Been out to see the Little Leaguers play yet? If you haven't, you've missed some good ball because those little fellows can really play. Ask Mrs. Nell Huey, Mrs. Inabell Hooper or Nathaniel Cannon. They all have sons playing with the Academy Street team. Charles Huey and Mike Cannon are both pitchers, first class. All the boys really play hard and are certainly worth watching and encouraging.

Fish Tale: A young lady who works with us, when her brother was home on furlough, got off a day for fishing. Seven of them went and they had to walk about two miles to the water. They caught seven and began the long walk back to the car. Arriving there tired out, they discovered that no one had brought the fish, and no one would go back after them. Better luck next time!
