THE COLLECTION OF INTERNAL TAXES.

WASHINGTON, Monday June 5.—The Secretary of the Treasury has divided Mississippi, South and North Carolina into districts for the collection of internal taxes.

Mr. Frederick A. Sawyer has been appointed collector of internal revenue for the city of Charleston, S. C. Mr. Sawyer is a native of Boston, Mass., and for some time past has occupied the position of superintendent of the public schools of Charleston.

SOUTHERN POSTOFFICES, ETC.

Government is reopening postoffices in the lately rebellious States as fast as postal facilities can be furnished and loyal postmasters found. During the past month two postoffices have been re opened in Maryland, five in Western Virginia, seven in Kentucky, and fourteen in Tennessee.

President Johnson has directed a suspension throughout the South of the sales of rebel landed property for non-payment of direct taxes, ordered by the Tax Commissioners in the several States. It is not known whether such a interposition implies a remittance of the penalty of confiscation, or merely a postponement of the sale.

OUR DEMAND UPON ENGLAND FOR DAMAGES.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Notwithstanding the intimation of the British press it is not the intention of our Government to abandon, or in anywise abate, the demand upon England for damages to our commerce by the anglo-rebel pirates. The disbanding of a portion of the army is no evidence of a cowardly policy. Enough will be retained to enforce any demands upon foreign Governments, and, if necessary, the veterans mastered out can be easily summoned back to the field.

REVERSAL OF THE MONROE DOCTRINE.

It is understood that preliminary measures have already been taken in reference to the abandonment of the Monroe doctrine, and a new one based upon Napoleon that, since we have settled our own family affairs, we will not interfere with European interference with those of our neighbors, Mexico, and a very plain statement is given that Napoleon must not only withdraw his troops from Mexico, but must also withdraw the Spanish and Austrian troops now there, and leave the people of Mexico to decide for themselves whether they will have an emperor or a republic. Otherwise it will be our duty to intervene; the Republicans have fair play.

News from New Orleans, June 10.—The steamer "Hercules" was entered by the Custom House at New Orleans May 21. Her crew, consisting of thirty men, were discharged at New Orleans, and their baggage and effects were taken to the Custom House. The steamer is still lying at the wharf.

News from New Orleans, June 10.—The steamer "Hercules" was entered by the Custom House at New Orleans May 21. Her crew, consisting of thirty men, were discharged at New Orleans, and their baggage and effects were taken to the Custom House. The steamer is still lying at the wharf.

CAMDEN, MONDAY, JUNE 26.

New Orleans advices of the 5th inst., state that Gen. Hood and staff, who recently voluntarily surrendered themselves, arrived there on that day.

It is rumored in the Northern papers that an extra session of Congress will be called, but it is not decided on.

Mr. Doyce, of South Carolina, is said to be on good terms with the President. The President's definite policy will be reserved till after the trials are over.

COLLECTORSHIP OF THE PORT OF CHARLESTON.—Dr. Albert G. Mackey, has received the appointment of Collector of the Port of that city. So says the Charleston Courier.

Numerous applications from all parts of the loyal States for the position of special agents of the Post-office Department in the rebel States, have been received at Washington.

Over six thousand rebel officers below the rank of Major, prisoners of war, have made application to the War Department to take the Amnesty Oath and be discharged.

The N. Y. Herald says, that the Hon. W. W. Boyce will, in all probability, receive the appointment of civil governor of South Carolina. Oh! consistency, thou art a Jewel.

The Nashville Union has a report from Augusta, Ga., that Gen. Robert Toombs had committed suicide upon the approach to his residence of a squad of soldiers sent to arrest him.

We are requested to say that the Camden Minstrels, composed of colored boys belonging to this town, will give an entertainment this evening at 8 o'clock, at the Temperance Hall.

The States of North Carolina, South Carolina and Mississippi have been divided into internal revenue districts by the Secretary of the Treasury, and appointments of collectors for some of these localities have already been made by the President.

Capt. T. N. CONNER will please accept our thanks for a perusal of the N. Y. Herald of the 15th.

Through the courtesy of Mr. E. M. GILBERT, we are in receipt of the N. Y. Herald of the 16th, also a copy of Harper's Weekly and Frank Leslie's Illustrated, of the 24th inst.

At a late meeting of the farmers of half a dozen counties in Virginia, between Richmond and the Blue Ridge, the abolition of slavery was recognized, and it was agreed as a general rule that their "emancipated negroes, field hands, should ordinarily be paid five dollars a month and found," and in harvest time one dollar a day and found.

