Lester Davis, white, 23 years of age, wanted at Woodstock, Ga., on the charge of making a criminal assault on a young white woman, was arrested in the card room at the Spartan Mills Thursday afternoon by Sheriff White. He had been in the mill since August 18. The alleged assault is said to have been committed August 8. Davis was going by the name of Emory Sanford. When arrested, he admitted his name was Davis, but claimed he was innocent of the charge.

Washington correspondence states that the Postmasters Association of South Carolina, at which Postmaster Hitchcock will make an address, will meet at Rock Hill on November 8. This statement is incorrect, and was practically brought about by the fact that the Hon. E. E. Poag, president of the association, is postmaster at Rock Hill and the correspondence in the matter has been with this city. The association will meet in Columbia. The date is in Mr. Hitchcock's hands, and has not yet been specified, though it will probably be about the date mentioned.

When the digestion is all right, the action of the bowels regular, there is a natural craving and relish for food. When this is lacking you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They strengthen the digestive organs, improve the appetite and regulate the bowels. Governor Ansel has announced that he would attend "President's day" at the Georgia-Carolina fair to be held in Augusta on November 8.

Because of the fact that the new dining room has not been completed, Winthrop college will not open this year until September 29th. President Johnson states that everything will be in readiness by that day.

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

According to a statement by State Superintendent of Education Swearingen 178 weak schools in the state have received aid from the state since the first of the year. The amounts given to each of the schools range from $10 to $100. The state legislature appropriates annually $20,000 for aid to the weak schools of the state, and judging from the number of applications that the state superintendent is receiving the amount should be at least $50,000. A recomendation for an increased appropriafor weak schools was made at the conference of the superintendents recently held in Spartanburg.

A wave of crime and casualties has rolled over Spartanburg county during the last week. It began with the burglary of a store by a policeman and that was followed by several burglaries of private residence. Then followed the killing of Mrs Boiter by Joe Bates. That was Sunday. Monday one negro another at Glendale, crushed his head with a long stick or pole. Wednesday the death of two negroes working with the track laying gang on tho C., C and O. road was a deplorable disaster, which could not be avoided. It was one of those accidents that now and then comes when great care is taken for the safety of the hands. There are about forty persons now in jail at Spartanburg, most of them waiting trial. The court of general session will not convene till the fourth Monday of this month. By that time there will no doubt be several additiions to the jailer's family.

In buying a cough medicine, don't be afraid to get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it, and relief is sure to follow. Especially recommended for coughs, colds and whooping cough. Sold by all druggists.

Two barns, a carriage house, a harness house, and a well house—five structures—on Mr. Henry L. Parr's place, on the Jalapa road, five miles from Newberry, were destroyed by fire between 2 and 3 o'clock Friday morning. When the negroes on the place awoke the building were falling in. A quanity of feed was stored in the barns, all of which was lost. A wagon, reaper, and many other farm implements, harness and supplies, which were in the houses, were also burned. The loss was between $2,000 and $3,000, with only $500 insurance. Mr. Parr was at the place on Wednesday superintending the storing of a quanity of hay in the loft, with a number of hands. It is thought, possibly that matches were dropped in the barn which were later ignited by rats or from some other cause, and that the fire was accidental.

THE STANDARD OF THE WORLD

On application of Miss Etta Calhoun, secretary of the Greenwood chapter, D. A. R., the war department of the U. S., has sent to C. M. Calhoun a stone marker to be erected at the grave of his ancestor, his great-grandfather, John Montague, who is buried at the old family burying ground at "Plain Dealing" a spot about two miles from Greenwood. This was the old home of John Montague and he died there in 1831, his daughter, Mrs. Carr McGhee owning the place. His nearest of kin now living are the Montagues and Watkins of Richmond and Baltimore, the Powers, Moseleys and Calhouns of the Carolinas and Georgia. History does not state whether John Montague was a commissioned officers or not, but it does state and it is so inscribed on the stone marker furnished by the national government the following: "John Montague, U. S. Soldier of the Revolution, Died Sept. 20, 1831. He was wounded by a sabre cut on his head and arm defending Gen. Washington against a British Officer."

Be sure and take a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with you when starting on your trip this summer. It cannot be obtained on board the trains or steamers. Secretary Morton Smashed Lifetime Dream of Old Sailor.

