

Death in North Carolina of Promising Young Man, Whose Father was a Native of this County.

The last issue of the Monroe Journal contains the following account of the sad death of Mr. Samuel Williamson, grandson of Col. and Mrs. J. N. Crockett and nephew of Mr. A. C. Williamson and Mrs. J. F. Hunter of Lancaster:

The sudden death of Mr. Samuel R. Williamson, which occurred on the evening of the 16th was very sad, since it was that of a man just entering vigorous manhood, and came almost without notice. A week before his death Mr. Williamson was one of the company who presented the cantata, "Esther," in the opera house, and it is said that the change of clothing which he made for the play was the basis of the disease which resulted fatally so quickly—pneumonia. The deceased was a son of the late S. R. Williamson, and would have been 22 years old the 9th of next February. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Hettie Williamson, and two sisters, Mrs. Elta Griffin and Miss Margie Williamson; Mr. Lee Williamson, a half brother; and two half sisters, Mesdames S. S. Wolfe and Fred Wolfe. He was an industrious young man, well liked by all who knew him. The funeral was held at the home on Thursday afternoon by Rev. Mr. Atkinson, and was attended by a large number of friends of the deceased.

Coughs that are tight, or distressing tickle ing coughs, get quick and certain help from Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. On this account druggists everywhere are favoring Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. And it is entirely free from Opium, Chloroform, or any other stupefying drug. The tender leaves of a harmless lung-healing mountainous shrub give to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy its curative properties. Those leaves have the power to calm the most distressing Cough, and to soothe, and heal the most sensitive bronchial membrane. Mothers should, for safety's sake alone, always demand Dr. Shoop's. It can with perfect freedom be given to even the youngest babes. Test it once yourself, and see! Sold by Funderburk Pharmacy.

Message to Husband Announcing Wife's Death Finds Him Dead Also

Durham, N. C., special in Charlotte Observer: Mrs. G. Frank Burbank, wife of an optician, died at Watts Hospital this morning, her death being sudden and from heart trouble.

Her husband, who was here until last Saturday and went to Greensboro, is also dead at the Benbow Hotel, in that city.

The story of the death of her husband came when a message was sent to him of the death of his wife here. The clerk stated that he was in his room and could not be aroused. A few minutes later it was communicated here that he also was dead, it being supposed that his death was caused by an overdose of morphine or some drug as he doped a great deal.

It is a strange coincidence, but it is not thought here that it was a suicide compact as the wife was getting along nicely until attacked by heart trouble and she was talking with her husband last night at 11 o'clock. Papers were found in the possession of the woman which indicate that her home was at Spring field, O.

Preventives, the new Candy Cold Cure Tablets, are said by druggists to have four special specific advantages over all other remedies for a cold. First—They contain no Quinine, nothing harsh or sickening. Second—They give almost instant relief. Third—Pleasant to the taste, like candy. Fourth—A large box—48 Preventives—at 25 cents. Also fine for feverish children. Sold by Funderburk Pharmacy.
