

Telephones and Babies.

The Southern Bell Telephone workmen have finished their job in Pickens, and now this city has one of the neatest and best equipped little exchanges to be found anywhere in the country.

The service is all that could be expected and the treatment is all that could be desired. In Miss Jones, the Southern Bell has a jewel and she is a credit to any exchange, doing even more than is required or expected of her to give the patrons good service.

The night calls are looked after by her brother, Mr. H. E. Jones, and, while he is "red-headed," this applies only to his curly locks, for he is a good-natured as he is auburn-haired and takes all sorts of pains to look after the subscribers and see that they get good, quick service, never getting rattled the least bit at the seemingly ceaseless, as well as sometimes useless, requests of telephone users.

Mr. A. R. Martin, the manager is a friend, indeed, to the people of Pickens, and he wants them to have and enjoy the very best service the Southern Bell can give, and to that end he labors at all times—as well as collects the monthly dues you contribute for the privilege of talking.

He makes periodical visits to Pickens for the above purposes, and is due in the city now, but we have found out the reason he hasn't come. The editor is in receipt of a letter from which we make bold to cull a few sentences: "I am a little girl baby. I arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Martin, 618 E. Washington, st., Greenville, S. C., on Sunday, the 26th of Sept. Although I have only been in this world a few days, I'll have you know I am boss at our house. Whenever I want anything all I have to do is raise my voice; then everyone works over time to find out what I want. It's jolly fun.

My papa says I'm a little Chinese with a red face, pug nose and that I only weigh 8 pounds. But then I don't think he's so big. I'll lose my guess if I don't give him cold feet before the winter is over by making him get up in the middle of the night for the paregoric, and he will frost his ears going to the drug store for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

There is a sweet little woman lying on a pillow near me. She is good to me, and I can see right now that we are going to get along together all right.

I am the owner of a very nice voice which I cultivate every night. If you don't believe it ask the neighbors.

If my name is not on your "calling list," will be pleased to have it there. Papa says my telephone No. is 2951 and the young men have "unlimited service" over it to talk to me.

My papa says the telephone is a great thing. He was at the Pickens County Fair and saw the baby show. So many pretty babies set him to hankering for one, so he phoned our doctor to bring him one, and here I am. Every family ought to have a phone—it's a great help. Mr. H. B. Bryan, (our District Commercial Manager) hasn't been married very long, and he has two, "Little Eight Pounder."

No wonder Mr. Martin is staying close to home; but we understand he says he is going to leave for he can't understand why everybody says the baby favors its mother when he is such a handsome man.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. And unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever: use cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENNEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

COLOR in Fabrics

Will be a marked feature of the fall and winter season; a great variety of beautiful patterns is being shown.

Some of the new colorings are so attractive that men are apt to neglect the plain blue serge or black Thibet.

We advise you to have at least one good blue or black suit, in addition to the fancy, colored weaves; and a black or Oxford Gray Overcoat, in addition to the fancy fabric.

This permits a change, and gives each suit a rest; to get cleaned and pressed. It prolongs the life of all your clothes, to treat them this way.

Look into our show windows, you will see there a display of new models from some of the foremost makers, they represent the latest fashions, and you will spot them at once as winners.

Dry Goods, Shoes, Underwear, etc.

To the readers of the Sentinel-Journal: You are hearing of HIGHER prices. I am glad to say that I believe Cotton will be higher. I am also glad to say that I have bought one of the largest and best selected stocks of goods—piece goods, men's and women's underwear, hats, shoes—in a word, a stock of goods for the general public, that I have ever had.

POSITIVELY LOWER than my prices are NOW. Goods LOWER than last season.

I do not advertise to give away goods—to sell a 10c. a pair for 5c.—I can't do that. But compare MY GOODS PRICES with the "give aways" and if I do not give you values, I will not ask you to buy. I want your trade and do all I can, LEGITIMATELY, to get it. I promise you

Dependable Goods. Lowest Price. A Fair Deal. Your Money's Worth.
