ASSOCIATE RECOGNITION

Chatham Retirees...

After 41 years and 10 months of service Ira Billings retired from Chatham. He is pictured with two of the special ladies in his life. On the left is his daughter, Priscilla (Chatham Laboratory), and on the right is his wife, Joyce.

Charlie Cox retired with 24 years and 8 months of service with Chatham. Now he plans to work on his golf game and spend more time with his grandchildren.

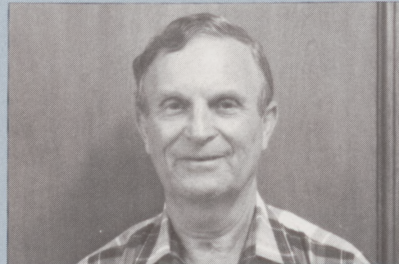

Tom Davis was given a retirement party by the Electric Shop on June 26th. He has been employed with the Company for 45 years and 11 months. His wife, Thelma (Winding) was also in attendance at the party.

Roby Rose worked in the Carpenter Shop for 32 years and 7 months. He is pictured with his son, Tony Rose (Dye House Lab) and his wife, Betty.

Betty Stanley retired from the Inspection Department with 24 years and 8 months of service. She was honored with a retirement party which was attended by her husband and her six children. Pictured from left to right: Donese Boyd, Robin York, Linda Rugeria, Junior Stanley (retiree), Betty Stanley, Una White, Angela Cruise and David Stanley.

Arvil Swaim was employed with Chatham for 29 years and 1 month. He retired as inventory clerk in the Wet Finish Department. Now that he is retired, Arvil plans to have time to attend all of this granddaughter's softball games.
