoon playing games and looking at the numerous presents.

Miss Viola Gilstrap visited friends in Pickens last Thursday.

Miss Maud Stansell was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Bailey Robinson, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Jennings visited relatives and friends in Greenville last week.

Misses Lucia Folger, Helen Boggs, Frances Bruce, and Misses H. Good Bruce, Sidney Bruce and Julius Boggs, Jr., went to Easley, Friday evening, to witness "The Old Maids' Convention," rendered by the Easley Comedy Company.

A. M. Morris went to Charleston, Saturday, as a delegate from the Keowee Lodge of Pickens to the Grand Lodge, which meets in that city.

Will Gilreath, and W. E. Beatty, of Greenville, spent Saturday hunting on the old Ambler place above Pickens.

Mrs. W. E. Hill, of Easley, spent Friday with her sister, Mrs. Dave Stansell.

T. M. McCarty, of Orangeburg, is visiting his brother, Rev. S. T. McCarty.

HEARD OVER THE BACK FENCE.

It is said that Major L. B. on wants to have a free and easy town during the Poultry Show. He says for everybody to come to town on those days and enjoy themselves.

Policeman Nealey says that during the Fair—Dec. 19, 20, 21, he will lay aside his vested authority and be one of the boys, and will bother no one unless they say they have a better saddle horse than he has.

A COUNTY FAIR.

Pickens Will Have One

Will Pull Off a Stock Show and Agricultural Exhibit.

On Dec. 19-20-21 what is known as the Pickens Fair Association will have an exhibit. It will be small, but it will be good; and means the nucleus of something big and good another year.

Everybody should help bring this enterprise through successfully. There can be no money premiums paid this season, but the ribbons will answer and are worth as much or more, from a competitive point, than a cash prize.

Exhibits are solicited of all kinds of needle and fancy work, vegetables, agricultural products, fruits, preserves, pickles, jams, jellies; and baking, such as bread, cakes, etc. In fact, anything you feel like exhibiting—old clocks, heirlooms of any kind, old laces, silks, etc., any fancy hand-stitching or machine sewing, or anything else you care to place on exhibition.

Elsewhere in this paper is published a premium-list which gives fuller information about the fair.

Circulars, handbills and hangers are being distributed about the fair, and Pickens extends an invitation to everybody to be our guests on those days. A cordial welcome awaits you all.

By the way, it is said that Capt. T. J. Mauldin cannot make up his mind what breed of chickens to stock up on—and he can't get the room to put in a pen of every kind, so he is liable to miss the Poultry Show.

Hon. J. E. Boggs, who has a little hitch, or affliction in his speech when making remarks in polite society, has become very much enthused over the Poultry Show and talks it a great deal, so much so that when talking now, on any subject, he prefaces his remarks with, "Cut-tut, cut tut." He's a great old rooster.

By way of the back fence we hear that R. E. Bruce says he is a good chicken-raiser—when it is cooked, but he hasn't got time to fool with them with the feathers on, but when it comes to having the best driving horse in the county he's right there.

We heard the following: "I tell you, that fellow Ballinger is a scorcher. We thought that Jones ambushed us, but they say he is nothing compared with the new preacher. Why, they say Ballinger scores you on one side and then rubs salt in, then he scores you on the other side and salts that, then he scores you in front and puts both salt and pepper on. Oh, but won't he make these folks feel like 'small potatoes,' and some that couldn't be gathered, as the old cat sat up yawning about this time!

"Well, now, John, you are awful changeable. Why, some time ago you were sure and positive that cotton was going to 15c per pound and you were going to hold for that figure. Now, here you are, changing front, and advising me to sell at 11½. I won't do it. I'm going to hold if I lose." But the listener passed on, and he doesn't know what John said, or whether either succeeded in convincing the other, or was sold or who held their cotton.

"Now, Ben, those chickens are all right. They are warm and comfortable, and are on the roosts. Why, no, you know they haven't laid—did you ever see or hear tell of a chicken laying at 12 o'clock at night? Here

Ain't She a Hummer.

How Does It Look To You, Now?

Where Have Your Guesses Gotten To?

Report Published Again Next Issue. More Surprises in Store for You.

MANY NEW FACES THIS WEEK.

FOR CARRIERS' PRIZE.

Ross O'Dell, Liberty,	7345
R. F. Herd, Pickens,	2610
R. L. Henderson, Pickens,	2910
Jake Allgood, Liberty,	1010
Middleton Hester, Pickens,	3260
C. G. Masters, Central,	4335
Wm Mullinix, Central,	1010
D. G. Lambert, Easley,	815
B. F. Freeman, Pickens,	4145
McWhorter, Liberty,	300
Frank Hendricks, Pickens,	6235
Hal Boggs, Calhoun,	1000
Steele, Central,	500
Mark Hunt, Dacusville,	600

SCHOLARSHIP PRIZE.

Dreamers' Arthur, Liberty,	4680
Miss Lucia Earle, Pickens,	4265
Tillman Garrett, Hurricane,	2505
Miss Zora Smith, Central,	2465
Miss Lena Balentine, Central,	5180
Miss Lida Leslie, Easley,	295
Miss Essie Kelley, Pickens,	1230
Miss Katy Edens, Pumpkintown,	1005
Miss Elsie Herd, Pickens,	460
Miss Viola Gilstrap,	5340
Miss Pearl Dalton, Hurricane,	1470
Miss Ida Elrod, Pumpkintown,	400
Miss Bessie Thomas, Dacusville,	200
Miss Jessie Parsons, Liberty,	1000
Miss Mattie Bowen, Easley,	105

FOR TOWNSHIP PRIZES.

CENTRAL.
Lena Balentine	5380
Zora Smith	2440
EASLEY.
Mattie Bowen	415
Lida Leslie	295
LIBERTY.
Alma Clayton	4980
Jessie May Parsons,	1000
PICKENS.
Lucia Earle	4265
Essie Kelley, Pickens	1230
Viola Gilstrap, Pickens	5140
DACUSVILLE.
Ridney Watson,	300
HURRICANE.
Lizzie Garrett	2360
Nora Chapman	1235
Pearl Dalton	1270
EASTATOR.
Flora Winchester	685
Leona Chapman	200
Lida Thomas	260
PUMPKINTOWN.
Ira Elrod	915
Katy Edens	1285

The snowstorm last week was general all over the state and was followed by very cold weather.

The American Audit Co. finds the books of the state dispensary in a chaotic condition, and loose methods of keeping them and misapplication of funds means a heavy loss.

Anderson county is working a novel scheme to get good and reputable men to serve as jurors. Clerk of the Court Watkins is sending a circular letter to responsible people in each township urging upon them to furnish names of the best men in each township to put in the jury box. A good scheme.

THIS COUPON entitles the holder to 5 votes in The Sentinel-Journal's Prize Contest.

5 votes for..... Rural Carrier
 5 votes for Miss..... of..... Township
 5 votes for..... for scholarships