

NEWS ITEMS AT LYDIA

FIRST SPINNING, SPOOLING

By Martha Bailey

S/N Marvin Tumblin has returned to San Diego after spending a leave with his parents, the Jim Deans.

Mrs. Mae Collins of Woodruff and the Melvin Harts of Greenwood were recent visitors of Maude Harvey.

Mrs. Jack Holland and children recently spent a week with her parents, the Brooks Pattersons.

Mrs. O. H. Miller visited her daughter, Lenora Miller, in Laurens.

The J. B. C'Shields and Hugh Ballards attended the funeral of Pat Ballard in Honea Path.

Mrs. Gladys Brigman is visiting her sister, Mrs. Gibbs Maynor, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Colleen McLendon and children have returned here after a visit with her mother in Wellington, Kansas.

Mrs. Alma Harvey recently spent a weekend in Greenwood with her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Turner.

A surprise party was given April 15 for Mrs. Alice O'Shields at the home of her mother, Mrs. Hugh Ballard. Eighteen guests were present honoring her with some lovely birthday gifts.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. J. G. Goulman's mother is suffering from a broken leg.

Mrs. Tommy Ellison has returned home after an operation.

NO. 2 SPINNING, FIRST

By Pearl Queen

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cato visited in Chester and Lois Phipps visited in Enoree and Buffalo.

Mrs. Frances Jones visited the Quenton Jones.

Mrs. Evelyn Scott of Anderson visited the A. E. Alexanders.

Pfc. Paul Romine visited the Oliver Estes.

The Tommie Nabors and children visited here as did the Ralph Nabors.

The Walter Pattersons visited the Arthur Pattersons.

The Theodore Queens and Mrs. E. S. Woody of Laurens visited Charleston.

Beulah Jones had a birthday April 5, and Joyce, daughter of the Theodore Queens, had one in April. Dolores, daughter of the A. E. Alexanders, had one April 9.

Frances Cato had a birthday April 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Shealy of Newberry visited the Tom Banks.

NO. 1 SPINNING, SPOOLING, THIRD

By Mrs. Jackie Williams

Sure looks good seeing so many people planting flowers recently. If the weather is with us, we will have some pretty yards in the village soon.

We are glad to have two new people in our department this month. Retha Mae Bradley and Helen Gregory.

Lefty Williams has been transferred from first to third shift and Sammy Powers from third to first.

The Bill Caudles attended Moravian Sunrise services in Winston-Salem, N. C.

The Earl Andersons of Michigan visited the Homer Fullers and S. J. Todds.

The J. P. Shockleys celebrated their 38th anniversary April 22.

The Dock Dovers and Mrs. Ida Gregory visited relatives in Danville Easter.

Mrs. Eva Clark visited her mother in Hartselle, Ala.

Mrs. Neal Ballew visited in Capebury.

Mrs. Jackie Smith spent a weekend in Anderson.

Helen Shirley visited relatives in Seneca Easter.

Glad to have Mrs. Ollie Nabors back after her illness . . . Gladys Abercrombie has been ill as has Vera Stewart.

Mrs. Leola Jennings was absent several days due to the illness of her son, Donald Lee.

We are sorry to learn that Jim Martin will be out some time due to illness, and Mrs. Nora Weathers has left for an extended leave of absence.

Sorry to see the news off so much this month and this reporter urges all employees in this department to please bring me your news. It only takes a few moments of your time and helps to make a bigger and better paper.

FIRST WEAVING, NO. 2, 3

By Annie Lawson

Mr. and Mrs. Nye Leopard of Laurens and Annie Lawson visited Mrs. Leroy Matte and family in Gatlinburg.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Burdette with Hilda and Herman visited the Charles McInvaillies in Aiken.

Mrs. Harold Hampton and son, Darryl, were Easter guests of the W. R. Allen family in Columbia.

Cpl. Raymond Dean of Camp Stewart, Ga. spent a 6-day leave with his wife, Mrs. Nellie Dean, recently. Cpl. Dean was accompanied by Cpl. Bill Stukler, formerly of Chicago.

Mrs. Julian Clamp and Judy of Anderson visited the E. C. Burdettes.

Glad to have Mrs. Chestley King back in No. 3 after an extended leave.

The friends of Harold Crowe will be sorry to hear that he is a patient in a Greenville hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery. He is a brother of Mrs. Willie Cannon.

The E. C. Burdettes visited their mothers in Iva.

We extend our best wishes to the young people of our community who were chosen recently to learn weaving in No. 2. We are watching their progress with great interest. They are Billy Nelson, Melda Caldwell, Annie P. Medlin and Bobbie Pierce.

Glad to see Mr. Ruby Arnold up and around again after several days of illness.

The welcome sign is out this month for Mrs. Eloise Cannon who recently joined us as a battery filler in No. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Harris celebrated their 4th wedding anniversary April 7.

Glad to report that little Joyce Roof was not seriously hurt in a bicycle accident but Judy Sellers was pretty seriously injured. Joyce is the daughter of the Haskel Roofs and Judy is the daughter of the Hobart Sellers.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cox and Bob of Spartanburg visited the Jessie Owens.

Cpl. Richard Fenne!! is spending a 30-day leave with his parents, the R. B. Fennells. He has just returned from 10 months in Korea.

