PICKENS, S. C.: THURSDAY, MAY 13, 1909

The congregation of St. Johns Methodist Church in Rock Hill has employed a lady to assist the preacher in his work.

Eight years ago Mrs. Helen Caswell, of Georgia, Vt., put a calla lily in her cellar and forgot it. Last fall it was found and potted and now has more than thirty large leaves.

Mrs. Helen G. Talbot, of Sioux City, who was graduated last year from Drake University at the head of a law class of thirty-eight, is now in Des Moines taking a post-graduate course, and preparing a book on real estate law.

Miss Claudia McKenzie won the first prize and Mrs. Bradley Jones the second in the recent hat-trimming contest held by a club of women in New York. The first prize is to be the portrait of the winner, painted by Ben Ali Haggin, the second a miniature of Mrs. Bradley Jones painted by Martha Wheeler Baxter.

When Mlle. Helen Miropolsky made her debut as a member of the Paris bar recently, she was attired in a simple black gown relieved by the conventional white barrister's bib. Her costume was further accentuated by the black toque which crowned her jet black hair. It is said that Mlle. Miropolsky is strikingly beautiful.

Mrs. E. N. Munson, of Connecticut, made $1,000 last year raising white Holland turkeys, and, as she tells about it, the work does not seem so very hard. She is very careful with her broods and kills every chick that is not up to the mark, which shows what a woman can do when she thinks circumstances demand it, however painful the work may be.

When you write for a paper under a fictitious name and your article does not appear, remember that it is your fault. We must know who the writer is, although the assumed name may appear at the bottom of the article. Many good letters find their way into the waste basket for this reason alone. Your real name need not be signed to the published article, but the editor must be in possession of it.

It will be two years before A. C. Dickinson, of Walla Walla, Wash., knows how much money 200 acres of land sold to Gustav Vollmer brought. Dickinson is to receive for each acre 100 bushels of wheat, and this wheat is to be delivered in two installments, 10,000 bushels this year and 10,000 bushels next year. According to the present prices of wheat Dickinson would get $117.50 an acre but the prices next year may be as low as 60 cents a bushel.

There is a certain member of Congress, a lover of music, who had the misfortune not long ago to encounter an unresponsive listener in the person of a colleague from a Missouri town, says Lippincott's. The music lover had been expatiating upon the beauties of Puccini's "Madama Butterfly," which he had just heard, when he observed his friend to yawn. The music lover was hurt "Look here John," asked he, "don't you think, matter of fact person that you are, that music is of some practical benefit in life?" "Judging from portraits I have seen of eminent musicians, especially pianists," replied the congressman, "I should think it keeps the hair from falling out."

An indicted man has been discharged by Judge Chatfield, of the United States district court, on the ground that he had not had a speedy trial, to which the constitution entitles.

Mrs. Viola B. Squires, of Chicago, has refused to pay her taxes and has written to the county attorney that she no longer intends to submit to the injustice of taxation without representation.

Although he says he has made more than a million dollars in the prize ring, "Jem" Mace, the old time English pugilistic champion, has applied for a pension under the new British old age annuity act. Mace, who is now seventy years old, has a record of 500 appearances in the ring and only two defeats.

Mayor Arthur, of McKeesport Pa., who is a police magistrate, has decided that men convicted of intoxication must sign papers permitting their wives to draw their salaries for one year. In cases of unmarried men the next kin will draw the salaries. The alternative is six months in the workhouse.

Mrs. Mary Crowell, of Byron, Ill., raises the finest logs in the county where she resides. Not long ago a buyer of hogs for a packing house declared that although he was not in favor of giving all women the ballot it did seem a shame to him that a woman who could raise as fine hogs as Mrs. Crowell shouldn't be allowed to vote. The suffragists of Illinois at once demanded if raising hogs was better than raising children.

Ex-Senator "Billy" Mason, of Illinois, doesn't give the intelligence of the voters a very high rating. "The American citizen," he says, "is always thumping himself on the chest and announcing 'I am the people.' As a matter of fact, he is just a plain fool. He has to be jumped on, slugged and thrown down two flights of stairs before he understands that he is being jobbed by the men he sends to Congress to represent him."

Won't Slight A Good Friend. "If ever I need a cough medicine again I know what to get," declares Mrs. A. L. Alley of Beals, Me., "for after using ten bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, and seeing its excellent results in my own family and others, I am convinced it is the best medicine made for Coughs, Colds and lung trouble." Every one who tries it feels just that way. Relief is felt at once and its quick cure surprises you. For Bronchitis, Asthma, Hemorrhage, Croup, LaGrip, Sore Throat, pain in chest or lungs it is supreme. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all Druggists.

