

LOCAL DOTS

—Cotton brought 10½ cents on this market yesterday; cotton seed, 22½ cents.

—Daisy White, col., was convicted yesterday in Magistrate Caskey's court of assault and battery. She paid a fine of $15.

—Hattie Jones, colored, was convicted in Magistrate Caskey's court Monday of stealing money. The sentence was $15 or 30 days. She has appealed.

—Mody Thomas, the negro who escaped from the chain gang last April, was captured in Mecklenburg county, N. C., and brought here yesterday by Mr. R. J. Williamson. He was working up there on a farm under the name of Henry McIlwain.

—The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. C. Mosier, of the eastern portion of the county, died Monday night, aged about 6 months. The burial was at Union church yesterday.

—Dr. T. J. Strait, president of the county cotton association, attended the meeting in Columbia Friday of the county presidents of the South Carolina division.

—The Ladies of the Presbyterian church of Heath Springs will serve oysters at the residence of Mr. L. M. Bell, on Market St, Friday evening from 6 to 10 o'clock. The public is cordially invited. The proceeds will be used to procure lights for the new church.

—Messrs. W. T. Gregory and J. M. Hood, of the Gregory-Hood Live Stock company, continue to branch out in their business. In addition to their interests in the stock business in Columbia, Gaffney and elsewhere, they are now forming stock companies in Bishopville and Hartsville.

—Mr. C. L. McManus, who, by the way, is not only one of Lancaster county's best citizens but one of its most successful farmers as well, lost a fine cow one day last week, from eating too many peas. He had been offered $40 for the animal.

—The farmers' association of Antioch will meet next Friday night, at the church. A full attendance is desired.

—Dr. Boldridge will preach at Camp Creek church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

—Mr. W. J. Bailey, who has been manager for some years of Mr. W. J. Cunningham's model farm west of town, will take charge of Senator Hough's plantation the first of January.

—That "dreams go by contraries" has been fully exemplified in the case of Mr. J. R. Thompson, of Riverside. Last Sunday night he dreamed that he owed the old Review a balance of $9. on subscription and that when he went to settle the sum of $18 was claimed to be due. Mr. Thompson, therefore, came to town Monday to see about the matter. The books showed that he only owed 20 cents, which he most cheerfully paid.

Mr. Knight's family will no doubt remain in Lancaster.

Interesting Address Before The Franklin Circle.

Reported for the News: Rev. R. E. Turnipseed delivered an able and instructive address on the Bible to the members of "The Franklin Circle" and their guests at their last meeting. His remarks were very spicy, sprightly and spirited, taking the scope, purpose, style and results of this Book as the basis of his address.

The room was beautifully decorated in flowers and autumn leaves and soft lights shed radiance upon the whole.

Judge Jones made some impromptu remarks which were highly appreciated. He spoke words of commendation for work already done, and encouragement for work yet to be done by this Circle.

A warehouse, 1500 bales of cotton and $20,000 worth of flax were burned in Athens, Ga., Sunday.
