It would be an excellent plan if the teachers of the different schools would carry all of their school children to the educational rally at Six Mile. It would also be nice for the children to wear badges stating to what school they belong.

The editor of this paper is under many obligations to Mrs. W. L. Boggs, of Liberty, for a basket of nice peaches. Mr. Boggs has a splendid orchard of Elberta trees and they are bearing well. He sent a load to Pickens last week which were readily disposed of.

All persons interested, are urged to meet at Griffin church on Thursday morning, August 5th, at an early hour as they can, to clean off the graveyard. Mr. R. P. Hamilton who has been in the Soldiers Home at Columbia, has returned home much improved in health. He says it is a nice place and that Manager Stirling is the right man in the right place. Welborn has country home try people and ailed themselves of the opportunity to spend the heated terms in Pickens. Among those there we notice the following names on the register—Mrs. R. W. A bevy of fair women, richly gay, are enjoying the hospitable home of W. H. Ashmore in Pickens, and greatly enjoying the many advantages accruing from a sojourn in our lovely little town. The young people of our town—youth, beauty and wisdom—young ladies and gentlemen, are all vieing with each other in assisting Miss Vesta Ashmore, who is a most charming hostess, in entertaining her fair guests. The young ladies constituting this house party are Misses Mary Harris, of Charlotte, N. C., Blanche Williams, of Ashville, N. C., Jessie Quinn, of Rutherfordton, N. C., Essie and Dora Guy, of Chester, S. C., and Mrs. V. L. Loehr, of Clinton, S. C.

Mrs. A. J. Boggs Entertains.

Last Friday night Mrs. A. J. Boggs entertained her guests, Miss White, of Augusta, Ga., and Miss Sholer, of Easley, with a lawn sociable, on the magnificent lawn of Mrs. J. H. Newton. Quite a crowd of the young folks of the town were present and an enjoyable time was had.

The lawn was well lighted with Japanese lanterns, rustic seats around the trees and in convenient nooks and corners. Youth, adorned by beauty and with chivalry on guard, could be found perambulating the byways, or seated alongside the hedges, and all enjoying each moment, as all too fast the witching hour for parting drew nigh when chivalrous youth and lovely maiden must bid adieu.

The refreshments were served on the lawn. Ice cream, sherberts, cakes, and other dainties, in the utmost profusion of plentifulness was there as was the hum of joyous pleasantries, and the peals of laughter caused by the ready badinage of friend to friend. Verrily 't was a lovely scene which would bring regret to him who has mounted to the summit the ridge pole of life and now casts his eyes along the decline before him.

Mrs. Boggs is a most charming hostess, who knows full well how to make it pleasant for the young folks, and while she might be classed by some, as belonging to the "older set," yet, when it comes to looking after the joys and pleasures, she is youthfulness personified and can well be classed with the "sweet sixteen" set. Verily in a sense, today Mrs. B. is younger than any of her daughters, and to her in great measure, are the young folks of our town indebted for many of the enjoyable occasions they have heretofore had. Her heart beats with joy at the innocent pleasures of youth and as she will never grow old in its truest and severest sense, the young folks of our town will always have a helper and ally in anything looking to their joy and pleasure. In her charming daughters this charm of the mother is being developed, and should the cares and burdens of life (if they ever) set heavy on her shoulders, her children can, and will, well follow their mother's footsteps.

This is a most charming family who delight in pleasantly entertaining their friends.

Dear Editor: Will you accept a few lines from this section? Everything is all to the good here. The farmers are all getting through laying by their crops and most of the crops are coming out very much. Cotton especially, is very good here.

Hurrah for the boys and girls of these parts. The big protracted meetings will soon start up here on the Oolenoy and the people are expected to enjoy themselves greatly and get religion for the next year.

Demps McJunkin came up from the Pickens section and reported everything in fine shape. The people were glad to hear that Pickens is building up very fast these late years. I think Pickens is going to get ahead yet. Pumpkintown Times.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. T. W. Cochran, who was before her marriage, Miss D. E. McWhorter, was born May the 11th 1842, and departed this life June the 22nd 1909.

She was converted in the early years of her life at old Twelve Mile camp ground and soon after joined the Baptist church. A few years later she joined the Methodist church, and remained a consistent, useful, member of the same through life.

She was a long and patient sufferer, and while much of her life was shadowed by sorrows, the last two years were full of physical suffering, and during that time her disease was beyond the reach of medical help.

Notwithstanding her intense suffering at times she constantly rejoiced in the Savior's presence and was ready when the summons came. She leaves behind a husband, two brothers, four children, and a host of friends who will meet her in the better land.

The day following her death, her body was laid to rest at old Bethlehem church to await the second coming of our Lord.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber Peaceful in the grave so low Thou, no more will join our number.

When the day of life is fled, And in heaven with joy to greet thee Where no farewell tears are shed.

Twelve Mile Cullings.

There is plenty of rain, crab grass and a little cotton and corn.

Prof. McD. Weanes, who is a very fine singer, has been teaching several harmony classes throughout the county this year and has given universal satisfaction. It has been the writer's pleasure to attend some of the concerts given by his classes, one at Glenwood Cotton Mill and one at Prater's Creek Church, where he heard some grand singing. We feel sure that all who attended his classes are amply repaid.

On a recent preaching day the writer attended services at Norris Baptist church and listened to a most excellent sermon by the pastor, Rev. W. M. Walker.

The roads in our section are needing some work very badly, since the rain has been continuing so long. Hope our Commissioners will give us some relief real quick.

Wishing the Sentinel-Journal and its many readers great success. River Boy.

Are Doctors Any Good? Foolish question! Yet some people act as if a medicine could take the place of a doctor! The best medicine in the world cannot do this. Have a family doctor, consult him frequently, trust him fully. If we did not believe doctors endorsed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs and colds, we would not offer it to you. Ask your doctor. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. If we did not believe doctors endorsed Ayer's Pills for constipation, biliousness, sick-headache, we would not offer them to you. Ask your own doctor about this.

WE DON'T CUT THE PRICE! The extra care and attention we put into the manufacture of our products—such as buying purest and best flavors and mixing the extracts, the buying of good bottles and the seeing to their being clean (each and every one of our bottles is washed, rinsed and sterilized by hand), the extra, but necessary time and trouble to keep a clean place and furnish a pure drink, is why we maintain the price on our drinks that we do. We could mix our drinks and bottle in a slipshod way and sell to you cheaper, but we ain't going to do it. Another thing: ONE PRICE TO ALL is our motto. The man in Pickens pays the same price for our goods that the man in Central or Pumpkintown does. We don't cut the price to any one, and we don't sell cheaper away from home than we do at home. Another thing: we never misrepresent anything to make a sale. When you buy and drink our goods you are getting as pure as can be made and at the same price the other man paid. No cut prices in our business. PICKENS BOTTLING WORKS. R. L. Davis, Prop'r. Pickens, S. C.
