

Teaching for a Fight.
 "Every one knows that the colored people have exhibited more patience under wrong and oppression, than any other people on the face of the globe. They are never the aggressors, and when ever they do use violence, it is a last resort for protection.
 Designing men are seeking to bring on collisions between white and colored men at the South, in order that public sentiment may be influenced against the latter. Let them be disappointed in this. Let our people keep cool, think and then act lawfully, calmly and firmly—continue to trust in God as they did, when from Southern hill tops they watched for the Union flag. Let faith in our cause inspire a grand heroism that tramples passion under foot, and does the duty required by the hour. It is not wise to unnecessarily embitter one's white neighbor. If he is a political enemy do not treat him as a personal one.
 Nor on the other hand, should any colored citizen shrink from a political duty for fear of sacrificing the personal friendship of a white neighbor. The country has enfranchised the colored men of the South. They are called upon to vote for the principles which declare their enfranchisement—they must register and vote. They will do it at all hazards, and the wicked men who may make this the occasion of bloody strife, will find that the soldiers of the Republic are able to keep peace in the family.
 Inciting Riots.
 The men and journals who accuse Judge Kelly of inciting the Mobile riot in effect declare that a murderer may plead as a just excuse for his crimes his hatred of Free Speech. In Judge Kelly's speech, as reported in an ex-Rebel paper, there is not a word that should have provoked disturbance, much less the brutal discharge of pistols and guns, and indiscriminate bloodshed. He spoke plainly, honestly, mildly, and his declaration that the 15th United States Infantry was there to maintain his rights was a manly utterance provoked by persistent insult, and for which decent men would have cheered him. No, Judge Kelly was not shot at for anything he then said, but for his votes in Congress, and because of his loyal reputation. The men who sought his life are those who do not resent their treason, and rejoice at every chance to repeat it, and would put down freedom and free speech by violence if they had the power.
 Baptism.
 Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost—Matthew, XXVIII, chap. 19, verse 19.
 On Sunday the 24th instant, between the hours 7 and 8 o'clock, a. m., D. V., the Morris street Baptist Church, will have the sacred ordinance of Baptism administered by the Pastor, in the Ashley river near Council street, West end of Tradd. But if the weather should be unfavorable, the ordinance will be administered in the church.
 Prior to the baptism, a collection will be taken up in aid of the Church.

GET THE BEST, A COMPREHENSIVE DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE.
 MAINLY ABRIDGED FROM DR. W. SMITH'S DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE.
 WITH Important Additions and Improvements, and Five Hundred Illustrations.
 Dr. Smith's Dictionary of the Bible, published in 1847, and containing more than three large octavo volumes, nearly 6,200 pages, is a work of acknowledged excellence; but its size, cost, and scholarly character, must prevent any extensive circulation of it among the great mass of those who desire and need a Dictionary of the Bible. The "Comprehensive Dictionary" on which nearly two years of editorial labor have already been expended, differs in origin, as well as in position, on the part of the Editor and Publisher, of the need of such a modified abridgement of the original work as should make the results of modern scholarship generally accessible.
 The Editors, Rev. Samuel W. Barnum, M. A., well known among the graduates of Yale College as an accurate and thorough scholar. His experience in 1845-'47, as the principal assistant of the late Prof. Goodrich, in the revision of Webster's Dictionary, and his long and successful editorial career, and his subsequent labors as an official contributor of the Scriptures, give him a practical acquaintance with the wants of the people in the field of Biblical knowledge.
 The Editors, Publishers, which have guided in the preparation of the present work, have bound:
 I. To make every thing intelligible to those who understand only English, and to place them as nearly as possible on a level with the scholars who are familiar with the original languages of the Scriptures.
 II. To condense the greatest possible amount of valuable information into one volume of convenient size and moderate cost.
 III. To guard against all fallacies hostile to Christian truth and love.
 IV. To make the page somewhat larger than that of Smith's Dictionary, and the type of a heavy and more easily read. No pains will be spared to make the mechanical execution as accurate and beautiful as possible.
 The Dictionary will consist of 8 volumes, the 1st volume will be published in about 22 numbers.
 PRICE OF EACH NUMBER IN A NEAT PAPER COVER, Three Cents.

