

Another Domiant to the Pole

There still seems to be considerable doubt as to who discovered the North Pole. Dr. Cook claims he is the genuine article and Commander Peary says that Cook is an impostor, and that he is the only white man that ever reached the famous point. Dr. James L. Bolt of this city, believes that Dr. Cook is the real explorer, not merely because he is a physician, but as Dr. Bolt states, no one but a physician could take the exact temperature of the pole, and he is satisfied Dr. Cook discovered the North Pole because there has been no evidence submitted to show where the pole contained the slightest symptoms of fever. But Dr. Bolt like a great many others—patriotic and true American citizens—interested in science, decided that the best way to rid one's mind of any doubt would be by making a personal trip to the litigated point, and immediately harnessed up his faithful old horse "Jim" and started in pursuit of the Rig Stick.

Dr. Bolt received the following wireless:

"Dr. J. L. Bolt;
"North Pole—Glassy Mountain, S. C.

"Congratulations. I am shy a bailiff's staff. Please bring piece of pole large enough for same.
R. R. Roark,
Sheriff, Pickens County."

Dr. Bolt, after an absence of several days, returned to Pickens, with the following statement: "I have discovered the pole myself, and I want to refute Commander Peary's statement that he is the only white man that has ever reached the pole, because when I got there I found Claud Hester, with a pack of hounds watching a possum perched on the end of the pole, and when he saw me he wanted to know whether the Pickens Railroad had made a change in their schedule, because he had been waiting on a train for five hours." Dr. Bolt says he discovered the pole with a thermometer and a prohibition flag. He inquired of Claud whether he had come across the much discussed American flag, and Claud said he saw a flag there but could not say who put it there, and when Dr. Bolt questioned Claud as to what disposition he made of same, Claud informed him that he had one hound of foreign extraction in the pack and in order to retain harmonious relationship with the others who were American born, he naturalized the hound of foreign extraction by making him eat the American flag.

Since Dr. B's. return to Pickens his time has been so much engaged in preparing himself to convince the world and Pickens that he is the real and genuine discoverer—that he has not been able to talk at length to his friends.

Dr. J. L. Bolt;
North Pole Hotel;
How much land could you spare for building lots?

J. F. Harris.
Dr. Bolt informed the State Dept. of his marvellous success, and to know what disposition, should be made of the Pole.

Dr. J. L. Bolt,
North Pole Arsenal.
Congratulations. We have no title in the Pole. It is yours.
W. H. Taft.

Since the receipt of the President's wireless Dr. Bolt seems to think it would be imprudent to let the Pole remain there because some one may molest and therefore he is getting up party to go and help him by any means to Pickens.
Swamp-foot, a gentleman, you something in gentler manner you do you will fly, B. C.

inson, A. M. Morris, Bill Jeanes, Claud Hester, Dr. J. L. Valley, B. B. Laboon.

Claud Hester seems to think Dr. Bolt has made a mistake because he never saw any pole cats while there, and if he was at the Pole there is no reason why pole cats should not be there. Claud is a member of the party however, and states that in his opinion the road by Glassy Mountain would be the shortest route to same. Dr. Bolt cannot be convinced that Rocky Bottom is not the nearest route to the pole. Claud says the crops up there are very sorry due to lack of sun and if a change does not take place very suddenly the entire cotton crop will be gone.

Anyone desiring a cool summer house should not hesitate to consult Dr. Bolt at once, because no doubt these lots will sell like hot cakes. As soon as Dr. Bolt and his party returns a more detailed article will be given.

To My Friends and Customers.

Having sold my drug business to Mr. R. Earle Lewis, I wish to thank you most kindly for your very liberal patronage and support and to commend my successor to you.

The accounts of Bolt & Co., are due to and now being collected by me, and I would thank you to call at the drug store and adjust these matters as soon as possible.

Thanking you for past patronage,
I am, sincerely,
W. J. Bolt,
of Bolt & Co.

To The Public.

You will please take notice, that after the 25th day of this month (Sep.) I will discontinue my Pressing Club and Repair Shop in Pickens S. C.

I found that the above named Business is very much appreciated. And I individually have appreciated the patronage of both white and colored during my short stay in the city of Pickens. I hope to render my service to the generous people of Pickens again.
Resp.
James Robinson.

Millinery Display!

Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday
September 21-22-23, '09.

Even if I could accurately describe to you the beauty of my hats, you wouldn't be able to appreciate them until you inspected them personally.

And my hats are really the latest styles—the very same which your friends in the cities are wearing.

They are made by the most progressive millinery house in America which has facilities for getting the latest Paris, Berlin, and London fashions to my stores at Clemson and Central at the same moment the styles appear in the largest cities.

I invite all the ladies of Central, S. C., and surrounding community to come to R. G. Gaines & Gassaway's store and try on hats whether they intend purchasing or not. There will be a nice line of hats kept there until further notice. Hats made and trimmed to order by Miss Dickenson, an expert trimmer of wide experience, from Atlanta.

Miss Madden—Milliner.

ARE YOU HARD TO PLEASE?

Let us array you in one of our many new styles handled by us of some of the most famous manufacturers, and lead you to a mirror.

You look at your reflection—and the hard-to-please disappears at ONCE.

We have dealt with lots of men who came to us skeptical of our ability to satisfy them with ready-made clothes.

They are regular customers now; once you wear our clothes, is enough to kill all prejudice. The spring styles are very sensible and attractive.

We have tried to consult all tastes in making our selections, and we believe we have succeeded.

Be you easy or hard to please, we stand ready to give you our best service.

Look into our show windows, you will see there a display of new models from some of the foremost makers, they represent the latest fashions, and you will spot them at once as winners,
Yours to please,
L. ROTHCHILD'S,
GREENVILLE, S. C.
