Know and Some Now About Our City and People

Born on 27th ult., to Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ashmore, of Pickens, a girl.

Dr. Lawrence Roper will be out of his office from July 4th to the 9th inclusive.

Sondley Robinson is quite sick at the home of his brother, B. C. Robinson, in Pickens.

Miss Ruth Ballenger, who has been visiting her friend, Miss Sadie Wilson, in Greenville, has returned to her home in Pickens.

The Post Office Department has designated the Rocky Bottom post office as a domestic money order office, effective July 1st.

Mrs. J. D. Moore, of Pickens, who has been suffering for some time with rheumatism, is now able to visit her relatives and friends at Seneca.

Things are very, very, bull. Every moment of Sunshine is used by the farmer and the many lowering, cloudy, rainy days has kept him from town, hence there is no news in the local field.

Beginning July 1st, I will make free delivery of ice to my customers in quantities of 25 pounds, or over. Will always handle nice line of meats and can make prompt delivery. Phone No. 47.

The Southern Railway announces round trip excursion rates between all points for the Fourth of July Celebration, July 2, 3, 4 and 5, returning July 8. For further information, contact agents of Southern Railway.

Crawford expects to begin a series of meetings at Catechee the first Sunday in July. Rev. W. M. Walker of near Central will assist him in the meeting. It is hoped that they may have the hearty cooperation of the people in attendance and prayer, for a good meeting.

The Pickens Co. Farmers Union, will meet at Pickens C. H. Monday, July 5th at 10:30 a. m. All Local Unions requested to be duly represented, as business of importance will come up for consideration, so remember the day and date and be on hand in due time. John T. Boggs, Sec.

Bolt & Co. have stocked up on a nice line of box writing paper, which is a beauty. This line is liven finish, is put up in a nice box in pound lots and there is three quires to the pound, and all for the very small sum of 25c per box. This is the cheapest paper to be gotten anywhere. Envelopes to match.

B. F. McElreath, who disappeared from Seneca about Christmas without saying anything about where he was going, and who was mourned as dead and his estate disposed of by relatives, turned up Tuesday, hale and hearty. He has not made any public explanation of his absence, but he is apparently in splendid shape in every way.

Mrs. M. F. Hester, a teacher in the Pickens Baptist Sunday School, is giving her class a most delightful outing and picnic today (Thursday), out at the power house. The young people are enjoying a most pleasant day of it. H. knows how to enjoy themselves.

Miss Mae Parsons, a beautiful young lady, of Liberty, is on a visit to Miss Thelma O'Dell, of Rome, Ga., a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius S. O'Dell, former citizens of Liberty. The many friends in this county of Mr. O'Dell will be pleased to know that he is pleasantly situated and accumulating his share of this world's goods and that Father Time is dealing kindly and gently with him.

Mr. S. Walter Craig, who for some time past has been with the H. B. M. Co., in Pickens, left Wednesday for Seneca, where he goes to accept a position with R. Anderson. Walter is a fine salesman and a good fellow, and will no doubt, prove "a pearl of great price" to his present employer. His many friends in Pickens are sorry he has left.

Albert Byrd, colored, living on the Liberty road, reports the first cotton bloom of the season, one on June 30th. Since the above was handed in, a letter was received from Sam Simpson, of Liberty R. 3, containing a cotton bloom which he found in his field on June 29th. Sam writes that he has his crop clean and in good fix.

Messrs. J. F. Harris, J. E. Parsons, B. T. McDaniel, J. W. Swittenburg, W. E. Stephens, accompanied by their better halves (and some of them carrying some of their progeny) leaves this morning for a ten-days overland trip through Western North Carolina. John Harris known the mountains like a book and he will delight in piloting the crowd to the finest scenery, best places to fish and coolest places to sleep, as well as to the steepest places to climb and the nicest places to get a good square meal. May they have pleasant weather and a pleasant trip.

Mr. T. O. Jameson, a prosperous farmer, of the Easley side of the county, was struck, last Friday morning, by a fast freight train at the Kelly crossing, just below Easley, and severely injured. His wagon was torn up and one mule so badly hurt that it had to be killed, the other mule, though, was hardly scratched. Mr. J. had his arm broken in two places, his skull crushed and was otherwise terribly skinned and bruised up. Train No. 42, local morning passenger, picked him up and carried him to Greenville where he was placed in the care of Dr. Eare, the railroad's physician. From last accounts Mr. Jameson was getting along nicely and hopes were entertained for his ultimate recovery.

A dispatch from Walhalla says that Sheriff Kay has received a telegram from Alliance, Ohio, saying that S. L. Richardson was under arrest there and would return without requisition papers. He is wanted on a charge of obtaining money from J. J. Rankin under false pretense. After his discharge from the Lexington jail, he was never publicly seen around Walhalla, though his family resides there, but it is rumored that he came near there. Report has it that his two girls, children by his former wife, were to be given to his father, but they disappeared from home a few days ago, and it now turns out that the children were with him when he was arrested. Richardson was travelling under the name of Jas. L. Bynum. Rumor has it that other sensations are likely to follow his return to Oconee.

