Events in Kershaw as Noted by the Era.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather the mass meeting announced to be held recently to organize an anti-liquor league could not be held. Next Friday has been appointed to hold this meeting at the old school building at 7:30 o'clock p. m. Let all who want to see illegal liquor selling suppressed be present.

—While alighting from a buggy in front of her father's home last Sunday evening Miss Louise Blakeney made a misstep and fell with her little sister in her arms. The latter was rendered unconscious for nearly an hour and both sustained very painful injuries, which we are glad to note are not considered serious.

—We were glad to meet in town last Thursday our old friend and former fellow citizen, Capt. J. Q. McManus, who informed us that he would return in a short time to spend a month or more.

—Mr. John F. Carson, of Andalusia, Ala., who came to Yorkville to attend the funeral of his mother, spent a couple of days in Kershaw with his brother, Mr. J. M. Carson, before returning to Alabama.

Miss Ethel Knight, of Taxahow visited her friends, Misses Lillie and Josie Blackmon, near Halls Gold Mine, last week.

—Mr. Geo. W. Jones, of the Douglas section, spent a couple of days in Kershaw with relatives last week.

—Dr. A. U. Taylor, who was formerly with U. O. Floyd, has accepted a position with Dr. J. E. W. Halls.

—Mr. J. C. Beckham, of St. Matthews, is visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Beckham.

Mr. D. J. Gardner has accepted a position at C. O. Floyd's.

—E. D. Blakeney, Esq., returned yesterday from a professional visit to Charlottesville, Va.

—Mr. J. W. Hasseltine spent Sunday in Lancaster, with relatives.

—Mr. Ross Blackmon is home from the South Carolina College.

—Mrs. C. L. Dye is visiting relatives in Columbia.

General Revolt Feared in Russia.

Moscow, Nov. 23.—Excitement among the peasants in the Central and Southeastern provinces fostered by the revolutionists is spreading rapidly and it is feared that it will be impossible to suppress the movement which promises to develop into a general uprising, bringing devastation and untold horror to the whole country.
