

Scenes From Flag Raising Ceremony

We're interested in American-made products—Belk Vice President Grier Hudson tells Clinton Mills Vice President Thad Williams the things the Belk organization is doing to help the domestic textile industry.

Flag Flying—The Clinton Mills "Crafted With Pride" flag flutters in the breezes under the United States flag. In addition to the flag-raising ceremony in Clinton, a similar activity was conducted at Clinton Mills of Geneva.

Proclamations official—Clinton Mayor David Tribble places his signature on proclamation urging Clintonians to buy American-made products. Laurens Mayor Bob Dominick did likewise. The two proclamations were then presented to chairman Robert M. Vance.

A break for the press—"Mister Sun" Editor Jim Kluttz takes time to enjoy a piece of cake as Mrs. Mildred Bower pours coffee. Kluttz has long been a supporter of Clinton Mills activities.

Clinton Mills role in community—Laurens City Manager Paul Willette, Clinton Mayor David Tribble, and SCTMA Communications Director Jan Dargan discuss Clinton Mills' interest and support of projects such as "Made in USA" campaign and its affect on the community.

A star is made—Sue Gann carefully removes "star" from Crafted With Pride cake which she baked for flag raising ceremony.