Townes offers as a candidate for cotton weigher this week. Henry asks us to state that he cannot make a personal conveyance on account of his having a school on his hands, and that his hands will be at the public school. The public school is to give every man justice in the weight of his cotton and treat the buyer with equal right. —Israel Ferguson, colored, is a mighty good farmer, who believes in raising everything he can that is needed to run his place. He raises his own corn, wheat, meat and cattle. He also raises everything to go on his table, honey, chickens and all kinds of vegetables. Recently Israel sent to this office some as fine hard-head cabbage as we ever eat. They were firm, white and as nice and large as any Winter cabbage ever put on the Pickens market by North Carolina raisers. When the negro race learns to pattern after Israel, not only in the farming line, or making a living, but in keeping always at work, minding their own business, paying their debts and setting a good example to others, then the race will prosper and there will be no race wars, lynchings and trials for various and sundry crimes, such as our courts are burdened with now. Camp Meeting Notice The annual camp meeting of the South Carolina Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church will be held as usual, at Central, S. C., July 28-Aug. 8th. The public is cordially invited to attend. Preachers, of all orthodox denominations are especially invited to be with us and help wick the battle against sin and wickedness. There are two good hotels on the grounds where meals and lodging may be had at reasonable rates. The management will extend every courtesy to campers and others in their power. Our motto is, "Holiness unto the Lord." M. T. Hartsoe, Chairman Com.

Monaghan Mill. Dear Editor: I have been thinking for some time that I would write you a letter and I guess this as good a time as I will get. Everything is moving along fine and I think that the people of Greenville ought to be the best people anywhere for I believe they have more preaching here than anywhere, but maybe we need it more than others. The Monaghan boys recently played the Greenville team and beat them 12 to 2. Hurrah for our side. "B," I don't think you need get discouraged for there are plenty of girls that would like to ride behind those fine horses. Mr. Will Barton was a recent visitor to his brother, Mr. Perry, and sister, Miss Anna, at Monaghan. The excessive rains have gotten the farmers very much behind, and the crop prospects are not very encouraging. Mr. Sutherland met with a serious accident recently, in that he had his right arm torn off just above the wrist, while at work around some machinery at the Monaghan Mill. Mr. Heath, a resident of the Monaghan Mill village died recently from an attack of fever and was carried to his old home in North Carolina, for burial. He leaves a wife and six small children, besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death. I tell you it is something grand to be a queen! That is why the writer is wearing such a smile! She thinks she will be the wife of a King, and she don't care if that Pickens fellow did get married—she doesn't intend to wear mourning for him. Well, for fear of the waste basket, I will close. Greenville Girl. "Jones, He Pays The Freight." Hallum's Backache and Kidney Pills are doing the work. Hardly a mail but what there is an enquiry or an order. The sun has come out, and the clouds have rolled away and the farmer is getting to kill some of the grass, though a great many of the crops will remain foul, as the cleaning would injure the crop in some instance worse than the grass. There are but few fine crops to be seen in this section, of either corn, or cotton. The fruit crop is rather on the short order, and inferior in quality, as it has rotted badly. A child of T. B. Smith, died last week after a lingering illness of several weeks. An old lady, Mrs. Lock, died at the Liberty mill village, last week. From personal experience we can say that mumps are as peculiar in their ways and manner of business as any contagious disease that ever came our way, as we was not aware but what we were on friendly terms with them for the last 40 years, until we woke up one fine morning appraised of the fact that our time for settling our account, was up. And from the earnestness they seemed to manifest in the matter, we were led to conclude that the account must have been long past due. The all day singing at the Baptist church was one of the attractive features of last Sunday. The Hon. J. E. Boggs appeared in the afternoon and made a few very appropriate remarks, to the convention, which was well received. We had two sermons by Elder Duncan, afternoon and night, at the Methodist church. While the attendance was not large, those who did attend were well paid. There are an unusual number of visitors in town, and house parties, and tennis, were among the social attractions of the past week, and mountain trip has been arranged among other things for this week, and the good times go rolling right on. We notice Prof. Mc. D. Weems, was at the singing Sunday, and taking a hand. We hear talk of some rural telephone lines to be built soon and some more of our rural neighbors will be in electric touch with more of the world. Mr. Horace E. Davis, who is a traveling salesman in Virginia, is home on a vacation. Mrs. D. J. Greer, from Alabama, is on a visit to relatives and friends in Pickens county. Miss Florence O. Davis has returned to North Carolina, where she will take up a nine-months school, where she taught last year. C. Around Moon's Store Crops in four section are looking fairly well. The farmers will soon be through work. With seasonable showers, we will make plenty of corn and cotton to do us. The water melon season is right now on us and there are some fine patches in this neighborhood. Children's Day at Bethlehem last Sunday was well attended and greatly enjoyed by those present. Excellent addresses were made by Hon. C. E. Robinson and Ben Fields. V. S. Medlin, of Oconee county, visited his brother, J. E. Medlin, of this section, last week. Sloan looks well and says he is doing better. Misses Ella May and Jessie Freeman, daughters of S. P. Freeman, visited at the home of J. E. Medlin, recently. We think these charming young ladies had a most enjoyable visit. The farmers are all talking the fair, and as soon as they get through their farm work they will pull off their coats and go to work to make it even a greater success than last year. Our neighbor, J. E. Medlin leaves this week for a trip to Franklin county, Ga., where he goes to visit his father. As soon as Allgood Moon gets the shelter up to the front of his store and gets seats made our loafers club will reorganize and meet with him as often as he will let us. He will have to keep plenty of ice water, red lemonade and good whittling timber handy for us, though. He is doing a good business with his store. Leather Breeches. Notice to Old Soldiers. The surviving Soldiers of the Confederate States in Pickens county are requested to meet in each township on the 7th day of August at 3 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of electing a representative to meet at the Court House on the first Monday in Sept. next, to elect a county Pension Board for the year 1910. WE DON'T CUT THE PRICE! The extra care and attention we put into the manufacture of our products—such as buying purest and best flavors and mixing the extracts, the buying of good bottles and the seeing to their being clean (each and every one of our bottles is washed, rinsed and sterilized by hand), the extra, but necessary time and trouble to keep a clean place and furnish a pure drink, is why we maintain the price on our drinks that we do. We could mix our drinks and bottle in a slipshod way and sell to you cheaper, but we ain't going to do it. Another thing: ONE PRICE TO ALL is our motto. The man in Pickens pays the same price for our goods that the man in Central or Pumpkintown does. We don't cut the price to any one, and we don't sell cheaper away from home than we do at home. Another thing: we never misrepresent anything to make a sale. When you buy and drink our goods you are getting as pure as can be made and at the same price the other man paid. No cut prices in our business. PICKENS BOTTLING WORKS. R. L. Davis, Prop'r. Pickens, S. C.
