That there is more to a Fertilizer than Analysis is proven conclusively by the results obtained every year from Royster Fertilizers. They are made from experience obtained by actual field experiments of what the plant requires, and not from ready reference formulating.

Every ingredient in Royster Goods is selected for its plant food value, and has its work to do at the proper time, therefore the plant fertilized with ROYSTER goods is fed regular from sprouting time until harvest.

Ask your dealer for Royster goods and see that the trade-mark is on every bag. When you see this F. S. R. you know that you are getting the genuine and original ROYSTER Fish Fertilizer.

MORRIS FERTILIZER COMPANY

MANUFACTURERS OF

"SUPREME" and "SOUTHERN BIG" BRANDS

BLOOD, BONE and TANKAGE FERTILIZERS

ATLANTA, GA.

A cheap fertilizer is the most expensive item a farmer uses on his farm. It is a tax that he levies upon himself and that requires no bailiff to collect. He pays tribute to it in wasteful sums with every leaching rain, and when the drouths strike his crops and the critical fruiting season begins, he finds too late that he has submitted to "taxation without representation."

Our "Supreme" and "Southern Big" Brands are not taxes, but investments that yield big returns in crops and enhanced values of land. They are made of the highest class of Blood, Bone and Tankage, especially prepared for quick, constant and continuous crop feeders. They do not leach out in the soil, but become available for plant food so gradually that the plant is fed plentifully and systematically just as it needs it. There is no waste.

Don't consider the price. Our goods are as good as a guaranteed bond, and promise just as safe returns. Read the experience of good farmers who used them last year and found them to be the best they ever used. Call on your nearest dealer for our 1911 Year Book and learn more about it.

"Supreme" and "Southern Big" Brands always make bigger crops.

Clemson College,
 Practically all the large colleges and universities of this and other states have an organization known as "The Student Press Association." The specific purpose of the association is for the publication of the work and plans of the colleges to the people of the state. Such an organization has recently been organized at Clemson College, under the management of J. M. Workman, president; O. F. McCrary, vice-president, and C. B. Faris, secretary and treasurer. It is the intention of the members through the medium of the county papers to give all news as may be of general interest, and any personal news concerning the students that may be of interest to their home community. There are some people throughout the state who seem to have an entire misconception of the prevailing circumstances here at Clemson College. This is probably due to the fact that the college heretofore had no means by which to publish her facts to everybody in general; yet we ought to attribute some of the misunderstanding to a certain class of people who always have, ever since the establishment of the college, and it seems always will hold prejudice against the college. We hope that when we shall have laid the exact circumstances before the public, from time to time, that they will come to understand the college's attitude toward them, and that they will co-operate with us in putting down all false rumors.

The Palmetto Literary Society held its annual celebration on the evening of February 22d, in Memorial Hall. The day being a holiday, the college exercises were suspended, and the celebration of the day was given to the P. L. S. More than five hundred cadets and visitors witnessed the proceedings. The programme was an excellent one, and was faithfully carried out. Dr. R. T. Brackett delightfully entertained the Senior Chemistry section last Friday evening. Different games were played and refreshments were served. All present fully enjoyed the evening.

The campus is being very much improved by the cement walks which are being laid between the barracks and the principal buildings. This has been a much-needed improvement, and will add greatly not only to the beauty of the campus, but also to the health of the students. B. T. F.

An Exhortation.
 ED. JOURNAL:—I wish to make a word of exhortation on the "Call to Lovers of Law and Order," made in your columns last week. I would impress on all good people the importance of giving heed to this call. We should remember that "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." We sometimes read and hear eulogies on our great country, where it is spoken of as the "Land of the free and the home of the brave."
 But are we not in danger of letting our country fall into the hands of the lawless and those who make money by wrongdoing? It is a habit all too common among busy men to excuse themselves from taking part in the civil and moral improvement of our country by saying that they have something else to do.
 It is necessary that we have enacted all necessary laws for the restraint of the selfish and wicked who would live on the misfortunes of others, and that we have enacted laws for the protection of the unsuspecting and helpless of our people. But when such laws have been enacted our work is then only partly begun. Laws, however just and righteous, cannot enforce themselves. They must have the support of our good people. It is very important that we elect good men to office. But officers of the law, however diligent and faithful, cannot successfully enforce the laws unless they have the co-operation and support of good citizens.

Sometimes it happens that men get into office who are either too indolent to the enforcement of our laws or will not undertake to enforce any law that will expose them to danger or might cost them their job. We should strive to awaken all such to a consciousness of what they were elected for, or make it so warm for them that they will step down and out.

Prompted by a love for humanity and with a purpose to protect our homes and the youth and manhood of our country, let us meet in Pickens, Tuesday, March 7, and organize to work out such an end. We will be glad to have the women present.
 T. H. BEST.

Liberty Items.
 Liberty, S. C., Feb. 27: We have just had a little spell of winter weather the past week, and the thermometer stood at 20 degrees for two mornings. Peach trees had begun to bloom before the freeze and they were see all killed it appears, while we many buds not bloomed that the peaches are not killed in so far.

Mercury has run back up to 74 to day and the ground is dry enough to plow and the plows are going. There is more land ploughed now than in many years at this time of year; but Spring is to come yet and no telling what kind of weather is in store for us, but let us not take a pessimistic view of the future, but "bide our time and see" what good we can find.

There has been a good crop of winter oats, and a fairly good crop of wheat sown, which are looking fairly well, some few of the farmers are still sowing, mostly the 90 day oats.

Remember there is always room at the top, as the limit has not yet been reached in this section. We have found that 100 bushels can be grown in this county, all right.
