

MAJ. HENRY SUMMER authorizes us to say that having been nominated for the Convention, he will serve if elected.

Rev. Samuel Townsend, of the firm of Townsend & North, died in Philadelphia, on the 31st July, 1865.

The "Southern Girl" who sent a letter to Headquarters, will confer a great favor if she will send her name so it can be answered. Anonymous letters are not noticed, as military etiquette requires all communications to be answered.

We take pleasure in calling the attention of Shippers of Cotton and Produce, to the card of Morris, Hunt & Co., and recommend them heartily, and as fully qualified in every respect to attend to all business entrusted to their care. We wish them abundant success.

The Election in Richmond.

The Greenville Mountaineer says: A recent order of His Excellency, President Johnson sets aside the decision of the military authorities, and the parties elected will forthwith take the positions assigned them by their fellow citizens. This is a gratifying evidence of the strong desire of the President to see the civil laws and usages of the States in full operation.

The Charleston Courier is anxious to see His Excellency the Governor in the Commercial Metropolis, for at least a few weeks. The Courier thinks Charleston would be an appropriate place at this time for the Governor's headquarters. The city is healthy, the military authorities are there, and frequent interviews between the Commander of the Department and the Provisional Governor, would be of great benefit, and the presence and counsel of the Governor would cheer the people. The interests of Charleston both politically and commercially are important. Also, that the City affords greater facilities for the Convention than Columbia.

The Cholera.

Northern papers teem with accounts of the prodigious strides made by this fearful scourge. We copy from the Courier's special correspondent:

A terrible cloud looms up before us from the East; the Asiatic cholera is making rapid strides over Europe, and will be certain to lay its deadly grip upon us this fall or next spring. All Europe is in a state of alarm, and arming itself for defence. Breaking out in Egypt, which seems to have birth to some plague every ten years, it raged thousands of Mahomedans, on their way to the sacred city of Mecca; with this good start, it next attacked the cities of Cairo and Alexandria. Its ravages up the Nile have been fearful. It has since appeared in Constantinople and along the Syrian coast of the Mediterranean. The last reports left it travelling Westward, having already reached Antoua, in Italy. In another month it will be in Paris and perhaps London.

Late Northern Items.

A San Francisco dispatch of July 10, conveys some startling intelligence of the Shenandoah, late Confederate privateer, but now undoubtedly a pirate. The whalers Edward Casey, Hector, Shigall, Euphrates, W. Thompson, Sophia Thornton, Irish Swift and the Susan, were captured and most of them burned. The bark Milo was bonded for the purpose of taking off the crews. It was thought probable she would soon destroy another fleet numbering sixty vessels.

Reports are still conflicting in regard to Mr. Davis' health. He is now allowed to promenade on the ramparts of the fort, and is said by the Fortress Monroe correspondent to be vigorous and hearty, while a Washington report alleges him to be quite feeble.

The military authorities have nullified the vote of the people in the late municipal election, in the city of Richmond, Va.

But one solitary rebel prisoner is now in the hands of the government. His name is Capt. Wertz, and soon to be tried by military commission.

Only 200 pardons had been granted up to Aug. 2, while over 2000 still remain on file. Gen. Joe Johnston has forwarded an application for pardon.

A dispatch from Fort Laramie, 27th ult., says: One thousand Cheyennes, Sioux, Arapahoes, Blackfeet, and a few Camanches, attacked the Platte Bridge Station on the telegraph road. The garrison numbered 200. The fight lasted two days, resulting disastrously to the Indians. The Indians do here they do not want peace, but will fight for all time.

The Washington Star pronounces the reports of the impending collision on the Rio-Grande to be untrue, as well as the story that reinforcements have been sent to Texas to repel the encroachments of the French troops. It is quite certain the government has no knowledge of any trouble in that section.

Guerrillas or Jayhawkers, or more rightly speaking, highway robbers are committing terrible depredations in the western portion of Texas. Neither age or sex are respected. Robberies and murder are common.

WASHINGTON, August 15.—The President it is known from the representations of his intimate friends, is determined to pursue substantially the reconstruction programme thus laid down, having reasonable evidence from all the South that it will be successful. Many of the accounts from that section are exaggerated and misrepresent the true and favorable condition of public opinion.

As the result of careful inquiry, it is believed there is an unwillingness on the part of a portion of the Cabinet to have Jefferson Davis tried for treason, while there is reason for asserting that the President is persistent in having him brought before a civil tribunal.

Chief Justice Chase is expected to arrive here in the course of a few days for consultation with the President as to the manner and place which shall be designated. The ablest counsel in the United States are also being consulted upon the subject.—There is a fixed determination by the Executive that there shall be an adequate fair trial by a jury of the country for the treason.

It may, in addition to the above, be confidently asserted that the President has determined, as soon as practicable, to withdraw the orders suspending the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, and to dispense with military courts.

LOCAL ITEMS.

MEETING NEXT SATURDAY.—We have been requested to state that a meeting of the citizens of the district will be held Saturday, the 26th, in this town, to learn who the candidates for the Convention are, and their views.

TOWN EXPRESS.—The citizens of Newberry are informed, that Mr. E. H. Christian will be pleased to attend to any little jobs of hauling which may be thrown in his way. Patronize him by all means; he is deserving, industrious and attentive.