BELLS, WEST TROY BELL FOUNDRY.
 The subscribers continue to manufacture at their old and well known Foundry, their superior bells for Churches, Academies, Factories, Steamboats, Locomotive, Fire Alarms, etc., made of genuine bell metal (copper and tin) composition, as warranted with their Improved Patent Mountings, and warranted in every particular.
 "That no substitute, equal to copper and tin, for making bells, has yet been discovered," has recently been announced as the decision of the Royal Institute of British Architects and is a fact well known where bells of base material, such as Iron, Cast Steel, etc., have been brought into comparison with a good article of the genuine Bronze. Not possessing any marked resonant or vibratory qualities, such material cannot produce a good ringing bell; and, while genuine bell-metal, as material, always has a high commercial value, the other can only command the price of old iron.
 An assortment of our Bells is kept at the Foundry, as also with our Generous Agents, FAIRBANKS & CO., (SOLE WAREHOUSE,) 252 BROADWAY, NEW YORK, who will sell at Foundry price, and who, with the undersigned, will give prompt attention to all orders and communications.
 For full information in regard to our Bells, send for an Illustrated Catalogue.

NEW YORK TRIBUNE.
 THE LARGEST AND CHEAPEST.
 Notwithstanding the fact that the size of THE TRIBUNE has been increased more than one quarter, the price will remain the same. NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE FOR
The Great Family Newspaper.
 THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TRIBUNE
 is printed on a large double medium sheet, making eight pages of six broad columns each. It contains all the important Editorials published in THE DAILY TRIBUNE, except those of merely local interest; also Literary and Scientific Intelligence; Reviews of the most interesting and important New Books; the Letters from our large corps of correspondents; the latest news received by Telegraph from Washington, and all other parts of the country; a Summary of all important intelligence in this city and elsewhere; a Synopsis of the Proceedings of Congress and State Legislatures when in session; Exclusive Reports of the Proceedings of the Farmers' Club of the American Institute; Talks about Fruit, and other Horticultural and Agricultural information essential to country residents; Stock, Financial, Cattle, Dry Goods and General Market Reports; making it, both for variety and completeness, altogether the most valuable, interesting and instructive WEEKLY NEWSPAPER published in the world.
 The Full Reports of the American Institute Farmers' Club, and the various Agricultural Reports, in each number, are richly worth a year's subscription.
TERMS.

THE NEW-YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE
 is published every TUESDAY and FRIDAY, and contains all the Editorial articles, not merely local in character; Literary Reviews and Art Criticisms; Letters from our large corps of Foreign and Domestic Correspondents; Special and Associated Press Telegraph Dispatches; a careful and complete Summary of Foreign and Domestic News; Exclusive Reports of the Proceedings of the Farmers' Club of the American Institute; Talks about Fruit, and other Horticultural and Agricultural Information; Stock, Financial, Cattle, Dry Goods and General Market Reports, which are published in THE DAILY TRIBUNE. THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE also gives, in the course of a year, THREE or FOUR of the BEST AND LATEST POPULAR NOVELS, by living authors. The cost of these alone, if bought in book form, would be from six to eight dollars. If purchased in the ENGLISH MAGAZINES, from which they are carefully selected, the cost would be three or four times that sum. Nowhere else can so much current intelligence and permanent literary matter be had at so cheap a rate as in the SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE. Those who believe in the principles and approve of the character of THE TRIBUNE can increase its power and influence by joining with their neighbors in forming clubs to subscribe for THE SEMI-WEEKLY Edition. It will in that way be sent to them at the lowest price for which such a paper can be printed.
 Mail subscribers, 1 copy, 1 year—104 numbers, $4.00
 Mail subscribers, 2 copies, 1 year, $7.00
 5 copies, or over, for each copy $2.00

AYER'S AGUE CURE,
 FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.
 Fever and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison, but a great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toxæmic Paralysis, Cholera, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Abortion of the spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the "Chill" type, or become periodical. This "Chill" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and, moreover, is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient, when cured, is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint can not be overestimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.
 Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists.

GOE'S DYSPEPSIA CURE!