MUSIC RECITAL.

Miss Elinor Knight's music class gave a recital last Friday night in the school auditorium. The various scholars all acquitted themselves handsomely, showing that they have been well trained.

Little Miss Ruth Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Parsons, of Pickens, won the gold medal for the most marked advancement during the session. Space forbids our going into further details of the entertainment, but all of the scholars acquitted themselves handsomely and were highly complimented by Hon. J. E. Boggs, who made a short talk, but a happy hit, upon presenting the medal to Miss Parsons.

Below we give the entire program as it was rendered:

12.45 M. Dinner.

2.00 P. M. Reassemble. The afternoon will be devoted to addresses and talks by the home comers. It is desired that all who have ever been members of this church should attend on this occasion and add to the pleasure of it.

Beside talks of the home comers, addresses of 20 minutes each will be made by Rev. E. J. Mullinax, Rev. B. E. Grandy, J. T. Taylor, and C. E. Robinson.

The members of Griffin church especially invite all members and former members of this church to attend these services, also all lovers of music with song books, and everybody bring dinner.

A warm, hearty welcome awaits each and all. S. H. Brown, Church Clerk.

SOME MARRIAGES

Last Saturday evening Willie Grady, a former resident of the county, was seen on our streets shaking hands with his friends, but it was thought, as he had relatives in the town, he was just on a visit to them. On Monday morning the importance of his visit was made known when a few of his friends were asked to attend his marriage, to Miss Mae Robinson, which happy event took place at 10 a. m., at the residence of B. C. Robinson, brother of the bride. Rev. N. G. Ballenger united this happy couple in the holy bonds of matrimony and they left for their future home in Norfolk, Va., amid the congratulations of their many friends.

On Wednesday morning a considerable stirring about and whisperings among our people, developed the fact that there was something in the wind, and when Rev. D. D. Lander passed down Pendleton avenue and Earle Lewis and his best man were seen hiking in the same direction it dawned upon all that a marriage was on the tapis. Further nosing around elicited the information that at 10 a. m. Miss Eliza, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Ex-Sheriff J. H. C. McDaniel and Mr.

A. K. PARK, West End, Greenville, S. C

Robert Earle Lewis of Easley, were happily married at the home of the bride's father in South Pickens. The happy young couple immediately left for a trip to North Carolina, after which they will be at home at Easley. The happy young couple have the congratulations of their many friends for a long, happy, useful and prosperous life.

Notice to People. Well, I have been here a long time, but last Friday evening, a week ago, I got the drunkest I ever was and on the least whiskey. I have drank all my life but never drunk enough to make me feel bad when I was well. But on the evening above mentioned, I got as drunk as a cooter, or in other words, as full as the fiddler's dog. Now I don't want you to say anything about this, for I don't want any one to know it. If they ever find it out somebody else will have to tell it because I wont. But I will tell you something. Those who owe me on account. I am going to sell these accounts at public auction in a short time if they are not settled. You can settle with me for a small percent if you dont want the exposure of having your accounts sold. Some of these people could pay if they would. It won't be much credit to them to have their accounts sold for aught.

Old J. D. Moore. Resolutions of Respect. At a conference of Griffin Baptist Church the following resolutions were adopted on the recent death of Mrs. Annie S. Childs:

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father on the 18th of May 1909 saw fit to take from us by the icy hand of death our aged and much loved sister Mrs. Annie S. Childs who had been a faithful member of Griffin Baptist church for 38 years and her going away has cast a shadow that will linger long upon us all. She was a true christian, possessing a spirit of love, and derived a genuine pleasure in alleviating the needs and wants of others to the utmost of her ability. Those who knew her longest and best could more fully appreciate her tender love and fidelity.

The christian armor which she wore on earth complete, Hath fallen off at Jesus feet, The sandals too with which her patient feet were shod Are tenderly untied by angel hands, within the realms of God. Therefore be it resolved. 1st That we deeply deplore our loss but submit humbly to the will of Him who doeth all things well.

2nd That we extend to her children our sympathy and love.

3rd That a page in our record book be dedicated to her memory and a copy of these resolutions be given her children. [Baptist Courier please copy.]

WE DON'T CUT THE PRICE! The extra care and attention we put into the manufacture of our products—such as buying purest and best flavors and mixing the extracts, the buying of good bottles and the seeing to their being clean (each and every one of our bottles is washed, rinsed and sterilized by hand), the extra, but necessary time and trouble to keep a clean place and furnish a pure drink, is why we maintain the price on our drinks that we do. We could mix our drinks and bottle in a slipshod way and sell to you cheaper, but we ain't going to do it. Another thing: ONE PRICE TO ALL is our motto. The man in Pickens pays the same price for our goods that the man in Central or Pumpkintown does. We don't cut the price to any one, and we don't sell cheaper away from home than we do at home. Another thing: we never misrepresent anything to make a sale. When you buy and drink our goods you are getting as pure as can be made and at the same price the other man paid. No cut prices in our business. PICKENS BOTTLING WORKS. R. L. Davis, Prop'r. ; ; Pickens, S. C.
