

IS NECESSARY TO MEET SITUATIONS FACED BY AMERICA

had Austria, as well as the smaller and weaker nations, in mind.

Appearing before congress in joint session for the first time since he asked for the war declaration against Germany last April, the President was more than usually warmly greeted, and his speech was received with enthusiastic applause which grew tumultuous when he reached the recommendation as to Austria. Diplomats, justices of the supreme court and other high officials assembled on the floor joined in the demonstration.

The definition of war aims and peace terms, the most explicit ever voiced by the head of any of the great warring powers, was accepted as the more significant because since his reply to the Pope's peace note the President has come to be regarded more and more as a spokesman for all the nations fighting Germany.

Flashed 'Round the World.
By advance arrangement the address was made available for publication Tuesday in nearly every corner of the globe. It probably will not appear in full in the Teutonic papers, but the papers of neutral countries and the work of allied aviators will get it to many Germans in unutilized form.

The request for a declaration of war with Austria met with virtually unanimous approval and congress was prepared to give prompt response. Passage by the house Thursday and by the senate Friday of the necessary resolution was planned by leaders, who began drafting the formal document soon after the President finished speaking.

Strong sentiment in favor of including Turkey and Bulgaria in the new war declaration in spite of the President's counsel was prevalent, but administration leaders expected to curb it by pointing to Mr. Wilson's declaration:

"We shall go wherever the necessities of this war carry us, but it seems to me that we should go only where immediate and practical considerations lead us and not heed any others."

The recommendation for war with Austria was generally received as meaning that the President has at last relinquished hope that peace might be forwarded through alienation of Austria from her dominating ally. It also recognizes the extension of the western front on which American forces are operating, to Italy, and will serve to hearten the Italians.

It was learned that in conversation with congressional leaders before leaving the capitol, the President said that the Austrian declaration was advised largely because it might be necessary at any time to have American soldiers aid Italy.

Approval of the address on all sides was pronounced and was demonstrated not only by the outbursts of applause, but in statements of the congressional leaders. Many declared it the greatest of the President's state papers. He was more than a half hour reading his manuscript in clear, penetrating tones, gaining in emphasis and earnestness of delivery as he proceeded to a dramatic conclusion with an invocation to God for victory for a "just and holy cause."

Immediately Adjourned.
Both branches of congress adjourned after the President closed, the house until Wednesday and the senate until Friday. Immediate steps were taken to translate the President's war recommendations into action. The house foreign relations committee was summoned to meet Wednesday at 2 p. m., and the senate foreign affairs committee Thursday morning. Chairman Flood, of the house committee, began drafting the Austrian war resolution, which will be similar to that of April 6 against Germany. Adjournment of the senate until Friday precludes final action before that time.

The widespread demand for addition of Turkey and Bulgaria in the resolution promises to be the only obstacle in the program of speedy enactment. Republicans in both senate and house committees are planning to vigorously urge such extension and many democrats are in sympathy with them. The senate committee also has before it a resolution introduced early Tuesday by Senator Pittman for Senator King proposing war with all of German's allies.

The senate passed the resolution declaring a state of war with Germany by a majority of 82 to 6, and in the house the vote was 373 to 50. Few expect so many negative votes.

Ironized Paw-Paw Tonic Lifts and Holds You—Alcohol Lifts, But Lets You Fall.

BEWARE OF DANGEROUS IMITATIONS.

Twenty-five years ago Paw-Paw Tonic was given to the public. Since then it has been improved upon by the addition of Nux and Iron, and today stands out pre-eminently as the best, the safest and most reliable remedy for stomach troubles, disordered nerves and impure blood.

IRONIZED PAW-PAW IS NOT A CURE-ALL

—It is prepared just for what we say and no more.

Don't trifle with your health, if you need some remedy take a tried one, which for a quarter of a century has stood the test of time.

No man or woman is equipped for noble deeds who is a dyspeptic or who is suffering from any form of nervousness and anemic conditions of the blood.

Indigestion, stomach troubles and impure blood weaken our minds, dwarf our capabilities and limit our possibilities.