An order has been issued from the War Department, by direction of the President, for the immediate discharge from imprisonment, upon taking the oath of allegiance, of all enlisted men of the rebel army and navy, and officers of the army not above the grade of Captain, and of the navy not above the rank of Lieutenant, excepting such as are excluded from the benefits of the amnesty proclamation.

In the N. Y. Herald of the 15th we learn that by a recent proclamation, taking off restrictions from Southern trade, perhaps the most important, is the twenty-five per cent. laid by the Treasury Department on cotton brought from within the insurrectionary districts. The removal of this restriction, the Herald says, has been debated for some time—the President and all the Cabinet, except one member, favoring it. The officers of government, both loyal and rebel, throughout the South, are represented as warmly necessary to the restoration of the good feeling of the Southern people towards the government, this particular restriction being generally regarded as a disservice to them.

THE CEMETERY.—We have been requested by the late authorities of the town to state that the key of the Cemetery gate will be loaned at Mr. McClellan's shop; and we are also authorized to say, that Mr. McClellan will furnish keys to any one wishing them at two dollars each.

The lock was put on for the purpose of keeping out the out, and we sincerely hope citizens visiting the Cemetery in carriages or other vehicles will see that their servants secure the gate; otherwise it will be a waste of time and labor to plant ornamental trees in the ground, or even for private individuals to attempt keeping their enclosure in order. If cattle are allowed access, the work already done will be worse than useless.

THE PEOPLE LEAVING.—The Waterford Citizen says that if emigration goes on unchecked for a few years, Ireland will be nearly depopulated. The Cork Examiner states that if there were steamers capable of taking five or six thousand per week from Cork, there would be found abundant passengers to fill them.

European News

The arrival of the Africa at Halifax, with advices to the 38th ult., places us in possession of two days later European news.

Lord Palmerston, in the House of Commons, on the 28th ult., stated that the diplomatic correspondence with respect to the Alabama's depredation was still going on, and that the question had been discussed in the most friendly and amicable manner.

The London press discusses the question at great length. The London Times claims credit for British "neutrality," and says England "now stands on its legal rights, and refuses to make any compensation where it has done no wrong."

The news of Jeff. Davis' capture had created considerable sensation in Europe. Politically the intelligence was considered favorable; for had the rebel chief escaped to a foreign country a European war might have arisen from the demand for his extradition.

The British Government were urged to ask the co-operation of America for the entire suppression of the slave trade.

Prince Napoleon's eulogy of America and his endorsement of the Monroe doctrine had drawn down upon him the censure of the Emperor. The Prince had accordingly resigned his position in the councils of the empire.

American securities had again advanced. In London, on the 27th ult., United States fifties stood at 67 1-2 to 68.

Consols on the 27th were quoted at 91 to 91 1-3. Cotton was quiet in the Liverpool market and unchanged.

The panic in the India cotton trade was spreading. Further failures were announced.

OBITUARY.

DEPARTED this life on the morning of the 19th inst., at their residence, Mrs. ELIZABETH BLODGETT. Our friend and sister, after a severe sickness, fell sweetly asleep in the arms of her Saviour; and though we deeply mourn her loss, (loved by all who knew her) we mourn not without hope. Happy are we to state that the deceased has been for many years a member of the M. E. Church. She was always at her post, ever ready to discharge the duties resting upon her as a Christian; an affectionate wife and mother. She leaves a devoted husband, a mother and brother, and three small children—one an infant—and a large circle of acquaintances to mourn her loss. Truly the ways of Providence are dark and mysterious, and past finding out; but in the midst of our sorrow and in this great bereavement let us remember that the Great Ruler of all events is too just a God, and too good a Father, to withhold from those whom he loves the blessing of a happy and peaceful departure. Let us therefore mourn, but lift the veil that shrouds our grief, and prepare our hearts, that when we are summoned we shall be prepared to go in confidence that world-wide parting is not a parting. By one who loved her.
CAMDEN, June 21, 1865.

GEN. GRANT ON SHERMAN.—Gen. Grant, in an article at a newspaper containing the report of Sherman's proposed arrangements having been admitted to the President, accompanied by a severe editorial criticism said:

"I regret the publication of Sherman's report at this time. Sherman has done too much for the country, to be slighted now for a single mistake, not of treason, of which Gen. Sherman is utterly incapable, but which grew out of sincere patriotism. I chose Sherman for the Western campaign because he was at that time the only one who had developed sufficient qualifications. Neither has any other since illustrated the same ability. Sherman's success at Goldsboro, necessitated my own at Richmond. When Sherman is fully understood the public will must do him better justice."

The weather during the past week has been warm but sultry.
