

NEWS FROM CLINTON PLANT

(Continued from Page 3)

accompanied their aunt home. Mrs. Joicy Lipford had been ill with flu while visiting here.

NO. 2 SPINNING, 1st SHIFT By Jennie Watkins

Mrs. Laura Mae Howard visited the Bob Nolans in Lanford . . . Mrs. Grace Whitlock visited the Darbys in Newberry . . . Miss Joyce Dunaway of Rock Hill visited her parents, the Ed Dunaways . . . Mrs. Roy Waters visited Mrs. Eva Waters in Greer . . . Cpl. Jack Cothran of Camp Gordon, Ga., visited Mrs. Cothran and the Giles Lawson.

The Roy Cannons visited her parents.

Cpl. George T. Ward, stationed in Miss., spent a 15-day furlough with his mother, Mrs. Willie Mae Riley.

Mrs. Jewell Quinn visited in Augusta recently.

Miss Christine Jackson of Lydia visited Mrs. Jennie Watkins.

Our deepest sympathy to Elizabeth Woodward and family in the loss of her brother.

CLOTH ROOM, 2nd SHIFT By Eva West

The C. C. Putnams visited relatives in Edgefield . . . The W. C. Wallenzines, Mrs. D. H. Miller and Richard Wallenzine visited the W. R. Smiths in Williamston. Lt. and Mrs. R. E. Johnston of Ft. Benning visited her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Steer . . . H. C. Sutton of Winter Haven, Fla., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Horace Steer . . . The Carl Burroughs visited the T. B. Burroughs in Tip Top.

Pvt. Don Snelgrove of Ft. Benning visited the Bill Snelgroves.

The Loranze Brewington's baby son has been ill.

FIRST SPOOLING By Mrs. Kate Riddle

We are glad to have Mrs. Sallie Johnson back after her illness.

Mrs. Essie Garner and children of Chester visited Mrs. John Hedspeth.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Harris celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary January 5, and the Billy Lowerys celebrated their first anniversary Jan. 13.

Birthdays: Nancy Worley, Jan. 19; Betty Ann Johnson, Jan. 29; Reginald Harris, Jan. 13; Philip Joel Harris, Jan. 14; Lin Harris, Jan. 30; Joyce Harris, Feb. 3 and Claude Kernels, Jan. 29.

SECOND SPOOLING By Mrs. Othella Whitmire

The Robert Adams visited relatives in Greenwood . . . Mrs. D. D. Purcell has returned to Toccoa, Ga. after visiting her daughters, Mrs. Lester Ivester, Mrs. Nathan Cannon and Mrs. John Hedgepath . . . W. C. Ivester, of Middleton, Ga., visited the Arzo Ivesters . . . Mrs. Othella Whitmire visited with Mrs. Mattie Lyles . . . The Lester Tuckers visited her mother in Greenville.

Mrs. Lavonia Phillips of Tucapau visited the Lester Ivesters.

Arzo Ivester and children visited in Greenwood.

Mrs. Abelina Evans spent Sunday in Greenwood.

Mrs. Annie Bobo is visiting her mother in Waterloo . . . We were sorry to learn of the death of Mr. David Smith, brother of Mrs. Abelina Evans . . . Mrs. Ted Arledge and daughter from Asheville visited Mrs. J. H. Whitmire.

Pounding

The second shift spooling department gave Mrs. Ott Stone a pounding recently. Mrs. Stone had been out from work sometime due to the illness of her husband. She received a large basket of groceries which were deeply appreciated.

Mrs. Storia Cooper celebrated her birthday Feb. 8 . . . Little Alice Faye Cooper celebrated hers February 5 . . . Mrs. Othella Whitmire has recovered from her foot injury.

THIRD SPOOLING By Lillie D. Webb

George Dunaway left January 30 for the U. S. Air Force.

Happy birthday to Mary Sue Ealy, Jan. 15; Miles and Giles Lawson, Jan. 6; William J. Reece, Jan. 29 and Al Webb was 2 years old Feb. 15.

NO. 1 SPINNING, 1st SHIFT By Eunice Arnold

We are proud to claim the honor for winning the banner for the cleanest department. We want to thank the second and third shift for their cooperation. Now, we want to do everything we can to keep the banner.

Our deepest sympathy goes to the family of "Uncle Bud" Parkman, our former employee who passed away.

Mrs. Eunice Braswell and Mrs. Mary Sue Turner were hostesses at a party for Mrs. Cleo Dunaway recently.