Roy Patterson celebrated a birthday April Fool's day.

Mistress Penny Blackwell, daughter of the Charlie Blackwells, visited her aunt, Mrs. Helen Patterson.

NO. 2, 3 WEAVING

By Evelyn Chafin

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hawkins and family spent a weekend in Atlanta.

Charles E. Venable is back after having flu.

We welcome John S. Pitts to Lydia from Greenwood.

Jessie W. Clay has been out sick.

Milton Ferguson has been sick and so has Irene Wells.

NO. 1 WEAVING, FIRST

By Dewel Proffitt

J. B. Abercrombie is back at work after having the mumps.

The J. T. Landfords visited the O. D. Stones and the Earl Princes in Inman.

Happy birthday to Cecil Davenport, May 4; Joan Shealey, May 12; Linda Patterson, May 10; Bill Patterson, April 22 and J. W. Motts, April 27.

The Casey Abercrombies of Greenwood visited Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Motts.

Earl Bible of Greenville, Myrtle Young and Beatrice Bible of Laurens visited the H. P. Culbertsons.

The Joe Todds will celebrate their 16th anniversary in May.

The Earl Andersons of Dearborn, Mich. and the Todds of Columbia were recent guests of the Joe Todds.

The Furman Hughes and Mrs. Nancy Hughes attended the funeral of Mr. Lester Hughes in Sanford, Fla. recently.

NO. 2, 3 WEAVING, SECOND

By Roberta Prince

The Doyle Fortsoms and son are making their home at 195 Poplar St.

Sgt. and Mrs. Frank Fortsom and son of Amarillo, Tex. visited the Doyle Fortsoms.

Christine Jackson spent a week with relatives in Woodruff.

The C. R. Kuykendalls visited Mrs. B. E. Eskew of Columbia.

The Robert Crains visited in Lockhart.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb Taylor spent a weekend in Tennessee.

The Doyle Fortsoms and Dan enjoyed a family gathering in Greenwood Easter.

S N John Snider, Jr. has received his high school diploma after graduation.

Training Weavers At Lydia Plant

Four weaving trainees are progressing well under the direction of regular weavers at Lydia and should be ready for a set of looms in the near future. They are Melda Jean Caldwell, Annie P. Medlin, Bobbie Pierce and William Nelson.

Mrs. Dora Jackson recently graduated after three weeks to a full scale job. She had previous experience as a weaver but had been out for sometime.

LITTLE LEAGUERS FROM BOTH PLANTS are turning in some fast playing and you shouldn't miss some of their games. Lydia team, above, front, Watts, Fuller, Burdette, Oakley, Campbell, Bailey, Alexander, Doval; back, Satterfield, Venable, Bagwell, Jr., Davenport, Coach Allen, Thom Bagwell, Gaffney, Edmonds. Below, Clinton, Crawford, Duck Dunaway, Brookshire, Cannon, Littleton, Carroll, Davis, Turner; back, Jeter Dunaway, Hughes, Hooper, Campbell, Owens, Joye, Barker, Hughey, Hancock not present.

Kiwanis Club To Tour Lydia

A number of Clinton business and professional men will have a chance next week to see what is going on in our plants and just how we go about turning out the "finest cloth by the finest people."

The Kiwanis Club of Clinton will visit the Lydia plant and be taken on an inspection tour by the supervisory personnel May 22. All departments will be visited.

Take Advantage Of Well-Baby Clinic

A "Well-Baby" clinic is being successfully held at the Lydia clinic the fourth Thursday of each month at one o'clock under the sponsorship of the county health department with the cooperation of Lydia Mills.

This service is not intended to take the place of the family doctor but does provide immunization shots to children unable to pay for shots covering whooping cough, diphtheria, tetanus, typhoid and small-pox.

Mrs. Mary Rossiter, public health nurse, and Mrs. Inglett, Lydia nurse, urge all parents to have their children immunized either by their family doctor or through the clinic.

PUPILS GIVE PROGRAM

Pupils of Academy Street school presented the program before the April meeting of the Clinton Woman's club. The students carried the audience on a make-believe trip to an art museum, posing as various well-known pictures.

Academy St. Notes

Booster shots for typhoid fever were given students April 30.

Academy Street Little Leaguers won their opening game against Lydia April 28, making a winning streak of 22 games. They won 21 straight games last season.

We were proud of our entries in the state track meet. More details are elsewhere in this paper.

Exams start on May 21 and run for three days. School will be out May 27 for the summer.

Seek Bible Funds

A campaign to raise funds for Bible teaching in the public schools of Clinton will be conducted from May 19-24.

New Curtain Named For Miss Blakely

A beautiful new stage curtain for Providence school was dedicated last Friday to Miss Margaret Blakely. Miss Blakely has taught Lydia children for 30 years. C. E. Saint-Amand made the principal address, and Mrs. Ione Wallace dedicated the curtain. Mary Johnson presented a silver gift on behalf of the Woman's Club.

Lydia Shorts

Lydia employees and the office have contributed $103.40 so far in the Cancer drive now going on . . . Congratulations to John McGee, son of the O. W. McGee's, Clinton Mills, who won state recognition in the S. C. Mental Test program. This is a real honor.