

LOCAL BREVITIES

Some Things You Know and Some You Don't Know About Our Towns, County & People

—Born on the 18th instant to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Anthony, of Pickens, R. 1, a boy.

—Mr. Julius Duckworth of Anderson was a business visitor to Pickens last week.

—We call attention to the ad of the Pickens Drug Co. in this issue.

—N. D. Taylor, photographer will be in his studio in Pickens, Saturday the 27th inst.

—Dr. L. O. Mauldin, A. B. Taylor and Earle Seaborn were among those from Greenville in Pickens Sunday.

—Lloyd Grandy has been spending a time with his parents Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Grandy. He returned to Bamberg Wednesday.

—Don't forget the Millinery Opening of Miss Partridge, Friday and Saturday of this week. Everything brand new and up-to-now.

—Mrs. J. B. R. Freeman, of Pickens, returned last week from a very pleasant visit to the family of W. B. Freeman, of Chester, S. C.

—The Keowee School Closed last Wednesday, the 17th inst. There was a good average attendance, and the patrons are well pleased. H. A. Townes was principal of the school this year.

—Bolt & Co., have had the interior of their store painted which adds materially to the appearance. Drs. Bolt and Valley have also had their office rooms painted and a new and late improved operating table installed.

—A mail route from Greenville through by the Mayfield road up Sautuda river and back by Rock postoffice down Sautuda river and back to Dacusville. We trust their efforts will be successful.

—Mathias Richardson, of Anderson county, sent seven teams to Pickens Monday to get 600 black locust post, (having already bought and hauled 400) which he bought from H. A. Richey and 440 rods of wire fencing bought from the Pickens Hardware Co. Come to Pickens for what you want.

—Messrs. Folger, Thornley & Co. have had printed a large folder which they are mailing their patrons and prospective customers, it being an announcement of their spring stock of goods and inviting you to call and inspect the same. Did you receive one of them?

—Miss Bessie Partridge who has opened up Millinery Parlors at Folger, Thornley & Co.'s store, in Pickens, will have her opening on Friday and Saturday, March 26th and 27th, and extends a cordial invitation to all our readers to pay her a visit on those days and inspect her line of pattern hats and millinery just from fashion's center. See her ad elsewhere on this page.

—Don't fail to read the spring announcement of Buchanan-Scott Co. on last page of this paper. They are receiving the latest creations in ready-to-wear garments, hats, shoes dry goods and notions from the fashion centres and can please you in both quality and price of anything in their line that you want. Don't fail to pay their store a visit before buying your Easter outfit.

—Mr. J. W. (Jim Pass) Sutherland, mention of whose extreme illness was made in these columns last week, died at his home above Pickens on the 17th inst., aged about 80 years. The immediate cause of Mr. Sutherland's death was paralysis. He was buried the day following at the family burying ground near his home. Beside his wife and several children, Mr. Sutherland was a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death.

—D. G. Moore was in Baltimore last week buying goods.

—Mrs. L. F. Robinson and little daughters, Mary and Bess, spent last week with her father, Mr. John Roper of Easley.

—The "city dads" of Pickens are widening and fixing up the sidewalks and putting a coating of cinders over the streets. This work adds much to the appearance of our little city and makes travel, especially walking, so much nicer.

—The merchants all over the county are beginning to receive their stocks of spring goods and are opening up and displaying them for the benefit of their customers. They say the spring trade will be the best for many seasons.

—Married Sunday afternoon at the residence of A. A. Jones Notary Public, Miss Rubie Hayes daughter of D. T. Hayes and Oscar Anthony, son of J. R. J. Anthony. The young couple have the best wishes of their many friends for a long and happy life.

—We call the attention of the dealers in and the consumers of soft drinks, to the ad of R. L. Davis, proprietor of the Pickens Bottling Works in this issue. He makes a mighty fine grade of soft drinks and you cannot do better than sell and drink this line of goods, which is pure and wholesome.

—There is considerable guano hauling now taking place over the county, but from the best reports obtainable, the agents are not selling quite as much as in former years, the local farmers unions clubbing in and buying in car lots direct from headquarters.