In an article on Paul Morton, late secretary of the navy, the New York Evening Post says:

"When, on one occasion, a navy department clerk brought him the great official parchment commission of a newly promoted rear admiral for his signature he signed it, after reading it, as he would any document before signing, and noting the clerk still present with the document, inquired what he wanted and was told:

"'Admiral Blank would very much like to receive his new commission from the hands of the secretary of the navy personally.'

"'Where is he?' asked the secretary.

"'Admiral Blank is upstairs, in his office, sir.'

"'Ask him to come here,' was the command, and in a few moments the grizzled veteran presented himself to the secretary of the navy.

"Evidently, the officer was filled with sentimental emotion on this event—the climax of his naval career From boyhood he had lived for this moment, his long terms of sea duty, the monotony of shore service, the anxieties of war, the arrogance of superior officers, the whole chapter of the rigors, the self-denial and self-discipline, was to be crowned with the evidence of honor which his country bestows upon faithful naval officers. He looked his expectation of words of praise, as if in lonely watches he had dreamed of the eloquent sentences which would become the psalm of his old age.

"The secretary of the navy stood up, handed the open parchment to the speechless rear admiral, and said only this:

"'Admiral Blank, here's your commission.'

"Then he sat down to his desk and went on with his work, unconscious of having smashed a lifetime's dream."

A Night Rider's Raid

A Call For Volunteers.

The Good Cheer band of fair renown
Who boost home trade and boom the town,
Who brighten, build and beautify
All that is pleasing to the eye,
Who spread their battlecry, "Improve"—
They are the lads who make things move,
The benefactors of the land.
Then come and join the Good Cheer band.

Of old the brave knight fought and strove
And flourished with hardware like a stove.
He rode to seek the Holy Grail
Or lift some maiden out of jail.
From Judah's hills to chase the hordes
That disturbed moons and crooked swords
And through his whiskers stoutly swore
To drown the dragon in its gore.

The modern knight swears softer oaths
And does not dress in sheet iron clothes,
And yet he has as high intent
In seeking civic betterment,
In winning for his town success,
Prosperity and happiness,
And spreading sunshine through the land,
A member of the Good Cheer band.

Come, join the boosting brotherhood,
A soldier of the common good;
Become a volunteer recruit
And do not send a substitute.
In the Commercial club enlist
And be a hustling optimist.
Just smile, smile, smile, and lend a hand
For progress and the Good Cheer band.

J. A. EDGERTON.

The value of breeds is greater than is known to some. Formerly it was considered necessary to keep a steer until four or five years of age before sending to market, but with the use of improved breeds steers can now be marketed at two or three years of age and will be heavier than those twice that age that are not well bred. Good breeds save time and feed, increase the weight and lead to higher prices.

Disturbances Poultry Yard.

It is admitted by all poultry breeders that anything which tends to frighten the chickens will decrease egg production. In the large poultry plants visitors are either refused admittance or admission is charged to make up in part for the disturbance to the hens. A strange dog running through the yards, children noisily hunting for eggs and chasing the birds for feathers—any cause which excites them—will do them harm. It sometimes happens that hens will void one or more egg yolks from extreme fright. This is sometimes accompanied by a discharge of blood, and is known as abortion. Such an accident may entirely destroy the value of an otherwise good bird. During favorable weather the farm flock is not apt to be so disturbed, scattered as they are over good range, but when winter finds them housed, strangers and dogs should be kept out of the poultry house.—Ex.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

P. P. P.

Makes Marvelous Cures in Blood Poison, Rheumatism and Scrofula.

P. P. P. purifies the blood, builds up the weak and debilitated, gives strength to weakened nerves, expels disease, giving the patient health and vigor, where sickness, gloomy feelings and lassitude first prevailed.

In blood poison, mercurial poison, malaria, dyspepsia, and in all blood and skin diseases, like blotches, pimples, old chronic ulcers, tetter, scald head, we say without fear of contradiction that P. P. P. is the best blood purifier in the world.

Ladies whose systems are poisoned and whose blood is in an impure condition due to menstrual irregularities, are peculiarly benefitted by the wonderful tonic and blood cleansing properties of P. P. P., Prickly Ash, Poke Root and Potassium.