The E. D. McCulloughs celebrated their wedding anniversary Feb. 2.

We welcome Milburn Frazier and Charley Forster to our department . . . The Hays Watsons of Augusta visited the E. D. McCulloughs . . . The Leo Heatherlys and the Guy Tumblins visited in Lancaster

NO. 1 SPINNING, 1st SHIFT By Harry Foster

J. D. Hanley and friends enjoyed some fishing at Santee Cooper.

N. C. Guest of Bowman, Ga. visited his daughter, Mrs. Jennie Butler.

We are glad Fred Cantrell is improving after his operation . . . Glad to see Mrs. Bill Harris back after her illness.

We regret to report the death of Mr. David Smith, Anderson, uncle of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Heaton.

Happy birthday to C. C. Heaton, Jan. 21 and to little Freda Foster, Jan. 15.

NO. 1 SPINNING, 3rd SHIFT By James Heaton

Pfc. Tommy Ellison, son of Mrs. Odell Ellison, now is stationed at Camp Rucker, Ala.

Mrs. Eula Mae Rushton celebrated a birthday Jan. 17, while Z. W. Rushton celebrated his Jan. 16.

Charles Windsor, son of Z. W. Windsor, has received his discharge from the Navy and is at home.

Mrs. Ruth Parkman is recovering nicely from an appendectomy.

Mr. W. D. Smith of Anderson, who recently died, was the uncle of E. E. and L. C. Heaton.

Mrs. Odell Ellison's son, Cpl. Floyd Ellison, and Pfc. Tommy Crow, both from Fort Bragg, spent a weekend here.

POWER PLANT, SHOP By L. A. Smith

T. R. Holland, night watchman, was sick but is back at work.

J. B. Carson had a birthday Jan. 17, visited his mother in Asheville Jan. 20 and was presented another grandson January 21.

Mrs. L. A. Smith is at home after an appendectomy.

Paul Quinton, plain and fancy welder, is raising fancy pheasants. You ought to go by and see these nice birds.

FIRST CLOTH ROOM By Dorsey Turner

James Dunaway's wife, Alice, has returned to work after recovering from her accident in which she suffered a broken collar bone.

Mike Yarbrough has returned to school after a week's illness . . . R. L. Yarbrough, Mike and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lowe visited in Union . . . Joyce Dunaway, daughter of the Edgar Dunaways, is a student at Winthrop and recently spent a weekend here. Her sister, Shirley, returned to Winthrop with her . . . Birthday dept.: Dorsey Turner, 3rd; James Dunaway, 12th; Myrtle Wallenzine, 21st; Ricky Dale Wilson, 14th; . . . Cpl. Lamarr Price has been transferred from Ft. Bragg to a post in Texas . . . S-Sgt. Frank Riley is at McDill Field, Tampa, Fla. and Pfc. Richard Merrell Harris is at Ft. Bragg, N. C.

C. E. Dunaway, first shift second hand, says the cloth room employees are talking and practicing safety at work. They are proud of their safety record and hope to have a 100% year in 1952.

Mrs. Dewey Oxner has returned home after an operation. They express their thanks for the nice cards and flowers sent her.

Pitts-Braswell

Miss Sara Boland Pitts became the bride of James Russell Braswell Jan. 4. They are making their home at present with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Braswell.

NO. 3 WEAVING, 1st SHIFT By Ruth Oxner

We were glad to have Mrs. Ella Harvey return to work Jan. 23 after her illness . . . Mrs. Alice Kuykendall returned to work Jan. 24 . . . Vic Martin stuck a cotter pin in his hand but after first aid he was all right . . . A. G. Galloway almost had an accident when he slipped and hit his arm on a loom set screw.

Anniversary Dept.: Little Roddy McAllister, son of the Walter McAllisters, was a year old Jan. 6; Clyde Bigby's birthday was Jan. 19; Claude Walenzine's Jan. 29; Maxie Wallenzine's Jan. 26; Mrs. Fern Hardman's Jan. 31 and the E. B. Norton's celebrated their 12th anniversary Feb. 3.

NO. 1 WEAVING, 1st SHIFT By Mildred Kinard

Mrs. Bessie Serene celebrated a birthday Jan. 16 . . . The Robert Neal's visited the J. J. Smiths in Salem and Mrs. Neal in Greenville . . . The L. A. Boyettes spent a weekend in Carthage, N. C. with Mr. J. A. Boyette returning here with them . . . Weekend guests of the William Terrys were the Carol Jacksons of Columbia and Miss Lucille Branche and Dodge Donohue of Spartanburg.

