R. HOE & CO., MANUFACTURERS OF Warranted Extra Cast Steel Patent Ground Circular Mill Mule and Gang SAWS. CIRCULAR SAWS, With Movable or Inserted Teeth. WE CLAIM for our Patented Circular Saw the following advantages over all others: The shanks of the teeth are elastic, and exert a uniform distension in the sockets. The stability of the plate is in no way affected by inserting new sets of teeth. Each tooth, independently, may be adjusted to the cutting line. No rivets, keys, or other objectionable appliances are employed in connection with the teeth, which are as simple in construction, and as easily used, as a nut for a bolt. In short, all the difficulties heretofore experienced in the use of movable teeth for saws, are fully met and obviated by this invention. ALSO, TUTTLE PATENT CHAMPION CROSS CUT SAWS, CROSS CUT SAWS, OF ALL KINDS. Saw Moulds, Gunning Machines, &c. Send for Catalogue and Price List. R. Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. 10,000 Words and Meanings not in other Dictionaries.—300 Engravings; 1840 Pages Quarto. Price $12. One of my daily companions. My testimony to its erudition, the accuracy of its definitions, and to the vast etymological research by which it has been enriched through the labor of a century, is now redoubled as it is of much value, sustaining as it does in world-wide reputation, by so general an approbation; but I have no hesitation in thus expressing my sense of its merit. —Hon. John L. Motley, the Historian, and now an American Minister at the Court of St. James, 1858. In its general accuracy, completeness and practical utility, the work is one which none can read or review without admiration and to dispense with. —Atlantic Monthly. "Young man, if you already have a Bible, buy Webster's Unabridged Dictionary next." —E. C. S. These three books are the sum total of great literature: the Bible, Shakespeare, and Webster's Royal Quarto.—Chicago Evening Journal. This work, well used in a family, will be of more advantage to the members thereof than hundreds of dollars laid up in money. Alliance Monitor. The most useful and remarkable compilation of human knowledge in our language.—W. S. Clark, President Mass. Agricultural College. Webster's National Pictorial Dictionary—1040 Pages Octavo. 600 Engravings. Price $6. The work is really a gem of a Dictionary, just the thing for the million.—American Educational Monthly. Published by G. & C. MERRIAM, Springfield, Mass., Feb 2 87

Doty's Washing Machine. Duly Much Improved—and the new UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER IMPROVED with Rowell's Patent Double Cog wheels, and the Patent Story are now unopposedly the superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented, and will save your coat twice a year, by saving labor and clothes. Southern people who have used them testify as follows: "They save three fourths of the labor and cost, and pay for themselves both in money and contentment. Let every young lady learn to use them, and every married one keep them in her house."—New Orleans Picayune. "An excellent Washing Machine. We have tried it. The Clothes Wringer is very superior. A good hand will wash a large number of articles in less than an hour."—Raleigh (N. C.) Episcopal Methodist. "The Machine is no humbug, but a necessity in every family."—Georgetown (N. C.) Kaleidoscope. "We could not part with it for any thing, and he could not do without it."—Morganton (W. Va.) Post. "We have one, and speak from observation. It works admirably. In one year it will pay for itself."—Cleveland (Tenn.) Banner. "We have one of Doty's Clothes Washers, and our household are in ecstasies over it. They are great economizers of time and labor."—Edy field (S. C.) Advertiser. "Far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented, and an indispensable institution in every family."—Martinsburg (Md.) Gazette. "No one, after fairly testing their capabilities, will be willing to do without them."—Raleigh (N. C.) Observer. "We have one of the excellent Machines in use, and we cheerfully recommend it for all that is claimed for it."—Rutherfordton (N. C.) Indicator. "A child ten years old can do the waiving job as well as a grown person. Every good housewife should have one for her family."—Morganton (W. Va.) Constitution. "After over two years' experience with a Doty, we are assured that it is the greatest help and economizer of time, labor and money, we have yet had introduced in our household."—Williamson (Tenn.) Banner. "I have had a Doty Washer in my family for some time. It gives entire satisfaction, and I take pleasure in commending it to the heads of every household."—R. Towners, Jefferson, Tenn. "I have had one of Doty's Clothes Washers in use for a year, and am perfectly satisfied with it. My family have tried it faithfully, and have never known it to fail to accomplish all that it professes to."—Prof. J. F. Stone, Concord Female College, Stateville, N. C.

PRICES—A Fair Offer. If the Merchants in your place will not furnish, or send for the Machines, send us the retail price, Washer $15, Extra Wringer $20, and we will forward either or both machines, free of freight, to place a machine no one is selling; and so sure are we they will be liked, that we agree to refund the money if any one wishes to return the machine free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions. No husband, father or brother, should permit the drudgery of washing with the hands, fifty two days in the year, when it can be done better, more expeditiously, with less labor, and no injury to the garments, by Doty's Clothes Washer, and a Universal Wringer. Sold by dealers generally, to whom liberal discounts are made. R. C. BROWNING, Gen. Agent, 32 Cortland St., New York. Feb 16 87

Notice. The Charlotte Columbia and Augusta Railroad Company having been formed by the consolidation of the Charlotte and South Carolina and the Columbia and Augusta Railroad, and having executed a first and only mortgage on its entire property of 195 miles including equipment, is now redeeming all its bonds formerly issued by said two companies by an exchange of its first mortgage bonds. These bonds bear seven per cent. interest, payable in January and July, and are fully secured by a mortgage on its property which cost per mile more than three times the amount of bonds so issued. The present price of the stock and the interest of the road give ample guarantee of the security of the obligations for a permanent investment. Indeed the opinion is freely expressed, that there is no safer bond found by any party or corporation in the State, and they are cheerfully recommended to capitalists as a safe investment. For the purpose of funding the floating debt of the Company, $500,000 of these bonds are offered for sale to the order of the Treasurer's Office in Columbia. W. M. JOHNSTON, President. Feb 16 87
