Rich Hill

An Up-to-Date Community—
Improvements Constantly
Going on.

One of the most progressive communities in Lancaster is that of Rich Hill, in the eastern portion of the county. Rich Hill has not only recently completed one of the handsomest school houses in the county, costing about $1500., but it is now arranging to build a commodious church.

Mr. Robert Blackmon is having a nice, modern residence erected. Mr. Thomas Blackmon is the contractor. The building will be ready for occupancy by the 15th of next month.

Dr. Bishop is also going to have an attractive dwelling built.

Mr. J. W. Blackmon has recently added a planer to his saw-mill outfit.

Mr. J. A. P. Blackmon has experimented with marked success this year with a new variety of cotton seed, called the Culpepper, making over a bale to the acre. He made 9 bales on 8 acres.

The Rich Hill school was closed a few days last week on account of the illness of the principal's parents, in Rock Hill.

Cotton Booming!

Government Report Yesterday Caused Price to Advance over 100 Points.

The Government's report on the amount of cotton ginned up to the 14th instant was made public yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the figures being 7,498,500 bales, which indicate a crop of not over 10,000,000.

The report caused the market to advance over 100 points, or, in other words, over a cent a pound. Some of the advance was lost before the closing, but it is likely that spots will be from a half to three quarters of a cent higher today than they were yesterday.

Mr. Ross Dye, an aged citizen of Chester county, died Thursday.

Thirty-nine persons were burned to death in a lodging house in Glasgow Sunday.

A fire in Connellsville, Pa., Sunday destroyed 810,000 gallons of liquor.

The 6 months-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brunson of Orangeburg county, was accidentally burned to death last Wednesday. The infant's clothing caught fire from a burning stick with which another child was playing.
