

LOCAL DOTS

—Cotton brought 11½ cents on this market yesterday; cotton seed, 25 cents.

—The Carmel Hill Cotton Association will meet Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

—Attention is called to new announcement of Heath Elliott Mule Co. in today's paper.

—Anderson county voted out the dispensary last Saturday by a vote of two to one.

—Chief Justice Pope has issued an order temporarily restraining the closing of the Spartanburg dispensaries. The matter comes up Dec. 4.

—The Cotton Growers' Association of Rich Hill School District will meet next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the school house.

—There will be preaching tomorrow—Thanksgiving Day—at Fork Hill church, at 11 o'clock. a. m., by the Rev. R. J. Blackmon.

—There were fifteen applicants at the examination here last Saturday for R. F. D. carriers.

—The many friends of Mrs. Mary Thompson, of Riverside, will regret to learn that she is critically ill.

—Taxpayers of the town of Lancaster are reminded of the fact that tomorrow, 30th, is the last day for paying municipal taxes without penalty.

—Don't forget to patronize the U. D. C. entertainment Friday night. Buy a ticket whether you go or not, in order to help out the Confederate monument fund.

—Theodore Price, the great bear leader, has "covered" his "short interest in the market," whatever that means—and is now on the bull side of cotton.

—Merchant Cloud has a special announcement elsewhere which bargain seekers should not overlook.

Mitchell, of Leesville, who killed his fellow townsman, Trotter, in Columbia during fair week, was on last Saturday admitted to bail by Judge Gage in the sum of $2000.

According to the government report recently issued, 16,056 bales of cotton had been ginned in Lancaster county up to the 14th instant. The figures for last year up to the same date were 15,806.

—The attention of voters of the town of Lancaster is called to the fact that next Monday is the last day for municipal registration. If you expect to vote in the coming town election you had better see about your certificate.

—Master Ira Pittman, son of Mr. Geo. W. Pittman, of Jones X roads, sent us Monday some ripe June apples—second crop. It is rare that a second crop of fruit matures in this country.

—The central telephone office will be closed tomorrow, Thanksgiving Day. So you had better phone your orders today for oysters etc, to be delivered tomorrow.

—Don't fail to read the attractive announcement in today's paper of the Gregory-Hood Live Stock company. This company, by the way, is now recognized as one of the largest of the kind in the South. It handles everything in the way of vehicles as well as horse flesh.

—For the benefit of the taxpayers and the public generally, the county supervisor will have a phone placed in the county treasurer's office. It will be put in by the first of December, and will be allowed to remain there some two or three months—during the remainder of the tax collecting season.

—Lancaster's biennial election for mayor and aldermen will be held December 12th, as will appear by official notice elsewhere.

—Messrs Clyburn & Robinson, the well known young jewelers, also have an important notice in today's News.

—Have you ever noticed what a bright and catchy advertisement the Cotton Mill Store Company gets up? Of course you have, for a new one appears every week in The News.

—Mr. B. N. Craig, a former Lancastrian who is now one of Rock Hill's leading business men, has formed a partnership with Mr. William Gill, of that city, and they will begin business in a few days under the name of the "Farmers' Wholesale Grocery Company."

—The town authorities are having the sidewalk next to Judge Jones's, on Chesterfield avenue, graded and leveled. Carts are also at work elevating White street, near the ginney, dirt being hauled from the Springs lot.

—By all means read what Cherry, the shoe man, has to say in today's paper. He is carrying a splendid line of footwear.

Signing Cotton Pledges.

If the farmers throughout the south are obligating themselves as generally to hold cotton for 15 cents as those of Lancaster county are doing, the price of the staple will soon crawl up to the desired figures. Over 2,000 bales, we are told, had been pledged in this county up to last Saturday night, and the work of signing pledges is still going on.

Union Thanksgiving Service to be Held in Presbyterian Church.

The various congregations of Lancaster will unite in a Thanksgiving service tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, in the Presbyterian church. A sermon will be preached by the Rev. R. E. Turnipseed, pastor of the Methodist church. The usual collection for the different Orphanages will be taken up.

A new furnace has just been installed in the Presbyterian church and the building will no doubt be comfortably heated for the thanksgiving services.

Mr. Henry Massey, of Rock Hill, spent yesterday in Lancaster.

PERSONAL

Col. Leroy Springs is in New York this week.

Mr. J. H. Creighton, of the Heath Springs section, paid this office a pleasant call yesterday. It was Mr. Creighton's first visit to Lancaster in some months and he was surprised to see what a mammoth building Col. Springs is erecting on Main street.

Dr. Boldridge, Judge D. A. Williams and Mr. M. J. Long will probably leave today for Columbia, to attend the State Baptist Convention, which convenes in that city tonight.

Col. T. Y. Williams has been in Columbia for the past week, attending the trial of what is known as the state house case, being a member of the commission appointed by the legislature to institute the suit.

HORSES!
Horses, Mules, Mules!

Our Mr. Hood has just closed another deal for six car loads of Mules and Horses—180 head. Two of these cars come here, one of horses and one of mules. Think of it, 60 head to arrive in a few days, and Mr. Hood wires they are the best we have bought this season. Some closely matched teams of extra fine mare mules that weigh from 1100 to 1250 each. This is a grand opportunity to buy brood mares. Have some with extra finish and family broke.

Buggies, Buggies.

Two solid cars to arrive this week, all kinds and styles.

Wagons, Wagons.

Have just closed a deal for 100 more, and we have stacks of them on hand of all sizes—one, two, three and four horse with regular or broad tire. Come one, come all. Those who do not feel able or willing to buy a new vehicle can buy a second hand, as we have at least 100 second hand buggies, carriages and wagons on hand that we are going to sell regardless of the price. Don't fail to
