Basket Supper.

There will be a basket supper at College Hill Academy, N. C., near Mr. Robt. McNeely's, on Thursday night, Dec. 28th, at 7 o'clock. Everybody is invited to come. Girls are requested to bring baskets full of something good to eat. We want at least fifty baskets and plenty bidders. The net proceeds will go to buying desks for the Academy. Come, boys, and buy your girl's (or your sweet heart's) basket and help in a good cause.

Christmas Tree at Tradesville Friday Night

Mr. Editor: Please publish in your valuable paper that there will be a Christmas tree at Tradesville, Academy at 6.30 o'clock Friday night, 22nd inst. Also a cake to be voted on for the prettiest young lady in the house. The proceeds to go to the church. The public is cordially invited. Committee of arrangement: Misses Fannie Cochran, Ola Funderburk, Hattie Horn, Mrs. C. E. Funderburk, Messrs W. A. Funderburk, J. R. Funderburk, J. F. McManus, R. F. McManus.

Riley Mitcham, a young white man, who has been working at the Lancaster Cotton Mill for some time, was arrested Saturday and lodged in jail by direction of Sheriff Hunter, on a telegram from Sheriff Gamble of Clarendon. It seems that there is a sealed sentence in Clarendon against the young man for assault and battery with intent to kill.
