

CLINTON PLANT NEWS

No. 1 Weaving By Mildred Kinard

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kinard and son with Mrs. Alice Kinard and Willie Kinard visited in Newberry.

Little Miss Jo Carroll and Susan Terry spent the Thanksgiving holidays with their grandmother, Mrs. D. G. Jackson, in Columbia. Mr. and Mrs. Terry accompanied them home Sunday.

Sara Power and Ruth Lancaster have birthdays this month.

Nolan Lancaster celebrated his seventh birthday December 1 with a party at his home on Bailey street.

No. 1 Weaving, Second By Beatrice Hyman

Libby and Susan Boland of Newberry spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Amick.

Mrs. E. B. McJunkin had a birthday November 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Algie Bettis of Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Wright, Jr. and Linda of Joanna, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Ward and children of Laurens and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wright and Steve visited the Coly Campbells recently.

Mrs. Ruby Woods of Greenwood spent a weekend with her sister, Beatrice Hyman.

We wish to welcome Virginia Cray, Grover Dunean and Troy Hamby to our Department.

Eunice has no more worries about blondes. Joe definitely goes for reds now.

No. 3 Weaving By Edgar B. Norton

News seems hard to get in Weaving No. 3, First Shift, but after a lot of prying a few items of interest came up.

Very amusing was the report that Jimmy Wooten stole the show at the Tacky Party given by Mrs. George Price November 25. He won first prize and you can easily understand why he did if you take a look at his picture in this issue.

Dorothy Ann Bigbee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bigbee, was 14 December 14.

Thelma Ruth Braswell will be eight December 26. She is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Braswell, Jr.

Mrs. Ruth Oakley celebrated her birthday November 23 and the draw-in people presented her with a gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxie Blakely of Spartanburg visited Mrs. Ursula Blakely November 30.

No. 1 Weaving, Third By Izell McAllister

Mr. and Mrs. John McNinch and son visited the Doyle Earnests in Shelby, N. C. They also visited the C. P. Souths at Hickory Tavern.

We welcome Ed Smith and Robert J. Simmons to our Department.

The Bill Snelgroves and daughter visited S. B. Snelgrove in Saluda county.

The Dewey Willis announce the birth of a son, L. J., on November 23. Mrs. Willis before her marriage was Miss Mildred Gregory.

We have quite a few birthdays this month. Raye Shelton had one November 28 and Sam Owen on the 27th. Daisey Cothran observed hers December 6 and Clarence Motes December 10. Katherine Smith will have one December 17, Mickey McAllister on December 22, Earl Motes December 24 and Rita Shelton, December 24. Albert Cothran will have one December 16 and the Fred Sheltons will celebrate their 12th wedding anniversary December 24.

Well, it will be next year before you hear from us again, so Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

No. 2 Weaving By Vivian Garner

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Strickland of Pelzer spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Taylor on Davis Street.

Mrs. Mae Strickland and her son, Junior, are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Sexton spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Braswell.

Mrs. Heaton, who has been out ill for several weeks, is working again and we are mighty glad to have her back.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivey shopped in Greenville. Bet they bought a lot of pretty things.

Mrs. Mae Strickland celebrated a birthday December 2 and a wedding anniversary December 12. Christine Taylor also has a birthday December 8.

There isn't so much news in our department this time, but we want to wish everyone a Very Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year.

No. 2 Weaving, First By Grace Wooten

I hope everyone had as nice a Thanksgiving as we did. We worked, of course, but we really enjoyed a wonderful dinner afterwards at Lydia in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Cannon. It was a celebration of Willie's birthday as well as Thanksgiving, and all the Cannons and Crowes were present for a most enjoyable occasion.

Everyone in Weave Room No. 2 is watching with much interest the work of the construction crews who are working on the new mill addition. We are wondering how long it will be before it is finished.

We are glad to report that Miss Nellie Osborne is getting along fine after an operation at Hays hospital November 19. We hope she soon will be back at work with us.

William Dunaway's wife, Mrs. Pearl, underwent surgery in Spartanburg November 19 and is reported doing splendidly.

Our congratulations to the Glidy Holmes on the birth of a daughter, Joyce Elizabeth, 7 pounds, 2 ounces, November 17. Mrs. Holmes is the former Margaret Medlin.