—The Pickens Lumber Co. is erecting a large and commodious house on their lot which will be used for racking and keeping dressed lumber for rush orders. This company is continually making improvements in their plant, is handling the very best grade of lumber and is filling all orders promptly and is doing a good business.

—The many friends of Hon. George E. Prince, of Anderson, will be sorry to learn that while dressing for breakfast last Sunday morning he was stricken with paralysis which affected his entire right side. At last reports he was some better and could articulate slightly and also barely move his arm and leg. His many friends in Pickens hope that he may soon recover.

—Ed Hunter, "cutter of whiskeys," who formerly worked in Pickens, but now located at Tryon, N. C., has been in Pickens this week on a visit, and shows that time is dealing gently with him and from his appearance the people are treating gently. He is a good barber and is in a good town, and there is no reason why he should not do well and accumulate some of this world's goods.

Mrs. F. C. Parsons Dead.

Pickens was again saddened on last Thursday morning when the news spread that the Death Angel had again visited our town and laid his cold, icy, fingers upon Mrs. F. C. Parsons, and bade her arise and go unto Him who doth all things well.

Mrs. Parsons was, before her marriage, Miss Mary Jane Allgood, a daughter of the late lamented Alexander Allgood, of this county, and was a sister of Mesdames W. S. Craig and W. T. Bowen and to Messrs. Wm. B. and D. A. Allgood, of Pickens county and E. F. Allgood of Anderson county. She was happily married to the late F. C. Parsons on July 27th 1878, and was in the 64th year of her age at the time of her death, and was only sick a few days. She survived her husband only about four years.

Mrs. Parsons was a consecrated Christian woman and was a charter member of Mile Creek church, at which place she was buried the day following her death, Rev. J. E. Foster conducting the funeral service.

Mrs. Parsons leaves many relatives and friends who deeply sympathize with the grief-stricken brothers and sisters in their sad bereavement.

—Are you reading the magazines. All the current numbers including "Teddy's", The Outlook, at Pickens Drug Co.

—The Heath-Bruce-Morrow Co. will hold their Spring Opening next Friday and Saturday the 26 and 27. The Millinery Dept. this season is in charge of Miss Pearl Digges, and you may expect a showing of all the latest styles in headwear.

—The Pickens Drug Co. has installed a carbonator to supply their fountain with soda water. With this attachment the supply is inexhaustible and it enables them to supply their increasing patronage in a more satisfactory manner.

—Dick Freeman, Jack Lewis, and Willie Boggs, left Monday for Chickasha, Okla., where they will try their hand at making a fortune. They are all good, steady boys, and should succeed wherever they locate. We wish them an abundance of this world's goods, wherever they may decide to cast their lot, and heartily commend them to the people with whom they come in contact.

Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson Dead.

Mrs. Ann Elizabeth Forte Scott Thompson, died at her home in Pickens on the 24th inst. after a lingering illness of several weeks from a complication of diseases. She was born and raised in Charleston and was in her 79th year. She leaves no immediate relatives except a half brother, a resident of Charleston. She was the widow of the late James C. Thompson, who with Maj. D. F. Bradley published the Pickens Sentinel for many years. She was a consecrated christian, a member of the Methodist church, from which place, after appropriate services by her pastor, Rev. N. G. Ballenger, her body was conveyed to the cemetery and interred by the side of her husband who predeceased her many years.

Liberty News Items.

March nearly gone and practically no plowing done yet, owing to continued rainy weather.

There has been an unusual amount of thunder storms this winter.

The windiest winter on record. The fruit trees are blooming along by degrees. Peach trees been blooming all this month.

The temperature fell to 29 degrees one morning recently and to 20 degrees last week, but the peaches are not killed yet, but the early strawberries are killed.

Garden work is somewhat late. Small grain crops look fine. Guano hauling is the order of the day and don't mention the roads, but they are cut up some in places, sufficient to interfere with automobile travel.

Dr. W. A. Sheldon is riding around town in a new auto.

