

Some Things You Know and Some You Don't Know About Our Towns, County & People

—We believe the late freeze scared the small grain crop heap worse than it hurt it.

—Had you noticed that the weather just can't, or won't, stay bad for long at a time?

—Born, on the 18th instant, unto Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Harris, a fine boy.

—The population of Pickens is gradually increasing. Lets make it 5000 by 1912.

—Electric lights and other improvements are good things—but for how long?

A certain lady who is on a jury of Judge J. by the way, in Pickens.

Can you guess how many poultry cranks there are in this county?

—Last Monday, the 22d inst., was Washington's birthday. It was a legal holiday.

N. D. Taylor will be in his studio in Pickens, over Bolt & Co.'s drug store, on Saturday, the 27th instant.

—Mrs J. W. Cochran, of Calhoun, visited the family of her brother, A. J. Boggs, clerk of court, last week.

—Mrs. Thos. Bolt has been confined to her room on account of sickness, since her return from a visit to her sister in Atlanta.

—Maybe, when the city clerk begins to collect the $1.00 tax on dogs, there will not be so many worthless curs around Pickens as there are at present. It will mean "the survival of the fittest."

—The Stearn Tailoring Co's. expert tailor, will be in Pickens at Craig Bros. March 2-3, 1909 with a full line of samples and made to order suits.

—The county clerk will pay a license of $7.50 each for the privilege of being physicians. They will have to put on a 10 per cent raise on their own fee bill in order to play even.

—The Clinton Chronicle says that "Mrs. M. McCaslan is slowly regaining her strength." Her many friends in Pickens will be glad to hear this and hope that she may soon regain her wonted health.

—Pickens is putting on some fireworks! She has gotten out of her old clothes and is now wearing new pants and red top hats. With her electric lights and new licenses she feels she is a new person. Here's hoping for more improvements.

—The brethren who were at the funeral of Keowee, A. F. & A. M., at the hall in Pickens, during this year, by looking on the calendar, where they are putting all the dates, will find that they are all there.

—The funeral of Keowee, A. F. & A. M., was held last week at the hall in Pickens, and was attended by a large number of people. The funeral was very impressive and the services were well conducted.

—We want the name and P. O. address of every person breeding thoroughbred poultry in the county, together with the name of the breed. Bring or send this information to us at once. A postal card will do the trick and we will send you a card.

—The fair quite a number of people for the in and out of the county. It is a very interesting and profitable business. The fair is well attended and the people are very interested in the exhibits.

—Our collector is now taking a vacation. Don't wait for him to call but please step in and pay that little bill. We need the money.

—Miss Ada Craig, of the Keowee side of the county, is on a visit to the families of her brothers, E. H. and J. B. Craig, in Pickens.

Miss Janie Griffin, a charming and popular young lady from Greenville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. M. Hester in Pickens. Miss Janie's friends are always glad to welcome her to our town.

—Mrs. I. M. Mauldin, Miss Cassie Bolt, J. T. Richey and Clifton Bolt, were among those from Pickens who attended the play "The Clansman" at the Greenville Opera House last week.

—If you are building or interested in roofing, it will be to your advantage to read the ad in this paper of the Burris Metal Shingles. Write the Manufacturers, Jno. T. Burris & Son, Anderson, S. C., for prices &c.

—THE SENTINEL-JOURNAL was perused more closely last week by the people of Pickens than in a long time—and not a word was said against it. It contained the supply bill, the first one ever enacted by our little city—and the folks don't know what to make of it or see any way to get around it.

—Anderson Babb has bought a lot from J. McD. Bruce, of the Griffin property, on Ann street, and is now laying down lumber to build a modern ten-room house just above the Kelley home. Anderson believes in having plenty of houses in town and will build them himself if no one else will.

—THE SENTINEL-JOURNAL office has installed a telephone, which we trust will be a convenience to all who have need to transact business with this office. Any news items that you think will be of interest to our many readers or any commercial printing or advertising you desire to place with us, we will appreciate it if you will call us up. Our Number is 32.