Ironized Paw-Paw Remedy will do more to brighten the world, to dispel gloom, to make happy homes and strong iron bodies, than all the medicine that has ever been compounded. You get nearly 15 ounces, which is quantity with quality combined in these days of economic patriotism.

Your druggist probably keeps it; but if he doesn't, it is sold everywhere.

Ironized Paw-Paw, price $1.00. Formula on every bottle. Mail orders promptly attended to. Interstate Drug Co., Inc., New York.—Adv.

UNION.

Lancaster, S. C., R. F. D. 2, Dec. 6.—The Woman's Missionary society gave a box supper last Friday night. It was quite a success. The amount raised was $81, which will be used for the benefit of the church.

Mr. A. W. Mosier, of the navy, who is stationed at Charleston, is spending a few days with his mother, Misses Lula, Christine and Beulah Taylor, of Tabernacle, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Shute.

Mrs. Jasper Faulkinberry and children went to Taxahaw last week to visit her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Shute visited in the Tabernacle section Sunday.

Mr. Will Hinson, of Rich Hill, spent Sunday with his brother, Mr. S. M. Hinson.

County Demonstration Agent Graeber and Mr. W. W. Long, of Clemson college, met the farmers at the school house Friday afternoon in the interest of the production of wheat and rye.

SCRAWNY CALVES.
What makes a calf scrawny—off its feed? Germs—parasites—in the intestines. Why not free them of this trouble? If you will give the calf some B. A. Thomas Stock Remedy in its feed, within a week you will see it brighten up and in four or five weeks you won't know the calf. Costs you but a few cents and we will refund that if it doesn't do as we say.—Adv.

Lancaster Mercantile Co. this time, and there is little prospect of another such debate as that which preceded action last April.

There has been no indication, however, of what is to be expected from the small group which has opposed the government's war policies. Senator LaFollette today did not join in the denunciations of approval given the President's utterances. With folded arms and contracted brows, he sat intently watching the executive, but without applause, and did not rise with the throng at various junctures.

Senator Stone, chairman of the Senator LaFollette Tuesday did not who voted against the first war resolution, probably will be in charge of the Austrian resolution in the senate. He has announced his intention to give full support to the prosecution of the war and favors recognizing the status of Austria.

New Treatment for Croup and Colds

Relieves by Inhalation and Absorption. No Stomach Dosing.

Plenty of fresh air in the bedroom and a good application of Vick's "Vap-O-Rub" Salve over the throat and chest is the best defense against all cold troubles. The medicated vapors, released by the body heat, loosen the phlegm, clear the air passages and soothe the inflamed membrane. In addition, Vick's is absorbed through the skin. 25c, 50c, or $1.00.

MIDWAY.

Kershaw, S. C., R. F. D. 5, Dec. 6.—Owing to the lateness of the fall the farmers are continuing to sow grain. One of our farmers bought a tract of land Monday at Clerk's sale and went to Kershaw Tuesday morning soon to get seed wheat to seed it. That's patriotic, isn't it? Cotton picking has about concluded. Selling too.

As soon as the temperature drops low enough hog-killing will be in general order.

It's true, cotton is bringing a good price, but I think the "all cotton" farmer would have a "tougher" time now than he did years ago.

In my opinion, now is the "accepted time" for the young man to buy a home. I mean those who have not. Every community needs lots of small farms, occupied with industrious, hard-working, honest, clever, white men, who are willing to earn a living, build and patronize a school house, and attend church every Sunday.

Messrs. J. B. Byrd and W. A. Johnson, of Camp Jackson, spent Sunday at home with their families.

Catoe Bros., of Kershaw, are putting up about one thousand dollar's worth of wire fence on their plantation in this section, preparatory to live stock farming. Their success will no doubt, inspire others to enter the industry.

Our "Day" and Sunday school is making fine progress.

Mr. Editor, as you know, Midway means in the center, or half way from one to the other. A school house was erected about thirty years ago between Flat Creek and Pleasant Plain schools, and they named it Midway.

We respectfully invite inspection and new comers.

WAS IT PELLAGRA?

Mr. F. S. Crumbly, 7th Street, Greenville, S. C.

