

Long-Service Employees Recognized

William D. McWaters became a member of the Old Timer's Club on August 19, 1984. William is employed in Plant No. 2 Spinning.

Katherine Smith completed membership requirements in the Old Timer's Club September 10, 1984. Plant No. 2 Manager Ted Davenport, right, and Weaving Superintendent Joe Aiton, left, expressed their appreciation for her loyalty to the company as they presented her with an engraved wrist watch.

Lucille Woody completed 40 years continuous service to the company since October 9, 1944. Plant No. 2 Manager Ted Davenport and, left to right, Superintendent Mac George and Assistant Superintendent Billy McGee complimented Lucille on her dedication to the company.

Ruby Cooper ended a 30-year work career as she retired from Plant No. 1 Spinning recently. Her many friends and fellow employees joined together in making her last day at work quite a memorable occasion. A highlight of the party held for Ruby was a cake decorated with a handmade "rug" and rocking chair. In addition, Ruby also received numerous other retirement gifts.

Lydia Plant Manager Joe Nelson, right, congratulated Myrtle Lanford, center, on achieving 25 continuous service in Lydia Weaving. Joe Littlefield, weaving superintendent, expressed his appreciation to Mrs. Lanford for her contribution to the company since October 1, 1959.

Mrs. Nell Haggart completed twenty-five years in industrial nursing at Clinton Mills on September 19, 1984. Nell is shown receiving her service award watch from Vice President Claude A. Crocker.