

President George H. Cornelson, right, presented Chairman Robert M. Vance a scroll recognizing his accomplishments as Clinton's Board Chairman during the past 25 years.

Robert Vance Recognized

Chairman of the Board, Robert M. Vance, was honored by the Clinton Mills, Inc. Board of Directors at its March 13 meeting for twenty-five years service as Chairman of the Board.

The resolution of appreciation for distinguished service was presented to Vance by President George H. Cornelson.

The resolution, inscribed as follows, was presented in scroll form:

WHEREAS—Robert M. Vance was elected Chairman of the Board of Directors on December 20, 1958 and has provided able and dedicated leadership in this capacity for more than twenty-five years; and

WHEREAS—Upon the recommendation of the Chairman, the Directors of Clinton Cotton Mills Inc. and the Directors of the

Lydia Cotton Mills Inc. on January 1, 1965 consummated the merger of these cotton textile manufacturing companies into Clinton Mills Inc.; and

WHEREAS—Clinton Mills Inc. constructed the Bailey Plant in 1966 in order to manufacture polyester and combed cotton fabrics made from blends of synthetic and natural fibers; and

WHEREAS—The Directors further diversified the textile manufacturing operations of Clinton Mills Inc. through the acquisition of Elastic Fabrics of America of Fort Washington, Pa. in 1970, Mid-America Yarn Mills Inc. of Pryor, Okla. in 1973, and Clinton Mills of Geneva, Al. in 1977; and

NOW BE IT RESOLVED, That the Board of Directors, as an expression of the admiration that we feel for Robert M. Vance and in great respect for his leadership as Chairman of the Board of Directors of Clinton Mills Inc., does hereby approve this Resolution of appreciation honoring these significant achievements; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this Resolution be spread upon a separate page of the Minute Book.

Adopted by the Board of Directors at Clinton, South Carolina, March 13, 1984.

Clinton Mills directors include, in addition to Vance, Emily Bailey, Rose Montgomery, Mercer Wise, George Cornelson, Thad Williams, Bailey Dixon, Claude Crocker and J. R. Swetenburg, Jr.
