The Deadline

Keep an eye out for notice of the deadline for the next issue and all issues of the paper. Some news was left out of this issue because it was turned in too late. We are sorry but reporters have to turn in news to the overseer's desk by the deadline or it cannot be used.

Etiquette Studied By Campfire Girls

Modern etiquette and proper table settings are the two special projects being undertaken by the Campfire Girls at the Clinton plant, it is reported by Mrs. Brevard Patterson, one of the Guardians of the group. This special study is in addition to the regular progress which always is being made by each girl in increasing her rank.

A "Sweetheart's Day" will be a special event for the Campfire Girls at both villages the last Saturday in February. Fathers of all the girls will be their guests at a box supper to be held in the Clinton Community Club building.

Guardians of the Clinton Campfire unit are Mrs. Brevard Patterson and Mrs. Joe Cooper, assisted by Miss Corine Maye, Mrs. William Heaton and Mrs. Tom Morris.

Camera Club Open To All Employees

A new organization at the Clinton plant which promises to become a most valuable addition to the community is the Camera Club.

The club meets the second and fourth Fridays from 7 to 9 p. m. at the community building. It is open to any employees interested in learning photography. A number of the pictures used in this issue of the Clinton-Lydia News were made by J. M. Cooper, president of the club.

Officers of the club, in addition to Mr. Cooper as president, are Clark Meadows, vice-president, and E. C. Huffstetler, secretary-treasurer.