—W. A. Templeton, of Belton, was in Pickens last week, in the interest of a Lyceum course for our city. He represents one of the best bureaus in the South and is prepared to put on some fine attractions here. Mr. Templeton has followed this business for a number of years and is a hustler and always works for the concern placing the best attractions. He met with considerable encouragement while in Pickens and Messrs. R. E. Bruce and J. W. Swittenburg will be in charge of the local course and it will be a success goes without saying.

—Miss Bessie Partridge, a sister of our popular townsman, J. Troupe Partridge, will conduct a millinery business in Pickens this season, having engaged floor space with Folger, Thornley & Co. She will go north this week to select her stock and will give our people some nice goods to select from. Miss Partridge has had several years experience along this line, is a milliner of exquisite taste and is thoroughly familiar with this business. Messrs. Folger, Thornley and Co. are fitting up a nice room for the display of her goods and the millinery opening will take place early in March, announcement of which will be made through these columns.

—E. Folger, left Friday night for northern markets to purchase spring and summer goods.

—Miss Mattie Findley while trying to skate Tuesday night at the home of J. T. Partridge, fell and broke one bone of her forearm.

—Jesse Lewis has arranged to give Pickens a first-class automobile service and he has machines all ready for business as soon as the weather permits. Jesse understands every phase of the "automobile wagon" and we predict that he will do a nice business.

—Mr. Sullivan, of the Sullivan, Eskew Merchandise Co., of Liberty, accompanied by his milliner, left this week for northern markets to purchase a magnificent stock of Spring and Summer Dry Goods, Millinery and clothing. These gentlemen expect to carry one of the largest and best selected stocks in the up-country.

—A message recently received by friends in Pickens from Hon. George S. Legare, states that he is in the Government Sanitarium in Colorado and is getting along nicely. He is taking the open air treatment and is sleeping out of doors under six inches of cover. Mr. Legare is very hopeful of his condition. His many friends in Pickens and throughout the county will be glad to know that he expects to be so far improved as to be able to spend the summer in Pickens.

Mrs. Sue Ada Kennemore Dead.

Mrs. Sue Ada Kennemore died at her home in Easley on Sunday, the 21st instant at the age of 47. She leaves two daughters surviving her, Miss Sarah and Mrs. "Dock" Hester. Mrs. Kennemore was the daughter of Mrs. Sarah Alexander, of Eastatoe, being the youngest child. She leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. Boggs, of Easley, and Mrs. T. W. Folger, of Central, also one brother, A. A. Alexander, of Eastatoe.

She was a woman of great firmness and decision of character and made friends of all who knew her by her many noble and generous qualities of mind and heart. Her loved ones have the sympathy of many sorrowing friends.

G. W. Kelley Dead.

General W. Kelley died suddenly last Saturday, at his home about four miles northwest of Pickens, aged sixty years.

For some time past Mr. Kelley had been a sufferer from paralysis, but had gotten better and was able to be up and about and the immediate cause of his death was heart failure.

He was a man of good moral and religious character, sturdy constitution, sunny disposition, practical, matter-of-fact, and not disposed to worry about matters that could be bettered in other ways.

By his honesty and integrity he accumulated a competency and held the esteem of his friends and neighbors. His helpful, cheerful life, his devotion to his wife and family and kindness to everybody will linger as a fragrant memory in the home which his presence brightened and which death has now darkened.

The funeral services were held at Mount Bethel church on Sunday, Rev. Davis officiating and paying a beautiful tribute to the deceased.

Besides a devoted wife he leaves nine children. We can only remind these mourners that he is not dead, he is only asleep—resting after a long and well-spent life here. And from the beauty of his life take an inspiration and go forth to live as he lived, so that when the summons comes you may say as did he, "All is well."

Common Pleas Court.