Jail Yawns For Mrs. Thaw Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, who gained much notoriety when her husband, Harry K. Thaw, shot and killed Stanford White, may herself have to go to jail in the near future.

An order directing the sheriff to arrest her for contempt of court in failing to pay a fine of $250 imposed last week was signed in the city court late this afternoon following the announcement that the appellate division had refused to stay the proceedings. The order directs that she shall be kept in close confinement until the settlement of her account.

The fine was imposed upon Mrs. Thaw for her failure to appear in supplementary proceedings on a judgment of $253 obtained against her by Elise Hartwig, a milliner. Mrs. Thaw's lawyers tonight notified the attorneys for Elise Hartwig that it would not be necessary to arrest their client, as the judgment held by the milliner would be paid in full early tomorrow.

Death of J. P. Anderson.

J. P. (better known as "Tick") Anderson died very suddenly yesterday, in a Sacramento hotel, while engaged in packing his trunk, preparatory to starting for San Francisco. Mrs. Anderson was with him at the time. Death was doubtless due to the illness incident to old age, the deceased having attained his seventy-sixth year. He was a native of South Carolina and was one of the earliest settlers in this part of the State. The exact time that he came to Humboldt county is not known, but it was somewhere in the middle sixties. He was one of the very first men to engage in stock raising in this part of the State, a business which he followed with extraordinary success up to the time of his death. He filed the first cattle brand in the County Recorder's office, in 1871.

"Pick" Anderson was one of the unique characters in Nevada history. His whole life was devoted to his business. To the management of his ranches he gave his entire attention, amassing a large fortune. For years it has been a general accepted fact in Nevada financial circles that he was possessed of more actual cash than any other man in the State, he having had money deposited in many California banks as well as those in Nevada. At the time of failure of the California Safe Deposit and Trust company in San Francisco a year and a half ago he is said to have lost $25,000. Besides money in the banks, he had large real estate holdings in Sacramento, Stockton and other places in California and owned ranches in Oregon, on Quinn river, in the northern part of this county and on the Humboldt river near Golconda. The latter has been his place of residence for the greater part of the time during the last few years.

Deceased leaves a wife and three sons, B. F., J. P. Jr. and Madison. It is not known where the funeral will be held, but it will probably be in Sacramento.

The above article was clipped from a paper and mailed to Mr. A. A. Alexander, of this county. It was mailed at Willow Point, Humboldt county, Nevada, and was sent by some one who evidently knew the relation of Mr. Anderson and Mr. Alexander.

J. P. Anderson was a brother to W. H. Anderson, formerly of this county, who owned the place now owned by Supervisor E. F. Looper, and of Mrs. Sarah Alexander, of this county.

J. P. was the youngest son of Isaac and Polly Anderson and was born and raised on Big East-tote at the place now owned by Mrs. Harriet Bowie. His mother was a Lay and the Lay family of this and Oconee counties and in Georgia are relatives.

In early life J. P. decided to go to California to dig gold, but his father would not consent until his older brother, John F., decided to go. They started and were shipwrecked but finally reached the gold fields.

John F. died several years ago and J. P. bought up the other

Road To the West.

Many contractors of the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio have completed their contracts and moved away, while others are finishing up their work. Some will complete their contracts within the next few days, while others will be at work until May 15 or the middle of June. The officers of McArthur Brothers, head contractors, located in this city will remain here until August winding up the affairs of the firm.

The work that has been completed thus far is at the upper end of the line between Broad river and Bostie, and the finishing touches are being put on the Spartanburg end of the lines.

The work of laying the rails will begin within a short time. This work will not be done by McArthur Brothers, but the railroad company. The work will be pushed as rapidly as possible.—Spartanburg Journal.

It Will Soon Be Time to Side Dress Your Crops.