Birthday greetings to Mrs. Nell Huev, November 30; Freeman Lanford, November 25; Pfc. Cole L. Blease, Jr., in Camp Wood, Japan, December 9 and Pvt. Gholdie Simmons, in Tague, Korea, December 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Dock Dover observed their wedding anniversary December 15.

Cecil and I have an anniversary coming up December 23. Pretty close to Christmas, isn't it?

Hope Santa will be good to all of you, and wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Third Carding By Daniel L. Dunaway

Happy to have Ben Woodward back after an operation.

Your reporter attended a two-day conference of the Southern Methodist Church that met in Florence and was the Saturday night guest of Rev. and Mrs. D. C. Gregory of Latta.

E. W. Blackwell and A. J. Rhodes said your reporter has been chasing rabbits lately.

We wish each of you a Merry Christmas.

THE VERY ACTIVE JUNIOR MISSIONARY Society of Bailey Memorial Methodist Church is shown above. In front are Elizabeth Hamilton, Bill Campbell, Joan Rampess, Bill Norris, Kenneth Hamilton, Irene Dunaway, Margaret Dunaway, Douglas Norris, Bobby Keane Heaton, Ninevel Williamston, Pat and Timmie Landford were absent when picture was made. Back row: Georgia Mae Hamilton, Mrs. Ralph Lawson (both of whom are helpers); Arthur Hamilton, Grenda Campbell, Loraine Patterson, Carolyn Dunaway, Dorothy Norris, Mrs. M. W. Adams and Rev. Wallace Terry.

No. 2 Weaving, Third By Buddie Ledford

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Donnan and mother, Mrs. Irby Holland, visited Mr. and Mrs. French Cooley in Camden for a weekend.

Little Billy Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Butler, was three December 5 . . . Wayne Butler will be five December 24.

Irene Griffen celebrated a birthday December 2 but is too old to tell her exact age . . . Irene and children and Alfred Wise of Joanna went sightseeing in Columbia . . . She says she is going to get a big piece of "ice" on her finger for Christmas but I am afraid it will melt before she gets it.

Little Jackie Griffen has been sick but is up and running now.

Everyone enjoyed Thanksgiving and many had a houseful of company.

Stanley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Fuller, had a birthday December 19.

J. W. Fowler sure is making time since his ad was put in the paper. It pays to advertise, you know.

Dot McCrary says she will observe her 26th birthday December 18 and her daughter will observe her sixth birthday soon.

Irene Griffen is expecting someone home for Christmas. Poor Alfred . . . Mildred and Buck Wilson went to Woodruff on a Saturday night . . . oh, come on, Buck . . . and a Merry Christmas to each and everyone of you.

First Cloth Room By Dorsey Turner

Mrs. Fannie Parrish visited her sister, the J. H. Walkers, in Laurens.

Miss Joyce Dunaway, a student at Winthrop College, spent the holidays with her parents, the Ed Dunaways.

The Freeman English's of Clayton, Ga. spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. English of near Cross Anchor.

The Nathaniel Dunaways and Mrs. Ashmore Dunaway visited Pvt. Gene Dunaway at Fort Jackson recently. Also A-C/3 George Dunaway who was a patient at Donaldson Air Base, Greenville.

Arzo Ivester, Bill Snelgrove and Rufus Handback went on a hunting trip to Georgia.

We are glad L. C. Ficklin is able to be back at work after his emergency operation.

Dewey Oxner, Charlie Barker and R. C. Oxner enjoyed a hunting trip over the holidays.

Birthdays: Bobby English, November 23 and Linda Campbell, November 24.

The Bill Snelgroves observed their 12th wedding anniversary December 14 and the Nathaniel Dunaways observed their fifth anniversary November 22.

First Carding By Brooks Dunaway

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sparks were weekend guests of their son-in-law and daughter, the L. W. Bells, in Atlanta.

(Cont'd. on Page 7)

LINDA GAIL HOLBERT is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Holbert. She celebrated a birthday November 28.

SAM OWENS was 19 years old November 27. He is the son of the David Owens, Clinton Cotton Mills.

NANCY is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Lusk, Clinton plant. She will celebrate a birthday Dec. 18.

LENA GILLIAM is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gilliam, Clinton plant. She will be 12 years old December 27.

MELBIE WOODY is the 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ovell Woody, Clinton Spinning Department.