RELIEVED.—Co.'s E, I and L, of the 56th, commanded respectively by Lieut. Tompkins and Captains Crossman and Hatchford, returned last week to Newberry from Anderson and Greenville, which latter places we learn, are now garrisoned by colored troops. Co. L and E, have gone to Spartanburg and Union. Co. L remains here.

NEW POTATOES.—We are indebted to Mr. J. R. Wilson, of Donaldville, for a sample of potatoes of the yam species. They are decidedly large and fine for the season. He has them for sale in quantities of from one to five bushels, at $1.50 in currency or $1.10 in coin, and he will deliver them at this depot.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—The following new advertisements appear this week: Gen. Orders, from Headquarters. Morris, Hunt & Co., Commission Merchants. Notice of Comptroller General. New Goods at M. Foot's. Notice, Spartanburg Railroad. Nickerson's Hotel, Columbia. Express Line—H. J. Epping & M. Chapin. Furniture for sale—Geo. W. Olney. House to Rent—M. Foot.

ROBBERIES seem to be rife. MAJ. PETER HAYR's house was entered on Wednesday night last, by a party of men in disguise, the Major blindfolded and gagged, and all the specie, silver ware and jewelry taken off. The robbers took their time at it, remaining long enough to make a thorough search.

A lot of bacon, sent here for sale by a lady, was taken possession of on Friday night, by persons supposed to be colored. Some of the bacon was afterwards found.

THE STREETS.—Under the new regime our streets are beginning to have a cleanly appearance. The bridging in front of our office, so long a nuisance and danger, have been repaired, and expressions of satisfaction are general. COL. TYLER and ADJUTANT LOOMIS are indefatigable in restoring order, and the work of cleansing and repairing goes bravely on, and there is enough of it to do. Some of the back streets are in a deplorable condition, bridges frail and dreadfully rickety, and unless seen to soon may cause the breaking of bones. Take a ride or work through the back streets gentlemen.

COMMUNICATED.

TO THE CITIZENS OF NEWBERRY DISTRICT: My name has been announced in the Herald of the 16th inst., as a candidate for the Convention to represent this district. It is well known that I was a member of the Convention which framed and executed the Ordinance of Secession. Circumstances have changed. I now desire to see the restoration of the State to the Union. The dearest interests of the country are now in question. There should be no divisions, no sectional or party spirit enkindled and aroused. Old things, as well as old politicians must give way to the progressive spirit. As such I most respectfully decline the nomination, hoping that the fund of good sense, which is yet in the district, will not permit itself to be deceived by the arts of false reasoning or false patriotism; but will take special care to elect such only as are solid, honest-hearted men; who will be sure to consult their judgment, not their passions or prejudices, and who will endeavor to do that which will promote the happiness, the peace, and the prosperity of the country.

JOHN P. KINARD.

MR. EDITOR.—As my name has appeared in your paper, as one of the nominees for a seat in the Convention called by the Provisional Governor of South Carolina, and as circumstances forbid my acceptance of that position, I take this opportunity of declining the nomination, lest silence on my part may be construed into a willingness to serve in that capacity.

R. MOORMAN.

I beg leave to decline being a candidate for a seat in the Convention at the ensuing election. Older and wiser heads should guide the State through her precarious position. My friends will accept my thanks for the honor implied.

I. F. HUNT.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—Having repeatedly protested against a nomination, I now respectfully decline the honor proposed as a nominee for the Convention.

JAS. MOFFATT.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—Please state that though gratified at the honor proposed in my nomination, I must yet respectfully decline.

H. H. KINARD.

I respectfully withdraw my name from the list of nominees for a seat in the State Convention. Newberry, August 21, 1865. G. T. SCOTT.

OBITUARY.

DIED, at Helena, S. C., on the 11th Aug. 1865, AMANDA VICTORIA MOISSON, in the 14th year of her age, the youngest daughter of Jno. J. and AMANDA MOISSON.

She is gone like a flower cut down in its bloom, and they have laid her away in a desolate tomb.

But the spirit triumphant released from all pain, In heavenly fields shall blossom again.

Oh why do we weep for the young and the fair? For the loved one that sleeps, why yield to despair?

When we feel that the angels have kissed her pure breath, And lightened her way through the shadows of death.

We wish thee not back where the storm clouds lower, Where the frost's rude blast hath stricken the flower.

We know not what tempest awaited thee here, Or the trials and troubles thy lot to bear.

Oh mourn no more, is not a promise given— That thy lost one of earth awaits thee in heaven?

All fadeless and pure, all blooming and bright, We shall meet the beloved in the sweet fields of light.

M. R. M.

APPREHENSIVE.—A person who lived in constant fear of the bailiffs having absconded, one of his acquaintances was asked what was the reason of his absence; to which he replied, "Why, Sir, I apprehend he was apprehensive of being apprehended."

INSURANCE.—The following toast was recently pronounced at a fireman's dinner, and was received with great applause: "The Ladies—their eyes kindle the only flame against which there is no insurance."

We frequently hear of our generals capturing "pieces of artillery." "What's the use of capturing pieces?" says Mrs. Partington: "why not capture whole ones?"

MESSRS. EDITORS.—Please announce, as a very suitable person for a seat in the ensuing Convention: Rev. T. S. BOINEST. aug 23