The Sidney Risers attended the funeral of Mr. David

PVT. EDDIE PRICE, a former employee of the Clinton No. 2 weave room, has finished his basic training at Fort Jackson, according to Mrs. Betty Price.

HAROLD RICE, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Rice of Clinton No. 2 weaving, third shift, now is stationed in Austria.

PVT. KEITH MCGEE, former employee of Clinton weave room No. 2, finished his basic training at Ft. Jackson February 8, reports Maudine McGee.

PFC. TOMMY ELLISON, son of Mrs. Odell Ellison of the Clinton No. 1 spinning room, now is serving in the army and is stationed at Camp Rucker, Ala.

Shirley Ann, daughter of Mrs. Hallie Campbell, Lydia plant, has returned home after being a patient at Hays Hospital.

Miss Barbara Roof, Lydia plant, has been ill at her home on Cypress Street.

Miss Billy Freeman, Lydia, has been ill.

Little Barry Boyce, grandson of Mrs. Irene Davenport, Lydia, is ill at home.

Clarence Brookshire, Clinton plant, has been out sick.

Lawrence Rice, Clinton, was ill for a few days.

Mrs. Corine Guest, Clinton, continues ill at her home.

Mrs. J. H. Seay, Clinton, was at patient at Hays Hospital.

Mrs. Lloyd Bailey, Clinton, has been ill.

Mrs. Lester Ivester, Clinton, is out after an illness.

Mrs. Abelina Evans, Mrs. Grace Bright, Bobby Cagle, Joe Adams, and Ott Stone, all of Clinton, were out sick.

Grover Sanders, Clinton, was ill with pneumonia at his home on Pitts Street.

Mrs. Janie McClain, Clinton, had an injured foot.

Little John Robert, Fred Leonard and Clemma Jean Ballew, children of the John Ballews, Clinton, all had mumps.

M. B. Raechester, Clinton, was a shut-in.

Other Clinton employees on the sick list included Fred Cantrell who had an operation in Spartanburg, Mark Thompson and Jack Wright.

We wish all of these a speedy recovery.

Smith in Anderson.

We are glad to have Mrs. Alta Riser back at work.

S. N. Howard Jackson visited the William Terrys.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Barbery announced the engagement of their daughter, Geraldine, to Robert Cannon. The wedding took place Feb. 10.

NO. 2 WEAVING, 1st SHIFT By Grace Wooten

Hello, Folks! Here we go with the first installment of keeping you posted on "What's What" and "Who's Who" and "What's Happening" here in this weave room. First off, Gholdie Simmons goes to the army the very day this paper comes off the press. Bet Evelyn won't forget the date of this publication. We'll miss you, Gholdie.

We're glad to have William "Slim" Dunaway back at work. He had a tough time with an operation at Greenwood but we hope he's all right now.

Just before the deadline for this paper, we learned of the arrival of the Orville McGee's first grandchild, a girl, Barbara Lyn, born Jan. 31. The mother is the former Maudine Yarbrough and Pop is Pvt. Keith McGee.

Birthday and anniversary dept.: Leon Holmes was 5 on Jan. 29 . . . Little Wanda Lou Lyle will be 4 on Feb. 28. Her mother, Mrs. "Bunch" Lyle, had a birthday Feb. 5; Gyneeta Lanford, Feb. 5; Mrs. Dora Leopard, Feb. 17; Harry Lanford, Feb. 10; Mike Kirby was 5 Feb. 5 and his sister, Tonie, was 2 Jan. 31. Both are grandchildren of Mrs. Dora Leopard . . . J. M. Cooper has a birthday Feb. 19. You can guess which one . . . Larry Caudle was 16 Feb. 3 . . . Miss Billie Dee Hooper, Jan. 21 . . . The Melvin Hueys will observe a wedding anniversary Feb. 25 . . . Charlie Barker had a birthday Jan. 5. Age unknown.

NO. 2 WEAVING, 2nd SHIFT By Helen Johnson

Mr. and Mrs. John Brown are new employees and will soon move here.

We are glad to have Mrs. Sylvia (Braswell) Sexton back at work. She was married Dec. 23.

Eddie Price and Keith McGee, former employees, finished their basic training at Fort Jackson Feb. 8. We wish them luck.