The Court of Common Pleas for Pickens county convened on Monday morning with Judge S. W. G. Shipp, Solicitor Bonham and all the court officials in their places. At the appointed time the stenographer "O. Yez! O. Yez!" of court crier P. A. Porter was heard calling the jurors, defendants and witnesses to hustle to their places, and Judge Shipp put the machinery of the court in motion. His charge to the grand jury was plain, concise and to the point. A synopsis of the charge is as follows:

JUDGE SHIPP'S CHARGE.

I am glad at the beginning of my career as Circuit Judge to have the privilege of presiding at this term of the court. When I was a boy I lived in the up-country. Years ago the hills in this section were gashed and torn with great gullies and washed by the rains. Now the fields have been restored and protected by a splendid system of terracing and produces as well as any land in the state. I understand it is a common occurrence to gather a bale of cotton from one acre. This is a fine country with a fertile soil and a climate unsurpassed. You people to be congratulated. This too, is a law-abiding community. The violations of law are on a minor scale. For this the county and the state are to be congratulated. The office of Grand Juror is a highly important one. In a sense you have more power than the court. No one can be tried without your presentment. Note carefully the import of your oath. Observe and keep it in its broadest sense. None but a good man can observe an oath like that. You are to leave none unpresented through fear or favor. It may become your duty to present your best friend. But no one must be presented from envy or malice. Enmity must never be your guide. It is a fearful thing to be clothed with power, it is so liable to be misused or abused. Your oath is your guide. Your duties are not confined to the charges in the bills presented. Look to the observance of law throughout the county. See that the officers are faithful in the performance of their duties. The office of Magistrate is an important one. Are your Magistrates faithful and efficient? They are under your supervision. There are many crimes that do not affect individuals directly, so they might go unpunished, but such may be very hurtful to the community. Such things should have the especial attention of the members of your body.

The following is the court's record up to Wednesday noon, when we go to press:

The first case heard was the Town of Pickens vs. Simon Volentive for violation of the dispensary law; appeal from the sentence of the Mayor. A new trial was ordered. The defendant was represented by W. E. Findley.

State vs. Than Hallums for violation of the Dispensary law was not prossed.

J. W. Hendricks was tried for keeping a place where whiskey was made. Not guilty. Defendant represented by Boggs & Findley.

Earle Hunter was tried in two cases before the same jury on a charge of assault with intent to kill C. L. Cureton and G. W. Corbin. Guilty. Motion for a new trial. State was represented by Solicitor Bonham assisted by Boggs & Findley. The defendant was represented by T. J. Mauldin.

True bills were returned in the cases of J. L. Galloway for assault with intent to kill W. A. Barr and also against J. C. Rice for assault and battery with intent to kill W. A. Barr. These cases were continued by the State.

There were also true bills returned in the State vs. James Price, violation of the Dispensary law. State vs. T. J. Tumblien, disposing of property under lien. State vs. Thos. E. Watson for failing to pay for material after having collected money for building house.

Charlie Satterfield plead guilty to violation of Dispensary

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, Our brother, General W. Kelley, was, on the 20th day of February, 1909, by the decree of an overruling providence, called from his earthly suffering to a home where pain and sorrow are unknown, and where the weary find rest, therefore,

Be It Resolved, That in the death of Brother Kelley, the members of Wolf Creek Local F. E. and C. Union of America, fully recognize that they have lost one of their number, who was at all times imbued with the pure principles of this order, and whose life and conduct suffer no reproach to be on his character, either as a Union member, fellow-citizen, or husband and father.

Resolved, That the sincere and heartfelt sympathies of the members of Wolf Creek Local Union be, and are hereby extended to the bereaved family of our deceased brother, whose loss we, with them, deeply mourn. Our hearts go out in sympathy for the bereaved and while we fondly cherish the memory of our departed brother and friend, we will not forget those he loved.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the widow and family of the deceased and to THE SENTINEL-JOURNAL and The Farmers Union Sun, for publication, and that a blank page in our minute book be dedicated to his memory.

W. B. ALGOOD, O. P. FIELD, P. A. PORTER, Committee.
