

AMERICA'S STONE-WALL DEFENCE

"* * * 'twas here the embattled farmers stood
And fired the shot heard 'round the world!"

At no National Crisis have Americans been weighed and found wanting. Back through the pages of history one may turn for verification of this fact and find it. For even antedating that historic day when a mere handful of patriotic farmers deserted their plows, grasped up their flint-locks and from the vantage of hedge and stone-wall poured forth such withering fire upon the invaders that their march of victory was turned into a complete rout, Americans have ever been ready to rally to the defense of home and country.

IT IS UP TO THE AMERICANS OF TODAY TO SEE THAT THESE GLORIOUS TRADITIONS ARE UPHELD.

For now, after more than a half-century of peace (with the possible exception of a few short months of warfare with a vastly inferior foe) we have been forced to take up arms against a ruthless, vengeful enemy who for generations has been preparing for a war of world conquest. To win, we must call forth the entire resources of America—in men—in money—in intelligence and resourcefulness.

THE LIBERTY LOAN OF NINETEEN-SEVENTEEN IS THE STONE-WALL BEHIND WHICH WE MUST WIN.

It will enable us to equip and maintain our fighting forces on land and sea—to build the enormous fleet of aircraft, submarines, destroyers, and cargo carriers necessary to overwhelm our adversaries. It will make it possible to prosecute war to a vigorous and successful termination and every dollar YOU invest in Liberty Loan Bonds will help to bring peace nearer.
