On Them and Gets Fingers In Spine.

Greka, Kansas.—Many Kansas fishes fall so low during the dry of the summer that catching by hand was one of the favorite pations in many towns for those had nothing else to do. Thou-s of large fish were caught in way, but the record catch was by Grant Cunstable, a trapper of fisherman, who lives near Benington on the Solomon river. His fish was a catfish that weighed 141 pounds, duly sworn to and acknowledged. When the fish was brought to Bennington by Cunstable to be weighed, some of the younger element in the town began to brag about a catch, saying that it was the biggest fish ever caught in Kansas, but Cunstable silenced them.

"Why," he said, "you kids ain't ever seen no fish. Lou Gelsert caught a catfish here in '73 that weighed 211 pounds. He was the strongest of all the catfish in the Solomon an' he jest naturally looked like a whale."

The Solomon always has been notorious for its large catfish and the Solomon Valley resident would turn up his nose at a mountain trout any day for a steak off a Solomon river catfish of 40 to 60 pounds weight. In dry weather most of the tributaries of the Solomon dry up and the Solomon becomes so low that it is only a succession of pools separated by sandbars through which the water trickles slowly. Some of these pools

OMAHA SOCIETY FAVORITE LOST HER TEETH AND GOT THOR- OUGHLY SOAKED.

Venice, Cal.—Mrs. Grace Harris is a large woman, attractive of face and figure, and one of Omaha's society favorites. The other day she made a bet that she would go wading above her knees in the Pacific. Seating herself confidently on the sand, she removed an expensive millinery creation and stripped off silk stockings and pumps regardless of an interested crowd.

Then she lifted her exquisitely tailored black gown, walked to the receding breakers and gingerly placed a pink toe into the water. Then followed the whole foot, both feet and the surging brine oozed about her ankles. She looked over her shoulder at the three companions on the beach; they were doubled up on the sand laughing.

A foamy breaker gurgled in, broke completely over her, turned her upside down, whirled her around, stood her on her head and playfully bowled her beachward. One of her friends held high a roll of greenbacks, but the dripping woman said nothing, keeping her hand over her mouth. At last she murmured: "I've lost my false teeth!" "But you've won your bet and money enough to buy eighteen sets.
We never thought you would do it."

CHILD'S LEAP SAVES HER LIFE

Grabs a Telegraph Wire to Escape Train and Hangs on Until Rescued.

Swampscott, Mass.—Grasping a wire in a leap from a railroad bridge to escape a train rapidly approaching, saved four-year-old Mary Arriba from death. A train from Marblehead rounded a curve and headed for the bridge. While her companions ran off the bridge and jumped down an embankment, the Arriba child stood motionless. With the engine within ten feet of her and the engineer frantic because he could not stop the train the little girl leaped over the side of the bridge toward the street 30 feet below.

The child's hands reached out and hit a telegraph wire. As if by a miracle she clung to it. For three minutes she hung until Henry Anthony, an engineer for the Swampscott highway department climbed the embankment. Held by his ankles by another man, Anthony lowered himself from the bridge and rescued the child from her perilous position.

Just as Mary was falling an auto flew under the bridge at top speed.
Had she not grabbed the wire the auto would have killed her if the fall itself had not done that.

Rubs Pepper in Child's Wounds. was taken to Old Bailey prison to serve a sentence of 12 months for having administered punishment to her young stepson by cutting his hands with a knife and then rubbing pepper in the wounds.

DEATH BEFORE 100 YEARS IS SUICIDE

Prof. Munyon Says Ignorance of Laws of Health Explains Early End of Life.

NOTED SCIENTIST HAS ENCOURAGING WORD FOR DESPONDENT MEN AND WOMEN

"Death before 100 years of age has been reached by nothing more or less than slow suicide. A man (or woman) who dies at an earlier age is simply ignorant of the laws of health."

Such was the original and rather startling statement made by Professor James M. Munyon, the famous Philadelphia health authority, who is permanent health headquarters in all the large cities of the world for the purpose of getting in direct touch with his thousands of converts.

Professor Munyon is a living embodiment of the cheerful creed he preaches.
Vital, well-to-do and actively energetic, he looks as though he would easily astain the century age limit which he declares is the normal one. He said:

"I want the people of the world to know my opinions on the subject of health, which are the fruit of a life-time devoted to healing the sick, in this city of the world for the purpose of getting in direct touch with his thousands
of converts."

Mrs. Browning.

Appropos of the jubilee of the death of Mrs. Browning, it is not generally known that the event occasioned one of the tenderest things her husband ever wrote. He tended her alone the night before she died, and wrote of her passing in a letter of infinite pathos addressed to their mutual friend, Mrs. Blagdon: "Then came what my heart will keep till I see her again, and longer—the most perfect expression of her love to me within my knowledge of her. Always smiling and with a face like a girl's; and in a few minutes she died in my arms, her head on my cheek. . . . There was no lingering or acute pain, nor consciousness of separation. God took her to himself as you would life a sleeping child from a dark, uneasy bed into your arms and the light."

Coachman Had to Earn Bequest.

A quaint paragraph appears in the will of Mrs. Jule Hall, of Brighton, England. At the reading of the will the other day it was found that she had bequeathed £100 to her coachman, provided he is in her service at her death, and "if I do not die through or from the effects of a carriage accident when he is the driver."

His Future Expenditures.

Among the most frequent requests that go to the United States senate are those asking some prominent member to give money to charity organizations, hospitals and other philanthropic undertakings. One day a charity worker asked Senator Flint of California, who is not a wealthy man, to give a large sum of money for a free ward in one of the hospitals.

"I am sorry that I cannot comply with your request," said the senator gravely; "but, judging from the number of similar demands that have been made upon me in the past, I have decided that I can promote a greater charity. The vast amount of money spent on hospitals in this town convinces me that thousands of people are going to die and be buried without flowers. Hereafter, I shall devote my spare money exclusively to sending flowers to the dead."—The Sunday Magazine.

FELL TO THE GROUND.

Stricken Helpless With Terrible Kidney Trouble.

F. Henry Thomson, 409 W. 40th St., Savannah, Ga., says: "Something seemed to snap in my back and I fell to the ground helpless. I was carried to my bed all in a heap. At first I thought I was paralyzed, but later knew it was kidney trouble. An awful nausea came over me, and the dull ache through my back caused suffering such as I had never experienced.
Doan's Kidney Pills strengthened my kidneys, rid me of the terrible pains, and in a few days I was a well man.
Although past seventy, I am strong and vigorous."

Megaphones in Oil.

Robert Henri, the painter, was discussing in New York a very mediocre "old master" for which a Chicago promoter had paid an exorbitant sum.
"The man is content with his bargain," said Mr. Henri. "I'm sure of that. To a millionaire of that type, you know, an 'old master' is merely a megaphone for his money to talk through."

Why She Smiled.

"She must love her husband dearly; she smiles whenever she looks toward him."
"That isn't because she loves him, it is because she has a sense of humor."—Houston Post.

New Idea in Judicial Lore.

The suggestion of a French judge, who presided at a breach of promise suit, has aroused the interest of American men and women. The suggestion is that when young people become engaged an agreement to marry should be drawn up with a clause providing damages if it is broken.

Social Distinction.

In some parts of the south the darkies are still addicted to the old-style country dance in a big hall, with the fiddlers, banjolists and other musicians on the platform at one end.
At one such dance held not long ago in an Alabama town, when the fiddlers had duly resigned their bows and taken their places on the platform the floor manager rose.
"Git you' partners fo' de nex' dance!" he yelled. "All you ladies an' gennul-
