C. M. GALLOWAY APPOINTED. DEFIES MILITARY BOARD

GENERAL MOORE'S ATTITUDE.

Would Prevent Payment of Allotment to Liberty Hill Company by Injunction.

Columbia Special to Charleston News and Courier, June 11.—A fight between Adjutant General aght between Adjutant General Moore and the majority of the mem-bers of the military board, compos-ed of Governor Blease, General Wille Jones and Col. Julius E. Cogs-well, was stared las night, when the adjutant general declared that he would seek to prevent by an in-function from the courts by corryjunction from the courts the carry ing out of the order of the board to pay the allotment of $225 of the military funds to Company B, First Infantry, of Liberty Hill. This amount, due the company for 1912, had been held up by the aljutant general because of the failure of the Liberty Hill company to come up to the requirements of the law, and over his protest the military board ordered it paid.

N. S. Richards is the captain of the Liberty Hill company, he hav-ing succeeded his brother, Railroal Commissioner John G. Rich-ards, Jr., a few years ago. Over the protest of Adjutant General Moore the military board late yes-terday afternoon ordered the allotment of the military funds belong-ing to Company B, First Infantry of Liberty Hill, paid, this amount ing to $225.

This allotment had been held up by the Adjutant General because, as he stated, the plan of distributas he stated, the plan of distribut-ing the money pro rata among the forty members of the company was illegal, the appropriation being for maintenance. Capt. N. S. Rich-ards, of this company, reported that $12 of the amount would go for armory rent, and the balance be paid out to the members, which the Adjutant General held to be illegal, and an opinion of the attorney gen-eral held that the proposed plan of distribution was illegal. The com-pany also failed to show the required 60 per cent of attendance of its members on all drills as required by members on all drills as required by ed your welcome letter this noon the military code, its report for the and was glad to hear from you, as

The military board, by a vote of The military board, by a vote of 3 to 1, ordered the money paid, those voting aye being: Governor Blease, General Wille Jones and Colored General Wile Jones and that it is. I will always write you Colonel Cogswell and Adjutant Gen-eral Moore voting nay. Col. O. W. Babb, the other member, was ex-cused from voting, he being the assistant adjutant general.

General Moore stated last night that he would refuse to sign any warrant for the money for this company because it was llegal, and that he would take out an injunction to prevent the comptroller general paying it out.

NEWSPAPER LAW UPHELD AS VALID

and Throwing Her Body In Lake Como.

June 11.-Three Washington, years to a day after the discovery of the body of his wife in the wa-ters of Lake Como, Italy, Porter Charlton lost his long fight against being turned over by his native land to the Italian government for trial on a charge of murder. The United States supreme court yesterday sustained the state department's de-cision to deliver Charlton in com-

York and his father, Paul Charlton, was a classmate of ex-President Taft, and until recently fedoral judge in Porto Rico. The young man has been in jail in New Jersey since his arrest nearly three years ago.

Insanity was alleged as the main ground for opposing Charlton's re-moval to Italy, and it was further contended that the United States could not extradite one of its citizens to Italy, inasmuch as that coun-try had refused to extradite its subjects to the United States.

SUBSTANCE OF FINDINGS.

The supreme court held Charlton had no right to present evidence of his insanity at the extradition hearing and that the contention as to the power to extradite was erroneous. Justice Lurton, in announcing the court's decision, however, said that impressive evidence of insanity had ton's trial in Italy. The "mandate" of the supreme court, by which its decision will be made known officially to the New Jersey courts having jurisdiction over Charlton, will be issued short-ly after the court adjourns for the summer, June 16. The Italian em-bassy here will take no further steps in the matter, leaving such action as may be necessary to the Italian consul general at New York.

MURDER STIRRED TWO CONTI-NENTS.

The killing of Mrs. Porter Charlton stirred Europe and America as have few murders of recent years. With the discovery of her crumpled body stuffed into a trunk and sunk in Lake Como, Italy, where she had been with her husband to spend her honeymoon both continents turned to search for the murderer.

The first great problem to solve was the whereabouts of the 21-year-old husband, who as a bank clerk in New York, had married the woman, eight years older than himeslf and work the first week start right in saving your money by putting $1 or whatever you are able to put in the father, Paul Charlton, law adviser of the bureau of insular affairs and former President Taft's class mate, find out that it is a big sum. Don't was firm in the conviction that his son, too, had been murdered. That question was solved when Porter Charlton, with his initials marked on his suit case, arrived on a steamer from Italy, a few days later at Hoboken, N. J. That night there appeared a confession bearing his

With the acceptance of the confession as a solution of the crime, there arose almost at once the diplo-matic problem of Charlton's extradi-It was admitted on all hands tion. It was admitted on all hands that Charlton could not be tried in the United States for a crime com-mitted in Italy. His friends, head-ed by his father, took the position that he could not be extradited to Italy, because Italy had always re-fused, under the extradition treaty of 1868 to return Italian subjects tion. of 1868 to return Italian subjects to the United States to answer for crimes committed here.

Italy, however, made a request for the prisoner. Secretary Knox parried by asking if Italy thereby meant to waive its past interpreta-tion of the treaty. Months of diplo-matic exchanges followed.

HELD FOR EXTRADITION.

Judge John A. Blair of the court of Over and Terminer, in Hudson county, N. J., sitting as a federal extradition magistrate, held Charlton subject to extradition. The court declined to receive evidence of Charlton's insanity on the ground that under the law of New Jersey defences could not be made at a preliminary hearing on the nature then before the court. HARD TO GET MEN FOR ARMY.

Young Men Unwilling to Contract For Seven Years Service,

Washington, June 11 .- Difficulty in securing enlistments for the army is becoming so grave that an appeal may be made to Congress by the secretary of war to amend the existing enlistment laws. The reports indicate an unwillingness among the young men of the country to contract for service for a period as long as seven years, even after it is explained that only four of these years must be spent with the colors. With growing demands for troops for garrison duty in Hawaii and the canal zone and for the recruiting of regiments up to the full strength, this failure of the recruit-ing service is giving serious concern to army officers.

United States Supreme Court Rules That Sworn Statements Must be Furneshed.

Washington, June 11.—The val-dity of the newspaper publicity aw, enacted in 1912 as a provision of the postal appropriation act, was pheld yesterday by unanimous cision of the supreme court of the United States. Chief Justice White innounced the court's conclusions.

This law requires every newspaper, magazine, or other publication to file semi-annually with the postmaster general and the local postmaster, a sworn statement of the names of the editors, managers, owners, stockholders and bond-holders, and in the case of daily tewspapers of the average daily cir-milation. Publication of these vilation. Publication of these statements is required, and for fail ire to comply with any of the proisions the publication shall be deled the "privilege of the mails its second paragraph provides that paid-for editorials or reading matter of any "such" publication shall be marked "advertisement" under penalty of a fine or imprisonment

About 88 per cent of the newspapers already have complied with the law, many under protest The Journal of Commerce and Commer-cial Bulletin of New York led the attack upon the statute, bringing suits for injunction in the federa district court of Southern New York When the law was upheld there they appealed to the highest court They claimed that the law sought to "regulate journalism" and to en-force a censorship of the press.