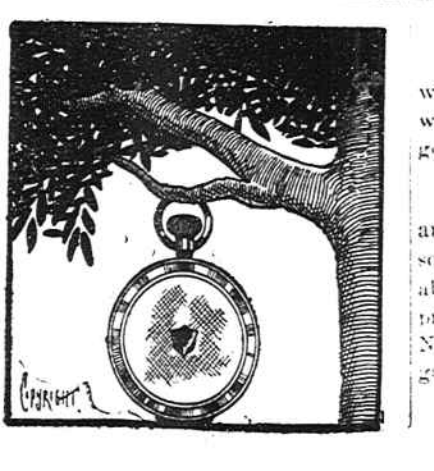

The farmers of Anderson county are going to do more top dressing this year than they have ever done. Top dressing or side dressing has been on the increase in this county for the last few years and it has paid so well that nearly every progressive farmer is going to do more or less of it this year. We hear of one man who put in very little fertilizer last year before planting his crop. He side dressed liberally and made 70 bales of cotton on 60 acres of ground. That is the kind of farming that pays. Farming is a poor business when you work two and three acres to make a bale of cotton but it is a very profitable business when you can make a bale of cotton or more to the acre. We have seen four thousand bushels of handsome high grade ammoniated goods suitable for side dressing. It will take more than this for the farmers of Anderson county if they use it as liberal as they will find it profitable to do, and then we are using this fertilizer in Abbeville, Greenville, Greenville, Pickens and Oconee counties. The farmers in these counties do not side dress to the extent that farmers in Anderson county side dress, but they are coming to it and will do more of it than ever this year as they are finding out that it is very profitable. When the fertilizer is put in the ground before the crop is planted or even when it is planted, the spring rains come along before the plant germinate and take root, and the fertilizer goes down in the ground so fast that the root of the plant cannot catch much of it; it has too long a lead. When you wait until the cotton comes up and is thinned to a stand and worked out and then side dress it with first-class high grade ammoniated goods such as we manufacture, the roots of the plant are just surrounded with food and nourishment for the plant. Every particle of the fertilizer used in the side dressing goes to the growing crop; that is the object of fertilizing you want the growing crop to get the fertilizer. You will see the effect of this in the growing and in the gathering. The man who side dresses liberally is the man who will have the big crop; you can put that down. It may be that you cannot side dress your whole crop but you can side dress a good part of it and that will enable you to see whether it pays or not. We are manufacturing a specially handsome goods this year for side dressing which we call "Vandiver's Side Dresser," analyzing 8-5-6 and we recommend it to you with absolute confidence. We certainly would not put our name on it if we did not feel that it would prove satisfactory to all who use it. It is the best grade of goods that has ever been manufactured in this country. It analyzes higher and we confidently believe it will give better results than anything you have ever tried in the way of ammoniated fertilizer. It is the best goods because it is made of the best material, and it is made of the best material.

the best acid phosphate, the best blood, tankage and garbage and the most of it to the ton. There is a great deal of money in ammoniated goods. The ammoniated are the expensive part of fertilizer. That is where fertilizers are skimmed when they are skimmed, but they are not all skimmed. There are other fertilizer manufacturers who make very good goods, but we are not advertising them at the present writing. We are advertising our own goods and there is nothing better and mighty little as good. They are all right because we put the ingredients: blood, tankage, etc., in them to make them all right. We will have quite a lot of Nitrate of Soda on hand too, for side dressing; and just in passing, will say that we understand it pays as well to side dress corn as it does any crop you grow. The corn contest this year promises to be very interesting. A great many farmers will contest for the prizes. The man who wins will be a man who fertilizes heavily. The corn that wins will be corn that has been side dressed, and probably more than once. You will not stand the ghost of a chance of winning any of the prizes unless you fertilize heavily and side dress also.

In the old blue back spelling book which we all thumbed in pursuit of that knowledge which seems to have eluded the most of us we find the doctrine laid down that "the best is the cheapest." If that doctrine applies to spelling books, and we suppose it does, at least we are not going to stop to contest or discuss that question now, we are selling fertilizer now not spelling books; if that doctrine applies to spelling books it certainly applies to fertilizers. If a spelling book is weak at points and you find it out you can't call it an get another. If your fertilizer turns out to be weak you will find that out all right enough and you will discard it and get another, but the trouble is you have lost your crop and a year's work and every hand and mule on your place has lost a year's work before you find it out. The only thing you will carry over from that year will be the year's debts. So, it will pay you to get a good fertilizer to start, one that is shown on analysis to be all that a fertilizer should be and in this connection we call your attention to the analysis of our fertilizers made at Clemson College this year. They have all stood up on the analysis and analyzed better than we guarantee them to be. We knew they would do it for we put the stuff in them to make them do it. We are willing to pin our faith to and rest our case on the fertilizer as that we have manufactured this year. The analysis at Clemson College show that they are just exactly right.

Now we have got this side dresser and it is for sale and it will be to your interest as well as ours for you to try it and try it liberally.
