M.S. Bailey Memorial Scholarships Awarded

Three Clinton Mills employees' sons and daughters have been named recipients of $7,000 M.S. Bailey Memorial Scholarships.

Mrs. Emily Bailey Bigby, second from left, a member of the Bailey Foundation Advisory Committee, presented the grants to William R. Hill, left; Becky Boozer; and Maria Livingston during Clinton High School's Awards Night Program June 7.

In presenting the awards, Mrs. Bigby quoted her father's (the late P.S. Bailey) remarks when he presented the first awards in 1956: "Our confidence in today's youth is evidenced by this investment in their future. For progress and achievement tomorrow, we must prepare our youth today."

"The success of this program," stated Mrs. Bigby, "is a tribute to those who have been participants over the past 23 years."

In addition to the scholarship awards, the Foundation presented $6,000 interest free loans to Rickey Campbell, Margaret Deitz, Joy Dickert, Carol King, Rick Swetenburg, Glenn Waldrop, Lorie Wallenzine, Steve Wilkins, Jamie Woody, and Tammy Bagwell, all Clinton High graduates.

In addition, the Foundation awarded interest free loans to Ruth Nelson, Laurens High; James David Scott, Thornwell; Tom Davenport, Geneva, Ala.; James M. Pope, Talladega, Ala.; Janice K. Powers, Pryor, Okla.; Christopher Raleigh, and Kimberly Raleigh, both of New York.
