

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM
LETTER FROM MR. BARNUM.
New York, July 14, 1866.

Messrs. Herring & Co.,
GENTLEMEN.—The destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public. I am happy to verify the old adage, that "It is as ill wind that blows nobody good," and consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safe has again demonstrated its superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found almost intact, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, portfolios of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM.

HERRING'S PATENT CHAMPION SAFES.
The most reliable protection from fire now known.

Herring & Co.'s Patent Bankers' Safes, with Herring & Co.'s Patent Crystalized Iron, the best and earliest against a burglar's drill ever manufactured.

Card Printing.
We shall make special efforts to excel in this department, and confidently anticipate a liberal share of the public patronage.

THE COFFAGE PRINTING PRESS is the best cheap printing press ever introduced to public notice. Simple, durable and efficient, occupying but little space, it is adapted to meet the wants of business men and others who, for the sake of economy, necessity, or convenience, wish to do their own printing, and on their own premises. It enables them, without delay, and at a small expense, to print circulars, circulars, cards, bill-heads, &c., and in style equal to that of the most costly printing offices. Although designed and used by the most successful business and professional men, yet to country merchants and druggists it is an invaluable invention, furnishing not only the best, but the cheapest method of advertising and increasing one's business. With each press we furnish, if desired, the necessary type, ink, &c., for the execution of any kind of printing.

No more acceptable present can be made to youth than one of these printing offices. It combines lucra et honorem with amusement and instruction. It is a better school for the young man than the counting office—such a thing as an illiterate printer being unknown; and for the purpose of learning the trade as an employment for life, the possession of one of our small printing offices renders a regular apprenticeship unnecessary.

Printed instructions for setting type and managing the press accompany each office. When desired, the types will be arranged for printing in Spanish, French, German and other foreign languages. Circulars sent free. Specimen sheets of types, cuts, &c., on request.