Who for the last five years has suffered agonies with his stomach. Indigestion in its worst form, had wrecked his health entirely. His stomach would bloat and sour gases would form after eating even the lightest diets, says Mr. Crumbly. "My appetite was almost gone; everything I ate hurt me. I was so nervous could not sleep or rest. I had tried a number of medicines, also been to hospital for a treatment. These all failed, and I was given up as a hopeless case. I with others decided I had that deadly malady, PELLAGRA. My friends advised me to try Waco Tonic, and as a drowning man reaches for the straw, I bought one bottle of Waco Tonic, used it and found such great improvement in my condition that I procured the other five bottles, which made the full treatment. And, sir, I can say I feel like a new man.

Twelve months later he calls and says, "I am still well." Many who have suffered for years with indigestion, rheumatism and kidney troubles, after taking a few bottles of this wonderful health-giving remedy are being restored to health and happiness.

That's just what Waco Tonic is doing in Lancaster county. We give it Free every day at the store, Riddle Building, Main Street, Lancaster, S. C.—Adv.

LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION.

State of South Carolina, County of Lancaster.

By J. E. Stewman, Judge of Probate. Whereas Clyburn B. Williams hath made suit to me to grant him Letters of Administration of the estate and effects of William K. Williams, deceased.

There are, therefore, to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and creditors of the said deceased, that they be and appear before me, in the Court of Probate, to be held at Lancaster on December 20th, 1917, next, after publication thereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any they have, why the said Administration should not be granted.

Given under my hand, this 5th day of December, anno domini 1917. J. E. STEWMAN, Probate Judge.

WAS UNABLE TO WALK AT TIMES. SHE SAYS

To Move Around She Had to Push a Chair Before Her.

HAD TRYING EXPERIENCES

Mornings Were Miserable For Mrs. Durham, But the Afternoons Brought Her More Comfort.

Though she had suffered with rheumatism so badly she could not walk at times during three or four years, and had been troubled a great deal with a number of other ailments, Mrs. J. T. Durham, of 2210 S. Main St., Anderson, declares that "Tanlac relieved my rheumatism and other troubles and got me in good shape in three weeks, after a lot of other medicines had failed to help me."

"I suffered with rheumatism so badly I could not walk at times," continued Mrs. Durham, "and for several hours every morning when the rheumatism was particularly bad I would have to sit in a chair after being helped from my bed and then my muscles would get so I could move around by pushing a chair before me. I generally was able to get around enough to get to dinner, though I could never get breakfast."

"One of my legs was badly drawn, and I hurt all over and suffered torture. I had rheumatism badly for three or four years, but I had been in bad health for about nine years, when I began to take Tanlac. I also was troubled a great deal with indigestion and headaches, and my nerves were almost 'gone to pieces.' I could not sleep well, and my system was weak and run down and I felt tired out all the time."

"The Tanlac soon got me where I could do my housework, for it quickly relieved the rheumatism and that drawing in my leg. I am strong and feel well now. Tanlac certainly is a fine medicine for rheumatism, I think. I very seldom ever feel a pain in my body now, so well did Tanlac break up the rheumatism."

"The medicine also built up my system in general, gave me a fine appetite and relieved the indigestion. I could not eat anything hardly when I began taking Tanlac, but it got me so I could eat anything I wanted. I can also sleep well now, and the Tanlac relieved the nervousness. I sure do feel fine, and the improvement in my condition is due to Tanlac."

Tanlac, the master medicine, is sold exclusively by J. F. Mackey, Lancaster; Peoples Drug & Grocery Co., Heath Springs; C. O. Floyd, Kershaw.—Adv.

An Ambition and a Record

THE needs of the South are identical with the needs of the Southern Railway: the growth and success of one means the upbuilding of the other.

The Southern Railway asks no favors—no special privileges not accorded to others.

The ambition of the Southern Railway Company is to see that unity of interest that is born of co-operation between the public and the railroads; to see perfected that fair and frank policy in the management of railroads which invites the confidence of governmental agencies; to realize that liberality of treatment which will enable it to obtain the additional capital needed for the acquisition of better and enlarged facilities incident to the demand for increased and better service; and, finally—

To take its niche in the body politic of the South alongside of other great industries, with no more, but with equal liberties, equal rights and equal opportunities.

"The Southern Serves the South."