W. J. Boggs has received notice of his appointment as rural mail carrier for route No. 4 to succeed Wade O'Dell. Mr. O'Dell takes Route 3 succeeding his brother Ross who recently resigned to take a position in the Liberty Bank.

The last series of the Lyceum entertainments was filled by Marvin Williams. He proved to be a good entertainer.

The Liberty township S. S. Convention was held here the 12th as per program and those that did not attend will never know what they missed. Owing to unfavorable weather the people from the country did not turn out as was expected. There were several able and enthusiastic addresses, that made it plain that there is great progress being made in Sunday School work, especially in the towns, but sorry to say the reports from the country are not so favorable.

We would suggest that at least the superintendents of every S. S. attend these conventions where they can surely get their enthusiasm sufficiently fired to run a school six months—until the convention. You will find it worth the effort.

The remains of Mrs. D. Grice were brought here yesterday for interment. The family lived for many years in the George's Avery's Guano Distributor.

Fertilizer is too Expensive to Waste

You don't need a Distributor that will pour out too much in one place or row, and maybe not put any at all in the next. REGULARITY is the important feature of a Guano Distributor.

Avery's Reliable Distributor Does Not Waste Your Fertilizer.

The Best on the Market Regular $5.00 VALUE That We Offer You For Only $4.50.

The Distributor Shown Here is the BEST for the Following Reasons:

Damp Guano will not pack or clog in the hopper. The Discharge or Feed is always in plain sight of the operator, who can always see just how much he is putting in. The Spout or Drop discharges the fertilizer directly under the plow. The wheel is made of steel firmly held in place by flanges and braces. The handles, beam, braces, and scraper are all attached to one solid piece of iron. A knocker cam operates on the front of the wheel and jars the hopper, thus distributing the fertilizer. This insures perfect and even distribution.

A Steel Scraper cleans the wheel. It is impossible for this distributor to CLOG UP IN ANY WAY. The simplicity of construction of this tool will appeal to all users. Avery's Knocker Distributor is substantially built throughout and free from all complicated parts, which makes it a very serviceable tool.

Come in and see this tool. You will like it. This is a regular $5.00 distributor, but we are making a Special of it at $4.50.

MOORE & MAULDIN CO.

PICKENS, S. C.

Creek section, north of Easley. Later they lived several years at Pendleton, S. C. after the death of Mr. Grice. The family are extensively connected in this section of the county.

B. O. Harris, of Pendleton, President of the State Farmers Union, was in town Saturday on his way to address the Ruhamah local union, where they had a rally day of their own. They had a good turnout and a very enthusiastic meeting that we hope will arouse the drowsy member and they will take a new hold on the Union. It seems that several members of the union that were once enthusiastic generally, are taking a nap, better wake up boys. Ought not to sleep and let the procession go by. Remember the Scripture warning "a little more sleep—a little more folding of the hands, &c." After a while it may turn out that you have slept away your opportunity of your life as well as the welfare of your occupation for your posterity. The toxin is awake "ye drowsy sleeper" and put your shoulder to the wheel of fate and let's all give a mighty heave, all together, and the walls of greed and oppression will tumble down and we can walk in and possess the land. Will you do it, if not why not, or had you rather remain a groveling serf and pass the heritage on to your posterity. Think of it, as you pull at the bell rope over your mule.

Heavy Fertilizer Sales.

In spite of the resolutions the central and local farmers' unions have been adopting for curtailment of use of fertilizers, the records show that over 132,000 tons more have been put on the market in the state up to this time than was out up to the same time last year, when high water mark had been reached. The tag tax at 25 cents a ton amounts so far to $140,403.42, as against $117,017.91 up to March 9th last year. The total tax last year amounted to $172,234.76 as against $112,745.85 in 1907.

We do not know how the record stands in this county.

Mr. Corbin's Successor.

Mr. L. F. Cantrell, a well known citizen of Walhalla, has been appointed deputy marshal to succeed the late W. B. F. Corbin, whose tragic death occurred some time ago. Mr. Cantrell has already received his commission and will take up his duties at once.
